Raincoast Chronicles 23 Peter A. Robson, 2015-04-25 When the first edition of Raincoast Chronicles was produced by a couple of novice publishers in the unlikely location of Pender Harbour in 1972 it boldly announced that it was going to put BC character on the record Printed in sepia ink and decorated with the rococo flourishes characteristic of that extravagant era the unclassifiable journal cum serial book about life on the BC coast struck a nerve and in time became something very close to what it set out to be a touchstone of British Columbia identity Soon the term Raincoast which had been coined by the editors was appearing on boats puppet theatres interior decorating firms and at least one other publishing enterprise Raincoast Chronicles also created another publishing enterprise Harbour Publishing Many of the stories that started out as articles in the Chronicles grew into books and so the White family was more or less forced to get into book publishing to deal with them That undertaking went on to publish some six hundred books and counting about every possible aspect of BC and in 2014 celebrated its fortieth anniversary in the biz To honour that occasion this special double issue of Raincoast Chronicles takes a tour down memory lane selecting a trove of the most outstanding stories in all those Harbour books and republishing them in one volume Here are some of Canada's most exciting and iconic writers Al Purdy Anne Cameron Edith Iglauer Patrick Lane and Grant Lawrence to start a long list Here also are stories of disasters at sea scarcely believable bush plane feats eerie events at coastal ghost towns and a First Nations elder who has seen so many sasquatches he finds them sort of boring Full of great drawings and photos this jumbo anniversary edition of Raincoast Chronicles is a feast of great Pacific Northwest storytelling

International Books in Print, 1991      Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975      Canadian Books in Print, 2003      God's Little Ships Michael L. Hadley, 1995 The men and women of the Columbia Coast Mission ships legendary figures in the history of the BC coast are brought vividly to life in this readable well researched volume From 1904 to the mid 1970s the mission sent out ships in all kinds of weather delivering medical care and non sectarian spiritual support to logging camps Native villages and white settlements in 20 000 square miles of rugged coastline John Antle who founded the mission was a devout and practical Christian who measured his success in services to BC's outposts rather than material wealth or number of converts Immortalized in Margaret Craven's I Heard the Owl Call My Name and in the hearts and memories of families all over the coast the mission was a glad bold organization that could be as rough cut and unconventional as the individuals it served

Small Matters Mona Gleason, 2013 An innovative study of the struggle for healthy children in early twentieth century Canada      Canadian Books in Print Marian Butler, 2000      A Bridge of Ships James Pritchard, 2011-05-20 In A Bridge of Ships James Pritchard tells the story of the rapidly changing circumstances and forceful personalities that shaped government shipbuilding policy He examines the ownership and expansion of the shipyards and the role of ship repairing as well as recruitment and training of the labour force He also tells the story of the struggle for steel and the expansion of ancillary industries Pritchard provides a definitive picture of Canada's wartime ship production assesses the cost more than 1.2 billion and explains why such an enormous effort left such a short lived legacy The story of Canada's shipbuilding industry is as astonishing as that of the nation's wartime navy The personnel of both expanded more than fifty times yet the history of wartime shipbuilding remains virtually unknown With the disappearance of the Canadian shipbuilding industry from both the land and memory it is time to recall and assess its contribution to Allied victory BCLA Reporter British Columbia Library Association,1994 The Best Loved Boat Ian Kennedy,2023-10-28 Built in 1913 the Canadian Pacific Railway's ship Princess Maquinna steamed up and down the rugged west coast of Vancouver Island in summer and winter calm weather and storms for over forty years and has become one of the most beloved boats in BC's maritime history Princess Maquinna sometimes referred to as the Ugly Princess but most often Old Faithful transported Indigenous people settlers missionaries loggers cannery workers prospectors and travellers of all kinds up and down Vancouver Island's rugged and dangerous west coast stopping at up to forty ports of call on her seven day run The Princess Maquinna faithfully served as the lifeline for all those who lived on the west coast of Vancouver Island before it became accessible by roads Because of this strong connection she became the Best Loved Boat in BC's maritime history Kennedy recounts battles through eighty knot gales along the exposed coastline sailors called The Graveyard of the Pacific and reveals the bigotry that forced Indigenous and Chinese passengers to remain on the foredeck of the ship while other passengers sheltered from the elements inside He brings the history of this beloved ship to life with rich detail recalling a time when this remote part of British Columbia was alive with mines canneries and now forgotten settlements

