The Rainmaker of Deadman Lloyd Madison, 1957      Dead Man's Hand: An Anthology of the Weird West John Joseph Adams, 2014-05-13 HOW THE WEST WAS WEIRD From a kill or be killed gunfight with a vampire to an encounter in a steampunk bordello the weird western is a dark gritty tale where the protagonist might be playing poker with a sorcerous deck of cards or facing an alien on the streets of a dusty frontier town Here are twenty three original tales stories of the Old West infused with elements of the fantastic produced specifically for this volume by many of today s finest writers Included are Orson Scott Card s first Alvin Maker story in a decade and an original adventure by Fred Van Lente writer of Cowboys Aliens Other contributors include Tobias S Buckell David Farland Alan Dean Foster Jeffrey Ford Laura Anne Gilman Rajan Khanna Mike Resnick Beth Revis Fred Van Lente Walter Jon Williams Ben H Winters Christie Yant Charles Yu      Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1958 Includes Part 1 Number 1 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January December      Rain Maker Colin Martin, 2014-12-08 Based almost a century before Dream Master this another tense psychological horror novel is centred upon Ethan who after surviving the dry and treacherous plains of Colorado finds consolation in an isolated village on the Kansas border As he learns that all are suffering from drought he tries to help one family but underestimates their intense religious belief and the Preacher that governs them Forgetting his corrupt past he believes he can summon rain and rescue the girl he loves but is all what it seems      On Literary Attachment in South Africa Michael Chapman, 2021-09-01 This book reflects on the literary in literature Less ideologically construed more affirmative of literary attachment the study adopts a style of intimacy its tough love in a correlation between the creative work and the critical act Instead of configuring literary works to state of the nation issues the usual approach to literature from South Africa the chapters keep alive a space for conversation whether accented inwards to locality or outwards to the Anglophone world the world to which literature in South Africa continues to belong albeit as a problem child A postcolony that is not quite a postcolony South Africa is richly but frustratingly textured between Africa and the West or the South and the North Its literature hovering on the cusp of its locality and its global reach raises peculiar questions of reader reception epistemological and aesthetic frame and archival use Are the Nobel laureates Nadine Gordimer and J M Coetzee local writers or global writers Is the novel or the short story the more appropriate form at the edges of metropolitan cultures Given language race and culture contestation how do we recover Bushman expression for contemporary use How to consider the aesthetic appeal of two contemporaneous works one in English the other in isiXhosa the one indebted to Bloomsbury modernism the other to African custom How does Douglas Livingstone attach the Third World to the First World in both science and poetry What has a born free novelist Kopano Matlwa got to do with the Bard of Avon In a time of theorisation is it permissible for Lewis Nkosi to embody literary criticism in an autobiographical journey How to read the rupturing event the statue of Rhodes must fall through a literary sensibility Alert to the influence of critique

the study is equally alert to the limits of critique Reflecting on several writers works and events that do not feature in current publications On Literary Attachment in South Africa releases literature to speak to us today within the contours of its originating energy

Southern African Literatures Michael J. F. Chapman,2003 Southern African Literatures is a major study of the work of writers from South Africa Zimbabwe Zambia Malawi Angola Mozambique and Namibia written at a time of crucial change in the subcontinent It covers a wide range of work from the storytelling of stone age Bushmen to modern writing by renowned figures such as Es kia Mphahlele Nadine Gordimer and Andr c Brink encompassing traditional popular and elite writing literature in translation and case studies based on topical issues Michael Chapman argues that literary history in the southern African region is best based on a comparative method which while respecting differences of language race and social circumstance seeks cultural interchange including translations of experience across linguistic and ethnic borders Instead of perpetuating division the study examines points of common reference as it asks what makes a literary culture Who are to be regarded as major and minor authors What are the strengths and limitations of local and international perspectives Should literature in today s southern Africa be confined to the art forms of poems plays and fiction The author seeks to answer these questions vital to all literary discussion in the volatile context of recent southern African history in a style accessible to the general reader The study is republished with a revised Preface in which the author considers the sometimes heated debates that accompanied the book s initial appearance Southern African Literatures in 2000 was awarded the premier Bill Venter Prize for academic literature in South Africa

G. Seligman,Brenda Z. Seligman,2024-02-29 First published in 1932 Pagan Tribes of the Nilotic Sudan is a general conspectus of the people traditions culture and ways of thought in southern Sudan The authors give their view of the remote racial origins of the people with whom their studies are concerned and then of the great sub racial units whom they class as dolichocephals and mesaticephals respectively The former comprise first the Nilotes Shilluk Nuer and Dinka who live and move and have their being in an atmosphere of cattle and who it is thought had their cradleland somewhere east of the Great Lakes and second the Nilo Hamites such as the true Bari various Lotuko speaking tribes etc The mesaticephals consist of the Fung Nuba peoples on the one hand and on the other the South Western group of whom Azande are the best known Exceptional interest is attached to the research conducted among the Bari The social organization of this tribe is complex and curious particularly their beliefs regarding rain stones rainmakers and clouds The language used is a reflection of its era and no offence is meant by the Publishers to any reader by this republication This book will be of interest to students of history anthropology ethnography and ethnic studies     White Man's Game Stephanie Hanes,2025-06-25 A probing examination of Western conservation efforts in Africa where our feel good stories belie a troubling reality The stunningly beautiful Gorongosa National Park once the crown jewel of Mozambique was nearly destroyed by decades of civil war It looked like a perfect place for Western philanthropy revive the park and tourists would return a win win outcome for the environment and the impoverished villagers living in the area So why did some researchers find the local communities actually getting hungrier sicker and poorer as the project went on And why did efforts to bring back wildlife become far more difficult than expected In pursuit of answers Stephanie Hanes takes readers on a vivid safari across southern Africa from the shark filled waters off Cape Agulhas to a reserve trying to save endangered wild dogs She traces the tangled history of Western missionaries explorers and do gooders in Africa from Stanley and Livingstone to Teddy Roosevelt from Bono and the Live Aid festivals to Greg Carr the American benefactor of Gorongosa And she examines the larger problems that arise when Westerners try to fix complex messy situations in the developing world acting with best intentions yet potentially overlooking the wishes of the people who live there Beneath the uplifting stories we tell ourselves about helping Africans she shows often lies a dramatic misunderstanding of what the locals actually need and want A gripping narrative of environmentalists and insurgents poachers and tycoons elephants and angry spirits White Man s Game profoundly challenges the way we think about philanthropy and conservation      Garrett For Hire Glen Cook,2013-03-05 Meet Garrett P I He s a hardboiled human detective who stands out in a crowd of elves trolls and other otherworldly denizens in the magical city of TunFaire Garrett For Hire is fantasy noir at its best Library Journal collecting three novels from Glen Cook s classic urban fantasy series Deadly Quicksilver Lies A rich woman hires Garrett to find her missing daughter or to act as her hitman In TunFaire sometimes it s hard to tell the difference leaving him no choice but to sift through the sex intrigue and murder to uncover the truth behind this case Petty Pewter Gods With TunFaire real estate at a premium and prayer palaces at a minimum the big gods on the block hold a contest find the key to the one temple still available for worship And when two rival pantheons try to hire Garrett to find it on their behalf he finds himself facing the wrath of gods Faded Steel Heat Riots between humans and non humans have turned TunFaire into a war zone And when a powerful gang of human rightists drag Garrett into the fray he defends himself with a circle of friends no one would wish on their worst enemy      Radio Drama Martin Grams,
