Catalog of Music for the Pianola, Pianola Piano and Aeriola Aeolian Company,1905 The Companion to The Mechanical Muse: The Piano, Pianism and Piano Music, c.1760-1850 Derek Carew,2016-03-23 Intended as a supplement to The Mechanical Muse The Piano Pianism and Piano Music c 1760 1850 this Companion provides additional information which largely for reasons of space but also of continuity it was not possible or desirable to include in that volume The book is laid out alphabetically and full biographical entries are provided for all musical figures mentioned including composers performers theoreticians and teachers as well as piano makers and publishers of music within the period covered by The Mechanical Muse There are also entries on figures of importance from outside the period but whose influence is palpably important within it such as J S Bach As well as biographical information all these entries contain lists of principal works and a section on further reading so that readers can follow up people and matters of particular interest Also included in The Companion are entries devoted to particular works and other information of relevance such as descriptions of musical forms characteristics of dances and so on as well as some technical information on music and explanations of technical terms pertaining to keyboard instruments themselves and to ways of playing them This Companion is not intended to replace existing reference books such as Grove or Musik in Geschichte und Gegenwart but will be useful for those who desire to know more about a particular topic and do not necessarily have access to more specialist reference works or time to visit large or specialist libraries As such it is indispensable to users of The Mechanical Muse 9 Sonatas for the Piano Domenico Scarlatti,1922 Catalog of Music for the Pianola and Pianola Piano Aeolian Company,1905 New York Magazine ,1988-07-25 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Music Entries at Stationers' Hall, 1710-1818 Michael Kassler,2016-04-29 The British Copyright Act of 1709 protected proprietors of books and music printed after 10 April 1710 who gave copies to the Company of Stationers in London Upon receipt of a copy usually within days of its first publication the Stationers Hall warehouse keeper entered details into a register They included the date of registration the name of the work s proprietor its author or if copyright had been transferred its publisher and the work s full title which normally named the composer and the writer of any text and often named the work s performers and dedicatee Although some publishers put the words Entered at Stationers Hall on title pages without actually depositing copies the information in the registers about the many works that were registered has significant bibliographic value Because the music entries have not previously been printed and access to them has been difficult they generally have been ignored by cataloguers and scholars with the consequence that numerous musical works of this period have been misdated in libraries and reference books This book makes available for the first time the full text of the music entries at Stationers Hall from 1710 to 1810 and abbreviated details of works entered from 1811 to 1818 Its value is enhanced by the inclusion of locations of copies of most works together with indexes of composers authors performers and dedicatees and an explanatory introduction by the compiler The Art of Music Daniel Gregory Mason,1917 The Vassar Miscellany ,1877
