Horsfjord, 2017-10-23 In Common Words in Muslim Christian Dialogue Vebjørn L Horsfjord offers an analysis of texts from an international dialogue process between Christian and Muslim leaders Through detailed engagement with the Muslim dialogue letter A Common Word between Us and You 2007 and a large number of Christian responses to it the study analyses the dialogue process in the wake of the Muslim initiative and shows how the various texts gain meaning through their interaction The author uses tools from critical discourse analysis and speech act analysis and claims that the Islamic dialogue initiative became more important as an invitation to Muslim Christian dialogue than as theological reflection He shows how Christian leaders systematically chose to steer the dialogue process towards practical questions about peaceful coexistence and away from theological issues Jinnealogy Anand Vivek Taneja, 2017-11-21 In the ruins of a medieval palace in Delhi a unique phenomenon occurs Indians of all castes and creeds meet to socialize and ask the spirits for help The spirits they entreat are Islamic jinns and they write out requests as if petitioning the state At a time when a Hindu right wing government in India is committed to normalizing a view of the past that paints Muslims as oppressors Anand Vivek Taneja's Jinnealogy provides a fresh vision of religion identity and sacrality that runs counter to state sanctioned history The ruin Firoz Shah Kotla is an unusually democratic religious space characterized by freewheeling theological conversations DIY rituals and the sanctification of animals Taneja observes the visitors who come mainly from the Muslim and Dalit neighborhoods of Delhi and uses their conversations and letters to the jinns as an archive of voices so often silenced He finds that their veneration of the jinns recalls pre modern religious traditions in which spiritual experience was inextricably tied to ecological surroundings In this enchanted space Taneja encounters a form of popular Islam that is not a relic of bygone days but a vibrant form of resistance to state repression and post colonial visions of India International Handbook of Love Claude-Hélène

love Islam Kotob, 1980-01-01 Iqbal and Faqr Sultan-ul-Ashiqeen Sultan Mohammad Najib-ur-Rehman, 2023-03-21 If you are interested in a book consisting of Iqbal's poetry about Sufism then this is the perfect book for you. It has been designed for everyone who wants to cherish the poetry of Iqbal but is not acquainted with Urdu or Persian. In the realm of Faqr, one has to die before death, i.e. the death of self-nafs is eternal life for the soul. It is where the fire of Divine love circles one's inward such that the passion takes the person to behold the Reality. The litany that does it all is in reality the greatest name of Allah, Ism al Azam or Ism e Allah Zaat, but it works when the blessed hands of the perfect spiritual guide grant it, who is the Universal Divine Man, Mard e Mumin or al Insan al Kamil. He is hidden in the maze of this world where one has to tear the veils of loving anyone other than Allah. To reach the Divine, first one has to reach his spiritual court. Iqbal, the sagacious philosopher's poetry is brimming with all of it. The book in hand not only has the original poetry in Urdu and Persian but for ease of readers, its transliteration is also written along with a detailed explanation in English. Iqbal's point of view is parallel to many other Sufis who are also quoted. Islam and China's Hong Kong Wai-Yip Ho, 2013-06-07 Hong Kong is a global city state under the sovereignty of the People's Republic of China and is home to around 250,000 Muslims practicing Islam. However, existing studies of the Muslim majority communities in Asia and the Northwest China largely ignore the Muslim community in Hong Kong. Islam and China's Hong Kong skillfully fills this gap and investigates how ethnic and Chinese speaking Muslims negotiate their identities and the increasing public attention to Islam in Hong Kong. Examining a range of issues and challenges facing Muslims in Hong Kong, this book focuses on the three different diasporic Muslim communities and reveals the city state's triple Islamic heritage and distinctive Islamic culture. It begins with the transition from the colonial to the post-colonial era and explores how this has impacted on the experiences of the Muslim diaspora and the ways this shift has compelled the community to adapt to Chinese nationalism whilst forging greater links with the Gulf. Then, with reference to the rise of new media and technology, the book examines the heightened presence of Islam in the Chinese public sphere alongside the emergence of Chinese Islamic websites which have sought to balance transnational Muslim solidarity and sensitivity towards Chinese government's concern of external extremism. Finally, it concludes by investigating Hong Kong's growing awareness of the Muslim minorities' demands for Islamic religious education and how this links with the city state's aspiration to become the new gateway for Islamic finance. Indeed, Wai Yip Ho posits that Hong Kong is now shifting from its role as the broker that bridged East and West during the Cold War to that of a new mediator between China and the Middle East. Drawing on extensive ethnographic research, this book thoughtfully charts a new area of inquiry and as such will be welcomed by students and scholars of Chinese studies, Islamic studies, Asian studies and ethnicity studies.

Negotiating Transcultural Relations in the Early Modern Mediterranean Stephen Ortega, 2016-04-22 Negotiating Transcultural Relations in the Early Modern Mediterranean is a study of transcultural relations between Ottoman Muslims Christian subjects of the Venetian Republic and other social groups in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Focusing principally on Ottoman Muslims who came to Venice and its outlying territories and using sources in Italian Turkish and Spanish this study examines the different types of power relations and the social geographies that framed the encounters of Muslim travelers While Stephen Ortega does not dismiss the idea that Venetians and Ottoman Muslims represented two distinct communities he does argue that Christian and Muslim exchange in the pre modern period involved integrated cultural economic political and social practices Ortega s investigation brings to light how merchants trade brokers diplomats informants converts wayward souls and government officials from different communities engaged in similar practices and used comparable negotiation tactics in matters ranging from trade disputes to the rights of male family members to guarantees of protection In relying on sources from archives in Venice Istanbul and Simancas the book demonstrates the importance of viewing Mediterranean history from a variety of perspectives and it emphasizes the importance of understanding cross cultural history as a negotiation between different social cultural and institutional actors
