HĀ-ĪSH MŌSHE: Studies in Scriptural Interpretation in the Dead Sea Scrolls and Related Literature in Honor of Moshe J. Bernstein Binyamin Y. Goldstein, Michael Segal, George J. Brooke, 2017-10-23 The eighteen studies in this volume in honor of

Moshe Bernstein on the occasion of his 70th birthday mostly engage with Jewish scriptural interpretation the principal theme of Bernstein's own research career as expressed in his collected essays Reading and Re-Reading Scripture at Qumran Brill 2013 The essays develop a variety of aspects of scriptural interpretation Although many of them are chiefly concerned with the Dead Sea Scrolls the significant contribution of the volume as a whole is the way that even those studies are associated with others that consider the broader context of Jewish scriptural interpretation in late antiquity As a result a wider frame of reference for scriptural interpretation impinges upon how scripture was read and re-read in the scrolls from Qumran

Women and the Roman City in the Latin West Emily Hemelrijk, Greg Woolf, 2013-07-18 Roman Cities as conventionally studied seem to be dominated by men Yet as the contributions to this volume which deals with the Roman cities of Italy and the western provinces in the late Republic and early Empire show women occupied a wide range of civic roles Women had key roles to play in urban economies and a few were prominent public figures celebrated for their generosity and for their priestly eminence and commemorated with public statues and grand inscriptions Drawing on archaeology and epigraphy on law and art as well as on ancient texts this multidisciplinary study offers a new and more nuanced view of the gendering of civic life It asks how far the experience of women of the smaller Italian and provincial cities resembled that of women in the capital how women were represented in sculptural art as well as in inscriptions and what kinds of power or influence they exercised in the societies of the Latin West

Imperial Identities in the Roman World Wouter Vanacker, Arjan Zuiderhoek, 2016-12-08 This volume rather than concentrating on politics and imperial administration studies the manifold ways in which people were ritually engaged in producing consuming organising and worshipping that fitted the changing realities of empire focusing on how individuals and groups tried to do things the right way the Greco-Roman imperial way Given the deep cultural entrenchment of ritualistic practices an imperial identity firmly grounded in such practices might well have been instrumental not just to the long lasting stability of the Roman imperial order but also to the persistency of its ideals well into post-Roman times

Paul's Visual Piety J. M. F. Heath, 2013-05-02 This book is at the interface between Visual Studies and Biblical Studies and is the only monograph to date on St Paul s visual piety Heath argues that biblical scholarship has downplayed this worldly visuality in Christian culture and that the exegesis of Paul is both a partial cause and a symptom of this disciplinary blind spot

Do You Now Believe? Pamela E. Hedrick, 2017-06-14 Can anything good come from Nazareth Questions by their very nature are provocative they provoke answers Questions emerge from the desires of the human spirit Questions lead to insight into the new but those insights can be blocked by preconceptions that obscure present experience including experience of the divine presence At the same time human beings cannot make progress in understanding without some amount of belief which liberates understanding Jesus faced these concerns in the people around him and we face them in ourselves today By examining the role of questions in the Gospels of Mark and John we see Jesus s capacity to orient his listeners in their search for meaning and thus cultivate in ourselves a willingness to believe what we have inherited as well as an openness to new experience its call to reinterpret beliefs and if necessary to change

Relating Religion Jonathan Z. Smith, 2004-11-10 One of the most influential theorists of religion Jonathan Z. Smith is best known for his analyses of religious studies as a discipline and for his advocacy and refinement of comparison as the basis for the history of religions Relating Religion gathers seventeen essays four of them never before published that together provide the first broad overview of Smith s thinking since his seminal 1982 book Imagining Religion Smith first explains how he was drawn to the study of religion outlines his own theoretical commitments and draws the connections between his thinking and his concerns for general education He then engages several figures and traditions that serve to define his interests within the larger setting of the discipline The essays that follow consider the role of taxonomy and classification in the study of religion the construction of difference and the procedures of generalization and redescription that Smith takes to be key to the comparative enterprise The final essays deploy features of Smith's most recent work especially the notion of translation Heady original and provocative Relating Religion is certain to be hailed as a landmark in the academic study and critical theory of religion

