Rommel Great Commanders:

Great Military Commanders - Erwin Rommel, 2018-09-17 Erwin Rommel was a German general and military theorist. Popularly known as the Desert Fox, he served as field marshal in the Wehrmacht of Nazi Germany during World War II. A biography that every student of military history should read. This book gives out the life, military career, and military leadership of this great Military Commander. This book is a compilation of high quality articles from the Internet. Great Commanders [Illustrated Edition] Dr. Christopher Gabel, 2014-08-15. Includes 3 maps and 7 illustrations. The command of military forces in combat is unlike any other field of human endeavor. If war is the ultimate form of human competition, then the commander is the ultimate competitor. The commander operates in an environment of chance, uncertainty, and chaos in which the stakes are quite literally life and death. He or she contends against an adversary who is using every means, fair or foul, to foil his plans and bring about his defeat. The commander is ultimately responsible for every variable that factors into military success or failure: training, logistics, morale, equipment, planning, and execution. The commander reaps the lion's share of plaudits in victory but also must accept the blame in defeat, warranted or not. Very often, the line that separates fame and ignominy is slender indeed. It is not difficult to identify great commanders, though the overwhelming majority of generals who win battles are never considered great. Something more than a favorable ratio of wins to losses is needed to establish greatness. The truly great commander is generally considered to be one who attains the unexpected or the unprecedented, one who stands above his contemporaries through his skill on the battlefield or through the sheer magnitude of his accomplishments. The commanders selected were masters of warfare in their particular time and environment. Each capitalized upon the social, political, economic, and technological conditions of his day to forge successful military forces and win significant and noteworthy victories that profoundly altered the world in which he lived. Dr. Christopher R. Gabel. The Great Commanders covered by this volume are Alexander the Great, Genghis Khan, Napoleon, John J. Pershing, Erwin Rommel, and Curtis E. LeMay. Rommel's Desert Commanders Samuel W. Mitcham, 2008-07-07. New perspective on the most famous campaign of the legendary Desert Fox. Details on the contributions and animosities of Rommel's subordinates. Includes accounts of Tobruk, Gazala, El Alamein, and other battles in Libya and Egypt in 1941 and 1942. German Field Marshal Erwin Rommel achieved immortality as the Desert Fox, battling and usually defeating numerically superior enemies. Until now, historians have generally overlooked the talented cast of characters who supported Rommel during this campaign. Distinguished military historian Samuel Mitcham recounts the battles of the Afrika Korps through the men who served Rommel as staff officers and commanders of divisions, regiments, and battalions, soldiers like Ludwig Cr. well and Walter Nehring, two of World War II's best panzer commanders, and Ernst G. nther Baade, who wore a kilt and carried a broadsword into battle. Rommel's Desert Commanders Samuel W. Mitcham Jr., 2007-02-28. Perhaps the most famous and admired soldier to fight in World War II was Field Marshal Erwin Rommel, who achieved immortality as the Desert Fox. Rommel's first field command during the war was the 7th Panzer Division also known as the Ghost Division which he led in France in 1940. During this campaign the 7th Panzer suffered more casualties than any other division in the German Army at the same time inflicting a disproportionate number of casualties upon the enemy. It took 97 486 prisoners captured 458 tanks and armored vehicles 277 field guns 64 anti tank guns and 4 000 to 5 000 trucks. It captured or destroyed hundreds of tons of other military equipment shot down 52 aircraft destroyed 15 more aircraft on the ground and captured 12 additional planes. It destroyed the French 1st Armored Division and the 4th North African Division punched through the Maginot Line extension near Sivry and checked the largest Allied counteroffensive of the campaign at Arras. When France surrendered the Ghost Division was within 200 miles of the Spanish border. No doubt about it Rommel had proven himself a great military leader who was capable of greater things. His next command in fact would be the Afrika Korps where the legend of the Desert Fox was born. Rommel had a great deal of help in France much more than his published papers suggest. His staff officers and company battalion and regimental commanders were an extremely capable collection of military leaders that included 12 future generals two of them SS and two colonels who briefly commanded panzer divisions but never reached general rank. They also included Colonel Erich von Unger who would no doubt have become a general had he not been killed in action while commanding a motorized rifle brigade on the Eastern Front in 1941 as well as Karl Hanke a Nazi gauleiter who later succeeded Heinrich Himmler as the last Reichsfuehrer SS. No historian has ever recognized the talented cast of characters who supported the Desert Fox in 1940. No one has ever attempted to tell their stories. This book remedies that deficiency.

