Ancient Rome as a Museum Steven Rutledge, 2012-04-26 Ancient Rome as a Museum considers how cultural objects from the Roman Empire came to reflect construct and challenge Roman perceptions of power and identity Rutledge argues that Roman cultural values are indicated in part by what sort of materials Romans deemed worthy of display and how they chose to display view and preserve them Rome's Revolution Richard Alston, 2015 A lively engrossing history of the downfall of the Roman Republic Rome & Parthia: Empires at War Gareth C. Sampson, 2020-08-05 A Roman historian examines the motivation and strategy behind Marc Anthony's invasion of Parthia and the reasons for its ultimate defeat In the mid first century BC the Roman Empire was rivaled only by the Parthian Empire to the east The first war between these two ancient superpowers resulted in the total defeat of Rome and the death of Marcus Crassus When Rome collapsed into Civil War in the 1st century BC the Parthians took the opportunity to conquer the Middle East and drive Rome back into Europe What followed was two decades of war which saw victories and defeats on both sides The Romans were finally able to gain a victory over the Parthians thanks to the great general Publius Ventidius These victories acted as a springboard for Marc Antony's plans to conquer the Parthian Empire which ended in ignominious defeat In this authoritative history Gareth Sampson analyses the military campaigns and the various battles between Rome and Parthia He provides fascinating insight into the war that in many ways defined the Middle East for the next 650 years The New Generation of Watershed Management Programmes and Projects ,2006-01-01 On the occasion of the International Year of Mountains 2002 FAO and its partners undertook a large scale assessment and global review of the current status and future trends of integrated and participatory watershed management The overall objectives were to promote the exchange and dissemination of experiences in implementing watershed management projects in the decade from 1990 to 2000 and to identify the vision for a new generation of watershed management programmes and projects This resource book represents a summary and critical analysis of the rich discussions and vast materials that emerged during the review as well as the review's findings and recommendations It presents the state of the art in watershed management promotes further reflection and creative thinking and proposes new ideas and approaches for future watershed management programmes and projects This publication has been written primarily for field level watershed management practitioners and local decision makers involved in watershed management at the district or municipality level It will also be a useful source of information for other readers such as senior officers and consultants specialized in other areas evaluators policy makers and students of watershed management Web-based Support Systems JingTao Yao, 2010-03-02 Web based Support Systems WSS are an emerging multidisciplinary research area in which one studies the support of human activities with the Web as the common platform medium and interface The Internet affects every aspect of our modern life Moving support systems to online is an increasing trend in many research domains One of the goals of WSS research is to extend the human physical limitation of information processing in the information age Research on WSS is motivated by the challenges and opportunities arising from the Internet The availability accessibility and exhibility of information as well as the tools to access this information lead to a vast amount of opportunities However there are also many challenges we face For instance we have to deal with more complex tasks as there are increasing demands for quality and productivity WSS research is a natural evolution of the studies on various computerized support systems such as Decision Support Systems DSS Computer Aided Design CAD and Computer Aided Software Engineering