Ecology and Theology in the Ancient World Ailsa Hunt, Hilary F. Marlow, 2019-03-21 This multi disciplinary volume brings together the voices of biblical scholars classicists philosophers theologians and political theorists to explore how ecology and theology intersected in ancient thinking both pagan Jewish and Christian Ecological awareness is by no means purely a modern phenomenon Of course melting icecaps and plastic bag charges were of no concern in antiquity frequently what made examining your relationship with the natural world urgent was the light this shed on human relationships with the divine For in the ancient world to think about ecology was also to think about theology This ancient eco theological thinking whilst in many ways worlds apart from our own environmental concerns has also had a surprisingly rich impact on modern responses to our ecological crisis As such the voices gathered in this volume also reflect on whether and how these ancient ideas could inform modern responses to our environment and its pressing challenges Through multi disciplinary conversation this volume offers a new and dynamic exploration of the intersection of ecology and theology in ancient thinking and its living legacy

Roman Religion Valerie M. Warrior, 2006-10-16 Examining sites that are familiar to many modern tourists Valerie Warrior avoids imposing a modern perspective on the topic by using the testimony of the ancient Romans to describe traditional Roman religion The ancient testimony recreates the social and historical contexts in which Roman religion was practised It shows for example how when confronted with a foreign cult official traditional religion accepted the new cult with suitable modifications Basic difficulties however arose with regard to the monotheism of the Jews and Christianity Carefully integrated with the text are visual representations of divination prayer and sacrifice as depicted on monuments coins and inscriptions from public buildings and homes throughout the Roman world Also included are epitaphs and humble votive offerings that illustrate the piety of individuals and that reveal the prevalence of magic and the occult in the spiritual lives of the ancient Romans

Controlling Contested Places Christine Shepardson, 2019-05-14 From constructing new buildings to describing rival controlled areas as morally and physically dangerous leaders in late antiquity fundamentally shaped their physical environment and thus the events that unfolded within it Controlling Contested Places maps the city of Antioch Antakya Turkey through the topographically sensitive vocabulary of cultural geography demonstrating the critical role played by physical and rhetorical spatial contests during the tumultuous fourth century Paying close attention to the manipulation of physical places Christine Shepardson exposes some of the powerful forces that structured the development of religious orthodoxy and orthopraxy in the late Roman Empire Theological claims and political support were not the only significant factors in determining which Christian communities gained authority around the Empire Rather Antioch's urban and rural places far from being an inert backdrop against which events transpired were ever shifting sites of and tools for the negotiation of power authority and religious identity This book traces the ways in which leaders like John Chrysostom Theodoret and Libanius encouraged their audiences to modify their daily behaviors and transform their interpretation of the world and landscape around them Shepardson argues that examples from Antioch were echoed around the Mediterranean world and similar types of physical and rhetorical manipulations continue to shape the politics of identity and perceptions of religious orthodoxy to this day

Reading Dreams Derek S. Dodson, 2009-06-25 Dodson reads the dreams in the Gospel of Matthew 1 18b 25 2 12 13 15 19 21 22 27 19 as the authorial audience This approach requires an understanding of the social and literary character of dreams in the Greco Roman world Dodson describes the social function of dreams noting that dreams constituted one form of divination in the ancient world and looks at the theories and classification of dreams that developed in the ancient world He then moves on to demonstrate the literary dimensions of dreams in Greco Roman literature This exploration of the literary representation of dreams is nuanced by considering the literary form of dreams dreams in the Greco Roman rhetorical tradition the inventiveness of literary dreams and the literary function of dreams The dreams in the Gospel of Matthew are then analyzed in this social and literary context It is demonstrated that Matthew's use of dreams as a literary convention corresponds to the script of dreams in other Greco Roman narratives This correspondence includes the form of the Matthean dreams dreams as a motif of the birth topos 1 18b 25 the association of dreams and prophecy 1 22 23 2 15 23 the use of the double dream report 2 12 and 2 13 15 and dreams as an ominous sign in relation to an individual's death 27 19 An appendix considers the Matthean transfiguration as a dream vision report