Great Warrior Leaders/thinkers ,1989 The Armour of Rommel's Afrika Korps Ian Baxter,2019-05-30 A pictorial history of the armoured vehicles used by the Nazis during their occupation of North Africa in World War II. The Deutsche Afrika Korps best known as simply Afrika Korps earned a well deserved reputation as a superb fighting machine. While this was founded on the leadership and tactical genius of its legendary commander Erwin Rommel and the fighting skills of its officers and men another vital element was its equipment and armour. This superbly illustrated Images of War book reveals the full range of German armored vehicles that saw service in North Africa from 1941 to mid 1943. As well as the formidable panzers such as the Tiger and Panther tanks there were Sturmartillerie equipments reconnaissance vehicles half tracks armored cars Panzerkampfwagens and motorcycles. All had their roles to play. While the Allies ultimately triumphed in North Africa the combination of German design and engineering with superb generalship and fighting spirit very nearly changed the course of the Second World War in 1942. Military historians and equipment enthusiasts will find this a fascinating and authoritative book. Another great addition to the Images of War series. A must have for anyone with an interest in the Afrika Korps during World War Two. Armorama.com Gazala 1942 Ken Ford,2011-03-15 Illustrated by contemporary photos and specially commissioned maps this book is a fascinating account of Rommel's greatest victory. Following a lull in the desert war which saw the Germans and British reinforce their armies Rommel suddenly attacked British fortifications with an assault on the northern sector of the British line near Gazala Pinning down the British in the north and outflanking the 1st Free French Brigade Rommel succeeded in encircling the main British positions trapping them in what became known as The Cauldron With thousands of British soldiers killed or taken prisoner this was a devastating defeat for the Allies Accompanied by contemporary photographs and maps depicting the movement of both armies Ken Ford provides a masterful study of Rommel the Desert Fox at the height of his powers as he swept the British army back to the site of their final stand at El Alamein

Rommel's Desert War Samuel W. Mitcham, Jr., 2007 The most famous battles of one of World War II's most legendary commanders Told largely from Rommel's perspective using his papers and letters In a series of battles marked by daring raids and quick armored thrusts against a numerically superior enemy Erwin Rommel the notorious Desert Fox and his Afrika Korps waged one of World War II's toughest campaigns in the North African desert in 1942 The Axis campaign climaxed in June with the recapture of Tobruk a triumph that netted 33 000 prisoners and earned Rommel a field marshal's baton By fall however after setbacks at Alam Halfa and the 2 battles of El Alamein the Afrika Korps teetered on the brink of defeat which would come in Tunisia 6 months later

Rommel's Lieutenants Samuel

W. Mitcham, 2008-12-17 Covers Erwin Rommel's World War II battles before he led the legendary Afrika Korps. First work to recognize the talented staff officers and company battalion and regimental commanders who supported Rommel. One of the most famous soldiers to fight in World War II, Erwin Rommel achieved immortality as the Desert Fox in the sands of Africa, but his first field command was the 7th Panzer Division, the so-called Ghost Division. During the 1940 campaign in France, the unit suffered more casualties than any other German division and at the same time inflicted heavy losses on the Allies, taking almost 100,000 prisoners. The Ghost Division's success owed much to Rommel's subordinates who aided Rommel more than he admitted in his papers and whom historians have generally overlooked. This book remedies that oversight. 50 Great Military Leaders of All Time

Jann Tibbetts, 2016-09-01 Throughout history we have had leaders and followers. Naturally, one cannot work without the other, but most if not all of the time history remembers the leaders, the revolutionaries, erstwhile the followers are mere footnotes. Military commanders lead thousands of their men in the vicious battle. Their flourishes, speech prior to the battle, inspired thousands of their men in the battlefield, which is still invoked by various historians. In this book, we would be exploring the lives of 50 most brilliant Military Leaders of all times. Their cunning, their audaciousness, and sheer brilliance will come to the forefront. They come but once in a lifetime and in that lifetime they, albeit through the unpleasant act of war, rise above the rest and rightly or wrongly leave their mark on human civilization. United States Army Combat Forces Journal, 1953

The Lion and the Lamb Charles Causey, 2016-11-18 A true Holocaust story. The Lion and the Lamb begins with a mysterious plane crash which catapults architect Albert Speer into Adolf Hitler's inner circle. When the two Nazi leaders become close confidantes, Speer is forced into constant competition with Heinrich Himmler, Joseph Goebbels, and the unstable Hermann Göring. When a botched assassination attempt reveals Albert Speer's name in an SS investigation, Speer is ostracized by the staff and falls under Hitler's suspicion for disloyalty. As the Russian army advances on Berlin, Speer is poisoned, lied about, and forced to fight for his standing with the most evil and calculating men in Europe. Will Speer survive his last minute trip to the Führer's bunker just hours before the end? The Lion and the Lamb also tells the story of a Dutch Resistance worker named Corrie ten Boom who leads her entire family into a desperate struggle against the Nazis' anti-Jewish policies in Holland. Like Speer, Corrie is thrust into a psychological torture chamber, suffering daily anguish from abusive guards. She is forced to travel from prison to prison in Nazi death trains after her underground operation is raided by the secret police. A novel of innocence, betrayal, and tragedy, The Lion and the Lamb is an absorbing tale of how war-torn people cling to the power of faith, hope, and love.