The Lumberjacks Donald MacKay,2007-05-15 Short listed for the 1978 Governor General's Award for Non Fiction The 19th century spawned a unique breed of men who took pride in their woodsmen skills and rough codes of conduct. They called themselves lumberers, shantymen, timber beasts, les bucherons, and more recently lumberjacks working in the vast forests of eastern Canada and British Columbia. Across the country, farm boys would go to the woods lumbering, being the only winter work available. Immigrants, Swedes and Finns, more often than not resumed the trades they had learned so well in the forests of northern Europe. They broke the cold, hard monotony of camp life with songs, tall tales, and card games. Within these pages, author Donald MacKay allows us a glimpse into that moment in our heritage when men entered the virgin forest to carve out an industry from the seemingly endless array of pine, spruce, maple, and balsam fir found there.

Ocean of Destiny Arthur Lower, 2011-11-01. The modern history of the North Pacific began five hundred years ago when Europeans sailed into the ocean for the first time. This discovery shaped the destinies of seven countries that now rim its Asiatic and North American shores: Russia, China, Japan, North Korea, South Korea, the United States, and Canada. Their history is an exciting epic of discovery: the great expeditions of Marco Polo, Drake, and Magellan; the quest for the spices of Cathay; the early days of the fur trade; the gold rush; and the long treks westward across North America to first establish Canadian and American possessions on the Pacific shore. Rivalry and confrontation were part of this epic. From the sixteenth to the nineteenth century, European powers contested for the riches of the East and the West, the wealth of the ocean, and territory to satiate colonial ambitions. Since that time, full-blooded conflicts developed between Asian states and between Asia and the Western powers. As a major trading power in the Pacific with no tradition of territorial expansion and as a respected peacekeeper, Canada is in a unique position to view the history of the Pacific impartially. This survey is doubly valuable, not only as the first history of the North Pacific dealing with the concurrent events in the East and West, but also as a history reflecting Canada's international outlook.

Captain Alex MacLean Don MacGillivray, 2008-11-01. Alex MacLean was the inspiration for the title character in Jack London's bestselling novel The Sea Wolf. Originally from Cape Breton, MacLean sailed to the Pacific side of North America when he was twenty-one and worked there for thirty-five years as a sailor and sealer. His achievements and escapades while in the Victoria fleet in the 1880s laid the foundation for his status as a folk hero.

But this biography reveals more than the construction of a legend Don MacGillivray opens a window onto the sealing dispute brought the United States and Britain to the brink of war with Canadian sealing interests frequently enmeshed in espionage scientific debate diplomatic negotiations and vexing questions of maritime and environmental law      Aboriginal People and Other Canadians Martin Thornton,Roy Todd,2001-12-06 Aboriginal People and Other Canadians discusses a wide variety of issues in Native studies including social exclusion marginalization and identity justice equality and gender self help and empowerment in Aboriginal communities and in the cities and methodological and historiographical representations of social relationships The contributors attempt to gauge whether the last decade of the twentieth century was a time of constructive transition and whether new patterns of relations are emerging after the recent challenges to the colonial legacy by Aboriginal people      The Essential W. P. Kinsella W. P. Kinsella,2015-02-23 This career retrospective celebrates the 80th birthday of baseball s greatest scribe W P Kinsella Shoeless Joe as well as the 25th anniversary of Field of Dreams the film that he inspired In addition to his classic baseball tales W P Kinsella is also a critically acclaimed short fiction writer His satiric wit has been celebrated with numerous honors including the Order of British Columbia Here are his notorious First Nation narratives of indigenous Canadians and a literary homage to J D Salinger Alongside the real story of the 1951 Giants and the afterlife of Roberto Clemente are the legends of a pirated radio station and a hockey game rigged by tribal magic Eclectic dark and comedic by turns The Essential W P Kinsella is a living tribute to an extraordinary raconteur
