Radio Wars Truth Propaganda And The Struggle For Radio Australia:

Radio Wars Errol Hodge, 1994-06-19 Radio Australia the multilingual overseas radio service of the Australian Broadcasting Corporation is little known in Australia but is heard by millions of listeners in the Asia Pacific region and others throughout the world Radio Wars first published in 1995 was the first book to tell the story of this important but unexplored aspect of Australia's international presence Launched in 1939 as a propaganda tool the service was for three decades caught uncomfortably between those who would use it as an instrument of foreign policy and those who would have it an icon of journalistic integrity But the author argues that by the time of the Dili massacre propaganda had given way to forthright and factual reporting Spiced with anecdotal detail Radio Wars traces a struggle that ranges from personal pettiness to events with significant political ramifications

Australia In the early 1950s Australia embarked on its most ambitious attempt to engage with Asia the Colombo Plan This book examines the public and private agendas behind Australia s foreign aid diplomacy and reveals the strategic political and cultural aims that drove the Colombo Plan It examines the legacy of WWII how foreign aid was seen as crucial to achieving regional security how the plan was sold to Australian and Asian audiences and the changing nature of Australia s relationship with Britain and the United States Above all this is the question of how Australia sought to project itself into the region and how Asia was introduced into the Australian consciousness In answering these questions this book tells the story of how an insular society deeply scarred by the turbulence of war chose to face its regional future Perspectives on Radio and Television F. Potter, 2012-07-05 Broadcasting was born just as the British empire reached its greatest territorial extent and matured while that empire began to unravel Radio and television offered contemporaries the beguiling prospect that new technologies of mass communication might compensate for British imperial decline In Broadcasting Empire Simon J Potter shows how from the 1920s the BBC used broadcasting to unite audiences at home with the British settler diaspora in Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa High culture royal ceremonial sport and even comedy were harnessed to this end particularly on the BBC Empire Service the predecessor of today s World Service Belatedly during the 1950s the BBC also began to consider the role of broadcasting in Africa and Asia as a means to encourage development and to combat resistance to continued colonial rule However during the 1960s as decolonization entered its final accelerated phase the BBC staged its own imperial retreat This is the first full length scholarly study to examine both the home and overseas aspects of the BBC s imperial mission Drawing on new archival evidence it demonstrates how the BBC s domestic and imperial roles while seemingly distinct in fact exerted a powerful influence over one another Broadcasting Empire makes an important contribution to our understanding of the transnational history of broadcasting emphasising geopolitical rivalries and tensions between British and American attempts to exert influence on the world s radio and television systems Dust Bowl Janette-Susan Bailey,2016-10-04 This book takes the Dust Bowl story beyond Depression America to describe the dust bowl concept as a transnational phenomenon where during World War Two US and Australian national mythologies converged Dust Bowl begins with Depression America the New Deal and the US Dust Bowl where massive dust storms darkened the skies of the Great Plains and triggered a major national and international media event and generated imagery describing a failed yeoman dream Dust Bowl refugees and the coming of a new American Desert Dust Bowl traces the evolution of this imagery to Australia World War Two and New Deal inspired stories of conservation mindedness soil erosion and enemies sheep farmers and traitors creeping deserts and human extinction super human housewives and natural disaster and finally grand visions of a nation building post war scheme for Australia s iconic Snowy River that vision became the Snowy Mountains Hydro electric Scheme Strangling Aunty: Perilous Times for the Australian Broadcasting Corporation Virginia Small,2021-09-24 Drawing on a wealth of academic research statistics and interviews with key Australian media people including present and former Australian Broadcasting Corporation staffers this book explores the transitions of the ABC under various types of organisational re strategising governance and political shifts The book provides the reader with an authoritative narrative as to how the ABC has lost its iconic status in Australian society and unfolds how the ABC has strayed from its respected public charter which endowed the ABC with a distinctive and important role in informing educating and entertaining the Australian public Successive federal government funding cuts have shrunk staffing levels and services while it has pursued a corporatist model that mimics the trappings and practices of commercial media In that process it has become politicised and trivialised thereby threatening its demise The book is a unique and timely contribution at a time of dwindling interest for the funding of public assets everywhere There is no other book in the market that addresses the decline of the organisation the ABC and analyses the reasons for its demise within an organisational theoretical framework The book is written for an educated general audience with academics and media practitioners specifically in mind and has everyday applications for business organisations operating in the public sector by bringing together important findings of public funding budgets management and organisational strategies and evolution Paul Hasluck Geoffrey Bolton,2014 Annotation Sir Paul Hasluck was for almost two and a half decades one of Australia s most prominent politicians Born in Fremantle in 1905 and educated at Perth Modern School and The University of Western Australia Hasluck worked for The West Australian and lectured at The
