Romantic Eye:

Romantic Poetry Clarence Edward Andrews, Milton Oswin Percival, 1924      On Romantic Love Berit Brogaard, 2015

Romantic love presents some of life's most challenging questions Can we choose who to love Is romantic love rational Can we love more than one person at a time And can we make ourselves fall out of love In On Romantic Love Berit Brogaard attempts to get to the bottom of love's many contradictions This short book informed by both historical and cutting edge philosophy psychology and neuroscience combines a new theory of romantic love with entertaining anecdotes from real life and accessible explanations of the neuroscience underlying our wildest passions Against the grain Brogaard argues that love is an emotion that it can be at turns both rational and irrational and that it can be manifested in degrees We can love one person more than another and we can love a person a little or a lot or not at all And love isn't even always something we consciously feel However love like other emotions both conscious and not is subject to rational control and falling in or out of it can be a deliberate choice This engaging and innovative look at a universal topic featuring original line drawings by illustrator Gareth Southwell illuminates the processes behind heartbreak obsession jealousy attachment and more      The Social Psychology of Attraction and Romantic Relationships Madeleine A. Fugère, Jennifer P. Leszczynski, Alita J. Cousins, 2017-09-16 Why are we attracted to some people and not to others Are first impressions accurate Why do some romantic relationships succeed while others fail Are our romantic choices influenced by evolution In tackling questions like these The Social Psychology of Attraction and Romantic Relationships reviews the theory and research behind this fascinating area It combines real life anecdotes and popular media examples with the latest psychological studies making it a lively and engaging read Ideal for students of social psychology and intimate relationships courses this is a comprehensive introduction to an everyday subject that on closer investigation proves to be a dynamic intriguing and sometimes surprising area      Seeing Suffering in Women's Literature of the Romantic Era Elizabeth A. Dolan, 2016-12-05 Arguing that vision was the dominant mode for understanding suffering in the Romantic era Elizabeth A Dolan shows that Mary Wollstonecraft Charlotte Smith and Mary Shelley experimented with aesthetic and scientific visual methods in order to expose the social structures underlying suffering Dolan's exploration of illness healing and social justice in the writings of these three authors depends on two major questions How do women writers innovations in literary form make visible previously unseen suffering And how do women authors portray embodied vision to claim literary authority Dolan's research encompasses a wide range of primary sources in science and medicine including nosology health travel botany and ophthalmology allowing her to map the resonances and disjunctions between medical theory and literature This in turn points towards a revisioning of enduring themes in Romanticism such as the figure of the Romantic poet the relationship between the mind and nature sensibility and sympathy solitude and sociability landscape aesthetics the reform novel and Romantic era science Dolan's book is distinguished by its deep engagement with several disciplines and genres making it a key text for understanding Romanticism the history of medicine and the position of the woman writer during the period

Romantic Visualities J. Labbe,1998-07-22 Romantic Visualities offers a culturally informed understanding of the literary significance of landscape in the Romantic period Labbe argues that the Romantic period associated the prospect view with the masculine ideal simultaneously fashioning the detailed point of view as feminised An interdisciplinary study it discusses the cultural construction of gender as defined through landscape viewing and investigates property law aesthetic tracts conduct books travel narratives artistic theory and the work of Wordsworth Keats Coleridge Charlotte Smith Ann Francis Dorothy Wordsworth and others The Face Daniel McNeill,2000-07 This natural history of the face unravels the surprising mysteries of one of the most familiar sights in everyday life exploring the face s anatomy its singularity its ability to communicate and its beauty

Romantic Love and Personal Beauty Henry T. Finck,2022-09-15 In Romantic Love and Personal Beauty Henry T Finck explores the intricate interplay between ideals of beauty and the nature of romantic love presenting a compelling examination rooted in the aesthetic movements of the late 19th century Finck employs a lyrical prose style blending philosophical discourse with personal anecdotes and cultural critiques He situates love within the broader context of beauty as an essential human experience navigating through historical and contemporary perspectives that reveal how societal norms shape personal relationships and self perception Henry T Finck was a noted American author and lecturer with a profound interest in aesthetics and cultural criticism His extensive travels and deep engagement with European art and literature influenced his perspectives on beauty and love leading him to contemplate their intimate connection Finck s work reflects a transitional period where the Romantic ideals of the 19th century faced the emerging realism of the 20th showcasing his unique ability to synthesize these influences into a coherent narrative This book is an essential read for anyone interested in the philosophical underpinnings of love and beauty Finck s insights resonate throughout history and remain relevant today compelling readers to reflect on how personal beauty shapes and is shaped by the experience of romantic love

Poetry as Re-Reading Ming-Qian Ma,2008-08-20 Grounded in a detailed and compelling account of the philosophy guiding such a project Ma s book traces a continuity of thought and practice through the very different poetic work of objectivists Louis Zukofsky George Oppen Carl Rakosi and John Cage and language poets Susan Howe Lyn Hejinian Bruce Andrews and Charles Bernstein His deft individual readings provide an opening into this notoriously difficult work even as his larger critique reveals a new and clarifying perspective on American modernist and post modernist avant garde poetics Ma shows how we cannot understand these poets according to the usual way of reading but must see how they deliberately use redundancy unpredictability and irrationality to undermine the meaning oriented foundations of American modernism and to force a new and different kind of reading Pub desc
