Pioneer Violin Virtuose in the Early Twentieth Century Tatjana Goldberg, 2019-05-24 Tatjana Goldberg reveals the extent to which gender and socially constructed identity influenced female violinists separate but unequal status in a great male dominated virtuoso lineage by focussing on the few that stood out the American Maud Powell 1867 1920 Australian born Alma Moodie 1898 1943 and the British Marie Hall 1884 1956 Despite breaking down traditional gender based patriarchal social and cultural norms becoming celebrated soloists and greatly contributing towards violin works and the early recording industry Powell and Hall they received little historical recognition Goldberg provides a more complete picture of their artistic achievements and the impact they had on audiences Virtuosi Mark Mitchell, 2000-11-22 The characters who populate his evocative narrative include not only such famous virtuosi as Franz Liszt Martha Argerich and Vladimir Horowitz but also Ervin Nyiregyhazi the skid row pianist the eccentric Vladimir de Pachmann and Liberace BOOK JACKET Liszt in Context Joanne Cormac, 2021-10-14 Liszt in Context explores the political social philosophical and professional currents that surrounded Franz Liszt and illuminates the competing forces that influenced his music Liszt was immersed in the religious political and cultural debates of his day and moved between institutions places and social circles with ease All of this makes for a rich contextual tapestry against which Liszt composed some of the most iconic popular and also contentious music of the nineteenth century His significance and astonishing reach cannot be over stated and his presence in nineteenth century European culture and his continuing influence into the twentieth and twenty first centuries are overwhelming The focus on context reception and legacy that this volume provides reveals the multifaceted nature of Liszt's impact during his lifetime and beyond The Craftsman Richard Sennett, 2009-02-05 Why do people work hard and take pride in what they do This book a philosophically minded enquiry into practical activity of many different kinds past and present is about what happens when people try to do a good job It asks us to think about the true meaning of skill in the skills society and argues that pure competition is a poor way to achieve quality work Sennett suggests instead that there is a craftsman in every human being which can sometimes be enormously motivating and inspiring and can also in other circumstances make individuals obsessive and frustrated The Craftsman shows how history has drawn fault lines between craftsman and artist maker and user technique and expression practice and theory and that individuals pride in their work as well as modern society in general suffers from these historical divisions But the past lives of crafts and craftsmen show us ways of working using tools acquiring skills thinking about materials which provide rewarding alternative ways for people to utilise their talents We need to recognise this if motivations are to be understood and lives made as fulfilling as possible Recording the Classical Guitar Mark Marrington, 2021-03-30 Recording the Classical Guitar charts the evolution of classical guitar recording practice from the early twentieth century to the present day encompassing the careers of many of the instrument's most influential practitioners from acoustic era to the advent of the CD A key focus is on the ways in which guitarists recorded repertoire programmes have shaped the identity of the instrument particularly where national allegiances and musical aesthetics are concerned The book also considers the ways in which changing approaches to recording practice have conditioned guitarists' conceptions of the instrument's ideal representation in recorded form and situates these in relation to the development of classical music recording aesthetics more generally An important addition to the growing body of literature in the field of phonomusicology the book will be of interest to guitarists and producers as well as students of record production and historians of classical music recording
