

American Romanticism can be described as a journey away from the corruption of civilization and the limits of rational thought and toward the integrity of nature and the freedom of the imagination

Typical journey is to the countryside; although, Gothic-influenced journeys are to the country of the imagination

Style and Civilizations Alfred Louis Kroeber, 1963      An Analysis of Classic and Romantic Style in Painting and Music as a Possible Approach to Aesthetic Awareness Mary Martha Barry, 1983      A Guide to Romantic Love: the Romantic Character and the Romantic Tradition Ariana Gonzalez Hernandez, 2018-02-17 Romantic love is something that is actually a product of a romantic culture. It is a product of its traditions and of the character of those who subscribe to its values. In this comprehensive guide you will not only learn about the romantic character and the traditions that enable you to cultivate romantic love in your life; you will also learn about the culture itself as well as its history, enabling you to develop a profound understanding and appreciation for this culture and the unique type of relationship that it yields. This guide isn't just about creating romantic relationships or about culture. It is about self-improvement, about building character, about potential, and about becoming complete in the process. Since our relationships are a reflection of who we are, then the improvement of our relationships naturally begins with the improvement of ourselves. Peoples of the romantic culture have captured the hearts of the world for centuries. Their enigmatic ways provoke fascination and curiosity among those foreign to their cultures. The mystery of their enigmatic ways is solved once and for all by providing you with a window into their seemingly magical world. At the same time, you will learn how to take part in their culture in order to create your own enigmatic persona and your own magical and truly romantic and loving relationships.

Dialectic of Romanticism Peter Murphy, David Roberts, 2005-10-01 Dialectic of Romanticism presents a radical new assessment of the aesthetic and philosophical history and future of modernity. An exploration of the internal critique of modernism treats romanticism, later historicism, and postmodernism as central to the development of European modernism alongside enlightenment and like the enlightenment subject to its own dead ends and fatalities. An external critique of modernism recovers concepts of civilization and civic aesthetics which are trans-historical, simultaneously modern and classically inspired, and provides a counter both to romantic historicism and enlightened models of progress. Finally, a retrospective critique of modernism analyses what happens to modernism's romantic, archaic, and technological futurist visions when they are translated from Europe to America. Dialectic of Romanticism argues that out of the European dialectic of romanticism and enlightenment a new dialectic of modernity is emerging in the New World, one which points beyond modernism and postmodernism.
