Raiding The Icebox Reflections On Twentieth Century Culture:

Raiding the Icebox Peter Wollen, 2020-05-05 Raiding the Icebox is a kaleidoscopic review of the avant garde and radical subcultures of the twentieth century and explains how the most powerful artistic statements of the era redrew the line between high and low art Beginning with an analysis of the role of Diaghilev and the Russian Ballet Wollen argues that modernism has always had a hidden suppressed side which cannot easily be absorbed into the master narrative of modernity Wollen reviews the hopes fears and expectations of artists and critics such as the Bauhaus movement as fascinated by Henry Ford s assembly line as they were by the Hollywood dream factory concluding with Guy Debord s caustic dystopian vision of an all consuming Society of the Spectacle Finally Wollen chronicles the emergence of a subversive sensibility as he explores some of the unexpected new cultural forms which non Western artists are taking as modernism enters into crisis at the beginning of a new century reversing the rules of the game and raiding the icebox of the West Raiding the Icebox.

Reflections on Twentieth-century Culture Peter Wollen, 2008 Raiding the Icebox Peter Wollen, 1993 Raiding the Icebox presents an alternative history of 20th century art and culture focusing especially on the rise and fall of modernism

Italian Style Eugenia Paulicelli, 2016-09-22 Since its beginning and during periods of great transformations movie going for both men and women was akin to going to a fashion parade Before the explosion of digital technology and its enchanted world access to fashion was only accessible on the big screen Fashion and style became reachable for the masses through cinema And with the genre of the fashion film this continues today Focusing on a number of crucial films and directors from the silent era to the present this study will offer for the first time an in depth exploration of the interaction between fashion and Italian cinema The study however will privilege the golden age of Italian cinema especially the crucial decades of the 1950s and 1960s during which through the marriage of fashion and film Italian fashion and style were launched globally Through the lens of fashion the study will revisit the films of some of Italy s most important film makers such as Antonioni Fellini Visconti and others and films as old as Mario Oxilia s silent Rapsodia Satanica 1917 to Luca Guadagnino s I am Love 2009 The Oxford Handbook of Science Fiction Rob Latham, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Science Fiction attempts to descry the historical and cultural contours of SF in the wake of technoculture studies Rather than treating the genre as an isolated aesthetic formation it examines SF s many lines of cross pollination with technocultural realities since its inception in the nineteenth century showing how SF s unique history and subcultural identity has been constructed in ongoing dialogue with popular discourses of science and technology The volume consists of four broadly themed sections each divided into eleven chapters Section I Science Fiction as Genre considers the internal history of SF literature examining its characteristic aesthetic and ideological modalities its animating social and commercial institutions and its relationship to other fantastic genres Section II Science Fiction as Medium presents a more diverse and ramified understanding of what constitutes the field as a mode of artistic and pop cultural expression canvassing extra literary manifestations of SF ranging from film and television to videogames and hypertext to music and theme parks Section III Science Fiction as Culture examines the genre in relation to cultural issues and contexts that have influenced it and been influenced by it in turn the goal being to see how SF has helped to constitute and define important sub cultural groupings social movements and historical developments during the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries Finally Section IV Science Fiction as Worldview explores SF as a mode of thought and its intersection with other philosophies and large scale perspectives on the world from the Enlightenment to the present day

Strangers at Home Rita Keresztesi, 2005-01-01 Strangers at Home reframes the way we conceive of the modernist literature that appeared in the period between the two world wars This provocative work shows that a body of texts written by ethnic writers during this period poses a challenge to conventional notions of America and American modernism By engaging with modernist literary studies from the perspectives of minority discourse postcolonial studies and postmodern theory Rita Keresztesi questions the validity of modernism's claim to the neutrality of culture She argues that literary modernism grew out of a prejudiced racially biased and often xenophobic historical context that necessitated a politically conservative and narrow definition of modernism in America With the changing racial ethnic and cultural makeup of the nation during the interwar era literary modernism also changed its form and content Contesting traditional notions of literary modernism Keresztesi examines American modernism from an ethnic perspective in the works of Harlem Renaissance immigrant and Native American writers She discusses such authors as Countee Cullen Nella Larsen Zora Neale Hurston Anzia Yezierska Henry Roth Josephina Niggli Mourning Dove D Arcy McNickle and John Joseph Mathews among others Strangers at Home makes a persuasive argument for expanding our understanding of the writers themselves as well as the concept of modernism as it is currently defined

Gerstner, 2023-03-21 Discovering the queer auteur and their seductive cinematic delights and possibilities How do we identify the queer auteur and their queer imaginings Is it possible to account for such a figure when the very terms queer and auteur invoke aesthetic surprises and disorientations disconcerting ironies and paradoxes and biographical deceits and ambiguities In eighteen eloquent chapters David A. Gerstner traces a history of ideas that spotlight an ever shifting terrain associated with auteur theory and in particular queer auteur theory Engaging with the likes of Oscar Wilde Walter Benjamin James Baldwin Jean Louis Baudry Linda Nochlin Jane Gallop C. El Keegan Luce Irigaray and other prominent critical thinkers Gerstner contemplates how the queer auteur in film theory might open us to the work of desire Queer Imaginings argues for a queer auteur in which critical theory is reenabled to reconceptualize the auteur in relation to race gender sexuality and desire Gerstner succinctly defines the contours of a history and the ongoing discussions that situate queer and auteur theories in film studies Ultimately Queer Imaginings is a journey in shared pleasures in which writing for and about cinema makes way for unanticipated cinematic friendships Envisioning Taiwan June Yip, 2004-10-07 Traces the growth and evolution of a Taiwan's sense of itself as a separate and distinct entity by examining the diverse ways a discourse of nation has been produced in the Taiwanese cultural imagination ReFocus: The Films of Xavier Dolan Andree Lafontaine, 2019-07-29 This book looks at Spike Jonze's ground breaking work in both features and short forms exploring the impact of his filmmaking across a range of philosophical and cultural discussions Flamboyant Fictions Ian Fleishman, 2024-12-15 Exposes a stylistic tradition of flamboyantly failed passing in queer literature and film This book posits formal experimentation as an index for evolving expressions of male homosexuality from literary modernism to the German New Wave and the present day Ian Fleishman exposes a tradition of flamingly failed passing that is itself a surreptitious mode of passing the flaunting of queer style as an intentionally unconvincing cover for queer content Exploring a corpus of films and novels by Andr Gide Jean Genet Rainer Werner Fassbinder Werner Schroeter Fran ois Ozon and Xavier Dolan among others Flamboyant Fictions The Failed Art of Passing intervenes in trenchant debates about queer agency visibility negativity and disidentification Mapping queer strategies of storytelling onto queer practices of self invention Flamboyant Fictions wagers that it is precisely in instances of conflict between these auteurs and their inventions that narrative becomes a laboratory for testing the sovereignty and self determination of queer identity

Cubism and Its Histories David Cottington, 2004 Cubism was the most influential artistic movement that emerged in the twentieth century Yet just what cubism was or stood for at the time of its emergence is still in dispute while the explanations offered for its importance for twentieth century art and its legacy for the present are bewildering in their variety This fascinating book offers a way beyond this confusion a narrative of its beginnings consolidation and dissemination that takes into account not only what the style and the movement signified at the time of its emergence but also the principal writings through which cubism's significance for modernism has been established Visually stunning with over 100 illustrations this is an essential work for all students and teachers of modern art history
