Room Beneath The Stairs:

Room beneath the stairs Katherine St. Clair, 1975-12-02 Becoming a Woman and Mother in Greco-Roman Egypt Ada Nifosi, 2019-01-30 How did Greco Roman Egyptian society perceive women's bodies and how did it acknowledge women's reproductive functions Detailing women's lives in Greco Roman Egypt this monograph examines understudied aspects of women's lives such as their coming of age social and religious taboos of menstruation and birth rituals It investigates medical legal and religious aspects of women's reproduction using both historical and archaeological sources and shows how the social status of women and new born children changed from the Dynastic to the Greco Roman period Through a comparative and interdisciplinary study of the historical sources papyri artefacts and archaeological evidence Becoming a Woman and Mother in Greco Roman Egypt shows how Greek Roman Jewish and Near Eastern cultures impacted on the social perception of female puberty childbirth and menstruation in Greco Roman Egypt from the 3rd century B C to the 3rd century A D

Amheida II Anna Lucille Boozer, 2016-01-14 This archaeological report provides a comprehensive study of the excavations carried out at Amheida House B2 in Egypt's Dakhleh Oasis between 2005 and 2007 followed by three study seasons between 2008 and 2010 The excavations at Amheida in Egypt's western desert begun in 2001 under the aegis of Columbia University and sponsored by NYU since 2008 are investigating all aspects of social life and material culture at the administrative center of ancient Trimithis The excavations so far have focused on three areas of this very large site a centrally located upper class fourth century AD house with wall paintings an adjoining school and underlying remains of a Roman bath complex a more modest house of the third century and the temple hill with remains of the Temple of Thoth built in the first century AD and of earlier structures Architectural conservation has protected and partly restored two standing funerary monuments a mud brick pyramid and a tower tomb both of the Roman period This volume presents and discusses the architecture artifacts and ecofacts recovered from B2 in a holistic manner which has rarely before been attempted in a full report on the excavation of a Romano Egyptian house The primary aim of this volume is to combine an architectural and material based study with an explicitly contextual and theoretical analysis In so doing it develops a methodology and presents a case study of how the rich material remains of Romano Egyptian houses may be used to investigate the relationship between domestic remains and social identity
