Rascuache Lawyer Alfredo Mirandé, 2011-09-01 Alfredo Mirand a sociology professor Stanford Law graduate and part time pro bono attorney represents clients who are rascuache a Spanish word for poor or even wretched and on the margins of society For Mirand however rascuache means to be down but not out an underdog who is still holding its ground Rascuache Lawyer offers a unique perspective on providing legal services to poor usually minority folks who are often just one short step from jail Not only a passionate argument for rascuache lawyering it is also a thoughtful practical attempt to apply and test critical race theory particularly Latino critical race theory in day to day legal practice Every chapter presents an actual case from Mirand s experience only the names and places have been changed His clients have been charged with everything from carrying a concealed weapon indecent exposure and trespassing to attempted murder domestic violence and child abuse Among them are recent Mexican immigrants drug addicts gang members and the homeless All of them are destitute and many are victims of racial profiling Some pay Mirand with bartered services such as painting home repairs or mechanical work on his car And Mirand doesn t always win their cases But as he recounts he certainly works tirelessly to pursue all legal remedies Each case is presented as a letter to a fascinating fictional Super Chicana named Fermina Gabriel who we are told is an accomplished lawyer author and singer This narrative device allows the author to present his cases as if he were recounting them to a friend drawing in the reader as a friend as well Bookending the individual cases Mirand s introductions and conclusions offer a compelling vision of progressive legal practice grounded in rascuache lawyering

The Empire Strikes Back Arthur D. Austin, 1998-09 Once dismissed as plodding and superfluous legal scholarship is increasingly challenging the liberal white male establishment that currently dominates legal education and practice The most significant development since the emergence of the casebook at the turn of the century this trend has unleashed a fierce political struggle At stake is nothing less than the entire enterprise of law and education and thus a powerful platform from which to shape society The result here vividly recounted by Arthur Austin has been an uncompromising take no prisoners fight for dominance The challenge comes from Outsiders a collection of feminists critical race theorists and critical legal studies scholars who rely on unconventional methods such as storytelling to give voice to the underrepresented In the other demographically larger camp resides the monolithic Empire consisting of traditionalists who having developed an effective form of scholarship now circle the wagons against the outsider heathens Neither partisan nor objective Austin is both respectful and critical of each faction The Empire he believes is imperious closed minded and self perpetuating the Outsiders are too often paranoid anti pragmatic and overly tolerant of fringe work Is the new scholarship a vacuous overpoliticized soon to be vanquished trend or the harbinger of an important new paradigm Is reconciliation possible Anyone with a vested interest in the answer to these questions and in the future of law cannot afford to miss Arthur Austin s invaluable volume The Coming Race War? Richard Delgado,1996-05 In The Washington Post Julius Lester praised Richard Delgado s The Rodrigo Chronicles Conversations about America and Race as free of cant and ideology an excellent starting place for the national discussion about race we so desperately need The New York Times has hailed Delgado as a pioneer in the study of race and law and the Los Angeles Times has compared his storytelling style to Plato s Dialogues In The Coming Race War Delgado turns his attention to the American racial landscape in the wake of the mid term elections in 1994 Our political and racial topography has been radically altered Affirmative action is being rolled back immigrants continue to be targeted as the source of economic woes and race is increasingly downplayed as a source of the nation s problems Legal obstacles to racial equality have long been removed we are told so what s the problem And yet the plight of the urban poor grows worse The number of young black men in prison continues to exceed those in college Informal racial privilege remains entrenched and systemic Where asks Delgado in this new volume will this lead Enlisting his fictional counterpart Rodrigo Crenshaw to untangle the complexities of America s racial future Delgado explores merit and affirmative action the nature of empathy and more commonly false empathy and the limitations of legal change Warning of the dangers of depriving the underprivileged of all hope and opportunity Delgado gives us a dark future in which an indignant white America casts aside once and for all the spirit of the civil rights movement with disastrous results Handbook of Critical Race Theory in Education Marvin Lynn,Adrienne D. Dixson,2021-10-25 This handbook illustrates how education scholars employ Critical Race Theory CRT as a framework to bring attention to issues of race and racism in education It is the first authoritative reference work to provide a truly comprehensive description and analysis of the topic from the defining conceptual principles of CRT in Law that gave shape to its radical underpinnings to the political and social implications of the field today It is divided into six sections covering innovations in educational research policy and practice in both schools and in higher education and the increasing interdisciplinary nature of critical race research New chapters broaden the scope of theoretical lenses to include LatCrit AsianCrit and Critical Race Feminism as well as coverage of DisCrit Studies Research Methods and other recent updates to the field This handbook remains the definitive statement on the state of critical race theory in education and on its possibilities for the future Racism, Public Schooling, and the Entrenchment of White Supremacy Sabina E. Vaught,2011-04-22 The racial achievement gap in U S education is a pervasive and consistent problem an unavoidable fact of public schooling in this country Because This Is Not for Us is a multi site critical race ethnography of policy and institutional relationships in an large urban West Coast school district focused on the practices that created and sustain the achievement gap in that district's schools In this daring and provocative work author Sabina Elena Vaught examines how this gap and the policies and practices that sustain it is produced and reproduced by structures of racism and race attitudes operative in education She interweaves numerous interviews with and observations of teachers principals students school board members community leaders and others to describe the complex arrangement of racial power in schooling and concludes that the institutional relationships that create and support policy practices ensure the continued undereducation of Black and Brown youth Confounded Expectations George W. Jarecke, Nancy K.

Plant, 2000 George W Jarecke and Nancy K Plant present a selection of cases across a broad spectrum of American law to demonstrate that our society relies inappropriately on the legal system to cure ills the system was not designed to address Jarecke and Plant note that while we in the United States worry considerably about the problem of individual assumption of responsibility whether for personal mistakes financial setbacks or pure bad luck we appear uneasy about the concept and unclear about what it means on a daily basis Not only are we incapable of accepting personal responsibility we barely know what it means to do so Mistakenly we turn to the legal system to solve this dilemma Yet our laws as our legislators write them as judges interpret them as lawyers argue them and as juries apply them send mixed messages about whether and how we should exercise personal responsibility Each chapter of Confounded Expectations features one main case to explain one legal theory with other cases noted as examples of facets of each theory To demonstrate the law that requires merchants to guarantee the quality of their products for example Jarecke and Plant discuss the case of the band mothers whose fund raising luncheon menu included turkey salad contaminated by salmonella Peripheral cases include a horse falsely sold as a gelding a riding mower that tipped over when used as instructed makeup that was guaranteed to be safe but caused a rash and pigs sick with hog cholera The Judicial Process Christopher P.
