Herta

Müller Brigid Haines, Lyn Marven, 2013-06-20 This volume is a critical companion to the works of Herta Müller winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2009 Müller 1953 is a Romanian German novelist essayist and producer of collages whose work has been compared with that of W G Sebald and Franz Kafka The Nobel Committee described her as a writer who with the concentration of poetry and the frankness of prose depicts the landscape of the dispossessed In works such as Niederungen Nadirs Herztier The Land of Green Plums Reisende auf einem Bein Traveling on One Leg and Atemschaukel The Hunger Angel all written in German but translated worldwide Müller addresses vital contemporary issues such as dictatorship migration memory and the ongoing legacy of fascist and communist rule in Europe Her works are written in a rich poetic language which imbues them with great power and depth They exceed national boundaries and have universal appeal they speak to a global audience attuned to political oppression and its lasting effects This volume containing contributions by an international team of scholars introduces the work of one of Europe s foremost contemporary writers to a world audience Individual chapters deal with M ller s major works and her volumes of collages Other chapters explore her poetics and the Romanian background as well as themes such as gender and life writing running throughout her work and her worldwide reception through the media and the medium of translation Native Peoples of the World Steven L. Danver,2015-03-10

This work examines the world s indigenous peoples their cultures the countries in which they reside and the issues that impact these groups Announcement Columbia University. Division of Modern Languages and Literatures,1922

Manual of Deixis in Romance Languages Konstanze Jungbluth,Federica Da Milano,2015-10-16 Deixis as a field of research has generated increased interest in recent years It is crucial for a number of different subdisciplines pragmatics semantics cognitive and contrastive linguistics to name just a few The subject is of particular interest to experts and students philosophers teachers philologists and psychologists interested in the study of their language or in comparing linguistic structures The different deictic structures not only the items themselves but also the oppositions between them reflect the fact that neither the notions of space time person nor our use of them are identical cross culturally This diversity is not restricted to the difference between languages but also appears among related dialects and language varieties This volume will provide an overview of the field focusing on Romance languages but also reaching beyond this perspective Chapters on diachronic developments language change comparisons with other non European languages and on interfaces with neighboring fields of interest are also included The editors and authors hope that readers regardless of their familiarity with Romance languages will gain new insights into deixis in general and into the similarities and differences among deictic structures used in the languages of the world

The Oxford History of Romanian Morphology Martin Maiden,Adina Dragomirescu,Gabriela Pană Dindelegan,Rodica Zafiu,2021 This book offers the first comprehensive account of the development of the complex morphological system of Romanian It shows how the controversial origins of many of the distinctive morphological features of the language have important implications for broader historical Romance linguistics and indeed for morphological theory more generally

The Phonetics and Phonology of Contrast Margaret E. L. Renwick,2014-09-12 This book proposes that phonological contrast in particular the robustness of a phonemic contrast does not depend solely on the presence of minimal pairs but is instead affected by a set of phonetic usage based and systemic factors This perspective opens phonology to a more direct interpretation through phonetic analysis undertaken in a series of case studies on the Romanian vowel system Both the synchronic phonetics and morpho phonological alternations are studied to understand the forces that have historically shaped and now maintain the phonemic system of Romanian A corpus study of phoneme type frequency in Romanian reveals marginal contrasts among vowels in which a sharp distinction between allophones and phonemes fails to capture relationships among sounds An investigation of Romanian provides insight into the historical roots of marginal contrast and a large acoustic study of Romanian vowels and diphthongs is a backdrop for evaluating the phonetic and perceptual realization of marginal contrast The results provide impetus for a model in which phonology phonetics morphology and perception interact in a multidimensional way

The Making of Modern Romanian Culture Alex Drace-Francis,2005-11-23 How do literacy and the development of literary culture promote the development of a national identity This well researched and readable book explores the rise of Romanian language literary educational and printing institutions in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries bringing out a story that has not been fully explored in English In twenty concise yet scholarly chapters Alex Drace Francis builds on and engages with current knowledge about print culture modernization national identity and state formation to make an original contribution to ongoing debates in these areas

Innovative Educational Approaches to Creative Writing Skills Liliana Mata, Monalisa-Laura Gavrilut, 2025-06-20 This book provides innovative educational approaches to the development of primary school students creative writing skills and highlights the need to develop creative writing skills in today's schools. It presents the educational model of creative writing skills training which combines all curriculum components: educational objectives, curricular contents, teaching methods and techniques, and competency based assessment. This book also explores new perspectives such as creative writing as art, freedom and exploration, the digitization of creative writing, and promoting reflective learning through creative writing exercises. This book serves as a useful guide for educators to foster creative writing in primary school classrooms as well as for researchers in the field of language teaching and other readers who are interested in the topic.

Linguistic Landscape in the City Elana Shohamy, Eliezer Ben-Rafael, Monica Barni, 2010-07-29 This book focuses on linguistic landscapes in present day urban settings. In a wide ranging collection of studies of major world cities, the authors investigate both the forces that shape linguistic landscape and the impact of the linguistic landscape on the wider social and cultural reality. Not only does the book offer a wealth of case studies and comparisons to complement existing publications on linguistic landscape, but the editors aim to investigate the nature of a field of study which is characterised by its interest in ordered disorder. The editors aspire to delve into linguistic landscape beyond its appearance as a jungle of jumbled and irregular items by focusing on the variations in linguistic landscape configurations and recognising that it is but one more field of the shaping of social reality under diverse uncoordinated and possibly incongruent structuration principles.

Learn Romanian Language Through Dialogue Drakula Arefu, 2019-07-02 The textbook gives you a lot of examples on how questions in Romanian should be formed. It is easy to see the difference between Romanian and English using the parallel translation. Common questions and answers used in everyday situations are explained simply enough even for beginners. Some sayings and jokes make it engaging despite five cases that make Romanian a little difficult for some students. The book is equipped with the audio tracks. The address of the home page of the book on the Internet where audio files are available for listening and downloading is listed at the beginning of the book on the copyright page.
