Rootless But Green Are The Boulevard Trees:

Rootless But Green are the Boulevard Trees Uma Parameswaran, 2003      Silent Suffering & Unheard Agony In The Regional Writings On Women S. P. Sree, 2008 Papers presented at the International Seminar on Psycho Dynamics of Women in the Postmodern Literature of the East and West held at Visakhapatnam during 25-26 February 2006      Critical Essays on Canadian Literature K. Balachandran, 2002-12-31      Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet's major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet's critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography      Indian Diaspora Literature: A Critical Evaluation Dipak Giri, 2024-02-05 In this period of globalization many individuals are trying to upgrade the life and for that most of them are now migrating to other lands In the process of getting settled in new land they encounter many problems The issue of migration and immigration brings forward the question of exile identity assimilation memory nostalgia hopelessness uprootedness hybridity and so on Indian writers have beautifully picked up experiences of such people and penned them down Such writing is called Diaspora Literature wherein immigrant experiences have been shared through literature This type of literature includes expatriate stories refugee chronicles and immigrant narratives The present anthology Indian Diaspora Literature: A Critical Evaluation covers as many as twenty articles where the authors have discussed innumerable issues and challenges as confronted by Indian immigrants due to their distance and dislocation from their familiar homeland to the alien hostland irrespective of what kind of exile they follow forced or voluntary Apart from bringing into surface the migratory problems the anthology also sheds light on the complexities that arise out of such migration Some of the notable Indian writers who have been given room in this book are V S Naipaul Amitav Ghosh Rohinton Mistry Jhumpa Lahiri Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni Anita Desai and Kiran Desai to name a few Authors have tried to give their best outputs to reach this anthology to its intended goal Hopefully this book will be helpful to both students and scholars alike

Living the Changes Joan Turner,1990-12-01 Living the Changes explores the nature and extent of women s changing realities The contributors include writers artists academics street kids and social workers and range in age from nine to seventy three Their topics reflect the diversity and complexity of the concerns of contemporary women birthing and aging body image culture drugs violence sexual abuse prostitution reproductive technology and spirituality

Nowhere, Exactly M.G. Vassanji,2025-09-02 From one of Canada s most celebrated writers two time Giller Prize winner M G Vassanji comes a thoughtful meditation on what it means to belong in the world Shortlisted for the Writers Trust Balsillie Prize for Public Policy Home is never a single place entirely and unequivocally It is contingent The abstract nowhere then is the true home M G Vassanji has been exploring identity and belonging for over three decades drawing on his own eclectic upbringing and intimate understanding of the unique challenges and perspectives born from leaving one s home and settling in a new land The question of how to configure and see oneself within this new land and within the larger world that s opened up is a constant nagging challenge In today s world possessing multiple identities has become a commonplace concept But what does it mean to truly belong to a place a community a faith a history Can we ever belong in our new home Did we ever belong in the home we left Where exactly do we belong For many the answer is nowhere exactly Combining brilliant prose thoughtful candid observation and a lifetime of exploring how we as individuals are shaped by the places and communities in which we have lived and the histories that haunt them Nowhere Exactly examines with exquisite sensitivity the space between identity and belonging the immigrant or exile s experience of both loss and gain and the weight of memory and nostalgia and of guilt and hope felt by so many of those who leave their homes in search of new ones for one reason or another

Living In America Roshni Rustomji-Kerns,2018-02-19 This anthology shows the influences of Western literature and the Western literary traditions especially as they exist in world literature written in English It contains stories and poems dealing with South Asian American experiences and presents the evocative themes of love loss and exile

Critical Responses to Canadian Literature K. Balachandran,2004

Contemporary Indian English Poetry and Drama Sajalkumar Bhattacharya,Himadri Lahiri,Arnab Kumar Sinha,2019-07-29

