Rooms Outside the House James Grayson Trulove, 2005-09-20 From small personal libraries to gazebos to studios Rooms Outside the House will present a broad range of building types and architectural styles The book is highly illustrated with practical floor plans outside the house James Grayson Trulove, 2005 The Room Outside David Stevens, 2007 Look beyond the back door and discover the outdoor spaces that are waiting to be shaped into natural relaxing extensions of the home Learn how boundaries from low shrubs to metal walls are essential to creating comfortable outdoor spaces and how gardens can achieve the right balance of light and shadow Also included are instructions for building wood and metal archways sleeper steps and a continuously refilling water chute Outdoor Decorating and Style Guide ,

Wisconsin's Historic Houses and Living History Museums Krista Finstad Hanson, 2000 The author presents 134 of Wisconsin's noted historical houses offering color photos histories and descriptions and practical travel information for each All of these houses are open to the public Learning about and touring these houses is like living the history of Wisconsin Most were homes of substance built by barons of industry while others are more modest homes of figures who later became famous personages Some are very large and some are very small such as Frank Lloyd Wright's 880 square foot Seth Peterson Cottage on Mirror Lake All will be of interest to those who travel Wisconsin's roads in search of adventure and delight

Metropolitan Home , 2005 The Boundaries of Art and Social Space in Rome Frederick Jones, 2016-10-06 This volume focuses on four cultural phenomena in the Roman world of the late Republic the garden a garden painting tapestry and the domestic caged bird They accept or reject a categorisation as art in varying degrees but they show considerable overlaps in the ways in which they impinge on social space The study looks therefore at the borderlines between things that variously might or might not seem to be art forms It looks at boundaries in another sense too Boundaries between different social modes and contexts are embodied and represented in the garden and paintings of gardens reinforced by the domestic use of decorative textile work and replicated in the bird cage The boundaries thus thematised map on to broader boundaries in the Roman house city and wider world becoming part of the framework of the citizen's cognitive development and individual and civic identities Frederick Jones presents a novel analysis that uses the perspective of cognitive development in relation to how elements of domestic and urban visual culture and the broader world map on to each other His study for the first time understands the domestic caged bird as a cultural object and uniquely brings together four disparate cases under the umbrella of art Outdoor Decorating , 2003 Helps you plan the space you have and how to think and model your outdoor space like an indoor space in terms of decorating style André Dupont (1742-1817) - A Palace and Roses Vincent Derkenne, 2020-07-08 Andr Dupont 1742 1817 is the first rose collector we know of From 1785 onwards he developed a passion for this beautiful genus striving to have a garden where he could produce his Roses and observe them in Paris mainly in the surroundings of the Luxembourg Palace He was not a horticulturist so he immersed himself in the books lent to him by the National Museum of Natural History met botanists erudite men of the Enlightenment gardeners and nurserymen He thus became a good connoisseur of the Roses of his time planning to write a monograph At the beginning of the 19th century the fashion for roses began and Andr Dupont made a major contribution to this development he was its forerunner Madame Bonaparte Empress Jos phine brought him great fame as she turned him into her main supplier of roses to embellish the greenhouses and flowerbeds of her estate in Malmaison Renowned as the depositary of a complete collection of roses and of the oddities that nature provides them with he gathered the very first herbarium exclusively devoted to roses that we may still consult In 1814 Dupont was at the end of his life and gave his collection to the Luxembourg Gardens It was the beginning of the largest rose garden in the world that one could admire during most of the 19th century He could thus observe the flowering of his beloved roses for two or three more seasons before passing away not far from them While his botanist friends or famous horticulturists were collecting fame and honours he ended his life in a boarding house in his neighbourhood under the threat of a ban and ruined His roses cheerful and good girls sang his praises for a long time in front of the palace where their gardener had the honour to serve Very little too little has been written about him The main book of the present work in French brings together for the first time all the known elements of his life from the period of the princely court he was a part of to the 2nd Restoration through the French Revolution and the 1st Empire The present booklet proposes in English the essential parts of the original text In the course of this story Andr Dupont reveals his temper sometimes a bit of an eccentric so imbued with tenderness for his roses

Grenada, Carriacou and Petite Martinique Paul Crask, 2009 TRAVEL HOLIDAY GUIDES The volcanic island of Grenada and the smaller Grenadines Carriacou and Petite Martinique sit at the southern tip of the Windward Islands chain in the eastern Caribbean In 2004 they were decimated by Hurricane Ivan The nutmeg trees on which the economy was once reliant were destroyed and buildings and infrastructure collapsed But now the islands have been rebuilt renovated and improved They are once more open for business and enjoying a newfound prosperity as visitor numbers increase year on year This guide takes hikers on treks through the rainforest and divers to The Bianca C the largest shipwreck in the Caribbean It shows cultural visitors the nation's diverse heritage and rich musical traditions and leads those in need of a little lie down to unspoilt beaches and secluded coves
