Roman Polanski A Guide To References And Resources:

Roman Polanski Gretchen Bisplinghoff, Virginia Wright Wexman, 1979 Roman Polanski James Morrison, 2022-08-15
A new take on an eclectic and controversial director James Morrison's critical study offers a comprehensive and critically engaged treatment on Roman Polanski's immense body of work Tracing the filmmaker's remarkably diverse career from its beginnings to 2007 the book provides commentary on all of Polanski's major films in their historical cultural social and artistic contexts Morrison locates Polanski's work within the genres of comedy and melodrama arguing that he is not merely obsessed with the theme of repression but that his true interest is in the concrete what is out in the open and why we so rarely see it The range of Polanski's filmmaking challenges traditional divisions between high and low culture For example The Ninth Gate is a brash pastiche of the horror genre while The Pianist is an Academy Award winner about the Holocaust Dubbing Polanski a relentless critic of modernity Morrison concludes that his career is representative of the fissures victories and rehabilitations of the last fifty years of international cinema A volume in the series Contemporary Film Directors edited by James Naremore The Cinema of Roman Polanski John Orr, Elżbieta Ostrowska, 2006 Roman Polanski is one of the great maverick figures of world cinema with a long career starting in Poland with his short films of the 1950s and running through to the present with Oliver Twist This collection highlights the bold and dazzling diversity of his work as well as recurrent themes and obsessions Jean-Luc Godard, a Guide to References and Resources Julia Lesage, 1979 Stanley Kubrick, a Guide to References and Resources Wallace Coyle, 1980 Roman Polanski Daniel Bird, 2002 Polanski a world famous BAFTA and Golden Globe winning director and Oscar nominee has made headlines both for his fabulous films including Rosemary's Baby Macbeth Chinatown and The Ninth Gate and his shocking personal life which included the murder of his wife Sharon Tate by Charlie Manson and later being accused of drugging and raping an underage girl This little book provides an introduction to the man and the director reviews and analyses each of his movies and includes a handy multi media reference section The Reel Shakespeare Lisa S. Starks, Courtney Lehmann, 2002 This collection models an approach to Shakespeare and cinema that is concerned with the other side of Shakespeare's Hollywood celebrity taking the reader on a practical and theoretical tour through important non mainstream films and the oppositional messages they convey The collection includes essays on early silent adaptations of Hamlet Greenway's Prospero's Books Godard's King Lear Hall's A Midsummer Night's Dream Taymor's Titus Polanski's Macbeth Welles' Chimes at Midnight and Van Sant's My Own Private Idaho Sixties British Cinema Robert Murphy, 2019-07-25 British films of the 1960s are undervalued Their search for realism has often been dismissed as drabness and their more frivolous efforts can now appear just empty headed Robert Murphy's Sixties British Cinema is the first study to challenge this view He shows that the realist tradition of the late 50s and early 60s was anything but dreary and depressing and gave birth to a clutch of films remarkable for their confidence and vitality Saturday Night and Sunday Morning A Kind of Loving and A Taste of Honey are only the better known titles Sixties
