Romanticism And Evolution:

Marking Time Joel Faflak, 2017 Scholars have long studied the impact of Charles Darwin's writings on nineteenth century culture. However few have ventured to examine the precursors to the ideas of Darwin and others in the Romantic period. Marking Time edited by Joel Faflak analyses prevailing notions of evolution by tracing its origins to the literary scientific and philosophical discourses of the long nineteenth century. The volume's contributors revisit key developments in the history of evolution prior to The Origin of Species and explore British and European Romanticism's negotiation between the classic idea of a great immutable chain of being and modern notions of historical change. Marking Time reveals how Romantic and post Romantic configurations of historical socio cultural scientific and philosophical transformation continue to exert a profound influence on critical and cultural thought.

Political Liberalism and the Rise of American Romanticism Scott M. Reznick, 2024-07-18 Political Liberalism and the Rise of American Romanticism explores how American Romanticism developed in response to pervasive conflicts over democracy s moral dimensions in the early republic and antebellum eras By recovering the long under examined tradition of political liberalism for literary studies it traces how US writers reacted to ongoing moral and political conflict by engaging with liberal thinkers and ideas as they endeavored to understand how individuals beholden to a divergent array of moral convictions might nevertheless share a stable and just political world the very dilemma at the core of political liberalism This study demonstrates how those philosophical engagements sparked Romanticism's rise and eventual flourishing as US writers increasingly embraced Romantic literary modes emphasizing the imagination's capacity for creative synthesis and the role it plays in shoring up the habits of mind and feeling that are vital to a meaningful democratic culture It offers revisionary readings of works by Charles Brockden Brown Robert Montgomery Bird James Fenimore Cooper Harriet Beecher Stowe Frederick Douglass and Nathaniel Hawthorne to show how these Romantic writers were preoccupied with how individuals come to embrace their deepest convictions and what happens when they encounter others who see the world differently
