Ronnie Cutrone , Ronnie Cutrone Ronnie Cutrone,1986 Illumination Ronnie Cutrone,1984 Diane Diane Von Furstenberg,Linda Bird Francke,1998 She lived the American Dream before she was thirty building a multi million dollar empire around the 70s fashion sensation wrap dress while raising two children and living a jet set life in the fast lane Now Diane Von Furstenberg talks about her life and her business of photos George A. Romero Tony Williams,2011-07-07 George A Romero b 1940 has achieved a surprising longevity as director since his first film Night of the Living Dead 1968 After relocating to Canada he shows no signs of slowing up his recent film Survival of the Dead 2009 is discussed in a new interview conducted by Tony Williams for this volume and still other films are awaiting release Although commonly known as a director of zombie films a genre he himself launched Romero s films often transcend easy labels His films are best understood as allegorical commentaries on American life that just happen to appropriate horror as a convenient vehicle Romero s films encompass works as different as The Crazies Hungry Wives Knightriders and Bruiser The interviews in this collection cover a period of over forty years In whatever format they originally appeared the printed page the internet or the video interview these discussions illustrate both the evolution of Romero s chosen forms of technology and the development of his thinking about the relationship between cinema and society They present Romero as an independent director in every sense of the word Can't Find My Way Home Martin Torgoff,2004-05-13 Can t Find My Way Home is a history of illicit drug use in America in the second half of the twentieth century and a personal journey through the drug experience It s the remarkable story of how America got high the epic tale of how the American Century transformed into the Great Stoned Age Martin Torgoff begins with the avant garde worlds of bebop jazz and the emerging Beat writers who embraced the consciousness altering properties of marijuana and other underground drugs These musicians and writers midwived the age of marijuana in the 1960s even as Timothy Leary and Richard Alpert later Ram Dass discovered the power of LSD ushering in the psychedelic era While President John Kennedy proclaimed a New Frontier and NASA journeyed to the moon millions of young Americans began discovering their own new frontiers on a voyage to inner space What had been the province of a fringe avant garde only a decade earlier became a mass movement that affected and altered mainstream America And so America sped through the century dropping acid and eating magic mushrooms at home shooting heroin and ingesting

amphetamines in Vietnam snorting cocaine in the disco era smoking crack cocaine in the devastated inner cities of the 1980s discovering MDMA Ecstasy in the rave culture of the 1990s Can't Find My Way Home tells this extraordinary story by weaving together first person accounts and historical background into a narrative vast in scope yet rich in intimate detail Among those who describe their experiments with consciousness are Allen Ginsberg Timothy Leary Robert Stone Wavy Gravy Grace Slick Oliver Stone Peter Dinklage and many others from Haight Ashbury to Studio 54 to housing projects and rave warehouses But Can't Find My Way Home does not neglect the recovery movement the war on drugs and the ongoing debate over drug policy And even as Martin Torgoff tells the story of his own addiction and recovery he neither romanticizes nor demonizes drugs If he finds them less dangerous than the moral crusaders say they are he also finds them less benign than advocates insist Illegal drugs changed the cultural landscape of America and they continue to shape our country with enormous consequences This ambitious fascinating book is the story of how that happened Ronnie Cutrone E.