This anthology of essays maps the divergent issues that have become relevant in contemporary Indian English poetry and drama By providing a clear idea about the new themes techniques and methods used by the Indian English poets and playwrights to address the issues emerging in the changing socio cultural scenario particularly during the post globalization period the essays offer insightful observations on canon formation and its reception It is high time to consider afresh whether the canons of Indian English poetry and drama have widened their scope to include innovative forms of writing or whether they have evolved significantly to generate novel perspectives These questions which are linked with the issue of canon formation and its reception are intricately woven into the fabric of these essays This anthology will respond to the scholarly interests of inquisitive students research scholars and academics in the field of Indian English literature      Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975      The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature Eva-Marie Kröller, 2004-02-05 This book offers a comprehensive and engaging introduction to major writers genres and topics in Canadian literature Contributors pay attention to the social political and economic developments that have informed literary events Broad surveys of fiction drama and poetry are complemented by chapters on Aboriginal writing francophone writing autobiography literary criticism writing by women and the emergence of urban writing in a country traditionally defined by its regions Also discussed are genres that have a special place in Canadian literature such as nature writing exploration and travel writing and short fiction      Asian-American Writers Harold Bloom, 2009 Presents critical perspectives on the works of Asian American writers including Gish Jen Cheng rae Lee and Maxine Hong Kingston      Musings on Indian Writing in English: Drama Natesan Sharda Iyer, 2007

Critical Essays on Diasporic Writings K. Balachandran, 2008      Indian English Drama Nand Kumar, 2003      Asian American Playwrights Miles Liu, 2002-05-30 In the late nineteenth century Asian American drama made its debut with the spotlight firmly on the lives and struggles of Asians in North America rather than on the cultures and traditions of the Asian homeland Today Asian American playwrights continue to challenge the limitations of established theatrical conventions and direct popular attention toward issues and experiences that might otherwise be ignored or marginalized While Asian American literature came into full bloom in the last 25 years Asian American drama has yet to receive the kind of critical attention it warrants This reference book serves as a versatile vehicle for exploring the field of Asian American drama from its recorded conception to its present stage Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 52 Asian American dramatists of origins from India Pakistan Vietnam the Philippines Japan Korea and China Each entry includes relevant biographical information that contextualizes the works of a playwright an interpretive description of selected plays that spotlights recurring themes and plots a summary of the playwright s critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary works The entries are written by expert contributors and reflect the ethnic diversity of the Asian American community The volume closes with a selected general bibliography which includes anthologies scholarly studies and periodicals

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide      The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Guiyou Huang, 2006-08-08 The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945      Writers of the Indian Diaspora Emmanuel S. Nelson, 1993-04-13 The fifty eight writers included in this new sourcebook have roots in India or less frequently in Pakistan Bangladesh or Sri Lanka but represent diverse geographical areas of the Indian Diaspora from the South Pacific to South America from the Indian Ocean islands of Mauritius and Singapore to the cities and suburbs of London New York Johannesburg and Toronto Their lives works themes and critical receptions are examined individually but with attention to two central assumptions that people of the Indian diaspora share a diasporic consciousness generated by a complex network of historical connections spiritual affinities and unifying racial memories and that this shared sensibility is manifested in the cultural productions of the Indian diasporic communities around the world These concepts developed by Professor Nelson in a previous study Reworlding The Literature of the Indian Diaspora are here applied to a larger canvas of writers including major international figures such as V S Naipaul and Salman Rushdie and talented emerging writers The writers practice a variety of literary forms and represent a extraordinary diversity of ethnicities languages and religious traditions The women among them contribute the perspective of gender along with the themes of ethnicity migrancy and post coloniality shared with the male writers Each entry begins with relevant biographical information on the writer offers an interpretive summary of the major works provides an overview of the critical reception accorded the corpus and individual productions and concludes with detailed primary and secondary bibliographies A brief appendix lists each writer with place of birth and places of domicile The introduction to the volume by Professor Nalini Natarajan discusses several theoretical issues pertinent to Indian diasporic studies Of value to all literary collections and scholars this reference work will be of special interest for post colonial and Commonwealth studies
