These Bones Will Rise Again Panashe Chigumadzi, 2018-06-14 What are the right questions to ask when seeking out the spirit of a nation In November 2017 the people of Zimbabwe took to the streets in an unprecedented alliance with the military Their goal to restore the legacy of Chimurenga the liberation struggle and wrest their country back from more than 30 years of Robert Mugabe s rule In an essay that combines bold reportage memoir and critical analysis Zimbabwean novelist and journalist Panashe Chigumadzi reflects on the coup that was not a coup the telling of history and manipulation of time and the ancestral spirits of two women her own grandmother and Mbuya Nehanda the grandmother of the nation

Jimmy Carter in Africa Nancy Mitchell, 2023-05-25 By a wide margin the best book about Carter s presidency that s yet appeared Christian Science Monitor In the mid 1970s the Cold War had frozen into a nuclear stalemate in Europe and retreated from the headlines in Asia As Gerald Ford and Jimmy Carter fought for the presidency in late 1976 the superpower struggle overseas seemed to take a backseat to more contentious domestic issues of race relations and rising unemployment There was one continent however where the Cold War was on the point of flaring hot Africa Jimmy Carter in Africa opens just after Henry Kissinger s failed 1975 plot in Angola as Carter launches his presidential campaign The Civil Rights Act was only a decade old and issues of racial justice remained contentious Racism at home undermined Americans efforts to win hearts and minds abroad and provided potent propaganda to the Kremlin As President Carter confronted Africa the essence of American foreign policy stopping Soviet expansion slammed up against the most explosive and raw aspect of American domestic politics racism Drawing on candid interviews with Carter as well as key U S and foreign diplomats and on a dazzling array of international archival sources Nancy Mitchell offers a timely reevaluation of the Carter administration and of the man himself In the face of two major tests in Rhodesia and the Horn of Africa Carter grappled with questions of Cold War competition domestic politics personal loyalty and decision making style Mitchell reveals an administration not beset by weakness and indecision as is too commonly assumed but rather constrained by Cold War dynamics and by the president's own temperament as he wrestled with a divided public and his own human failings Jimmy Carter in Africa presents a stark portrait of how deeply Cold War politics and racial justice were intertwined An impressive historical work in every respect Choice Her writing flows and she places Carter's Africa policy within the larger context of US foreign policy and politics International Journal

Signs of the Spirit Tony Perman, 2020-06-08 In 2005 Tony Perman attended a ceremony alongside the living and the dead His visit to a Zimbabwe farm brought him into contact with the madhlozi outsider spirits that Ndaupople rely upon for guidance protection and their collective prosperity Perman's encounters with the spirits the mediums who bring them back and the accompanying rituals form the heart of his ethnographic account of how the Ndaup experience ceremonial musicking As Perman witnessed other ceremonies he discovered that music and dancing shape the emotional lives of Ndaup individuals by inviting them to experience life's milestones or cope with its misfortunes as a group Signs of the Spirit explores the historical spiritual and social roots of ceremonial action and details how that action influences the Ndaup collective approach to their future The result is a vivid ethnomusicological journey that delves into the immediacy of musical experience and the forces that transform ceremonial performance into emotions and community

Methodists and their Missionary Societies 1900-1996 John Pritchard, 2016-04-22 The twentieth century saw the spectacular growth of Christianity in much of the global south the transformation of mission fields into self governing Churches schemes of church union some successful others abortive evolving attitudes to other faiths and significant Christian engagement with issues of racial justice and world poverty This book examines the contribution of the Methodist Missionary Society and its predecessors before 1932 to these world changing movements from the remarkable mass conversions in south west China and west Africa early in the century to the controversy over grants to liberation movements in the 1970s and 1980s Pritchard traces the MMS contribution to education health care rural development and social welfare and describes the administration of the Societies and the selection and preparation of candidates for missionary service This is a ground breaking study of Methodist Overseas Mission in the twentieth century how it adjusted to changing circumstances including the forced withdrawals from China and Burma and developed new initiatives and partnerships including its World Church in Britain programme which brought missionaries from the younger Churches to serve in Britain and Ireland

The Last British Liberals in Africa Dickson

Mungazi,1999-05-30 A study of the clash of two traditions British liberalism and African nationalism and an examination of how Michael Blundell in Kenya and Garfield Todd in Zimbabwe used their liberal backgrounds to further the future of their adopted countries despite threats and detention Both Blundell and Todd believed that political leaders had a responsibility to serve the needs of the people as a condition of national development By the time each came to power European colonization had had a profoundly negative effect on the lives of Africans Blundell and Todd sought to correct this by putting their positive views of Africans into practice While colonial governments designed strategies for controlling Africans to serve political and economic interests at home in Europe Africans themselves established their own effective strategy not only to ensure their survival in the colonial setting but also to initiate a process for the restoration of their sense of self Michael Blundell and Garfield Todd with their liberal beliefs served as excellent allies in this period of a rising African consciousness Using sources obtained in Kenya and Zimbabwe over the past 15 years this work examines democratic traditions that have survived tumultuous times in recent years

The Columbia Guide to Central African Literature in English Since 1945 Adrian A. Roscoe,2008 Columbia s guides to postwar African literature paint a unique portrait of the continent s rich and diverse literary traditions This volume examines the rapid rise and growth of modern literature in the three postcolonial nations of Zimbabwe Malawi and Zambia It tracks the multiple political and economic pressures that have shaped Central African writing since the end of World War II and reveals its authors heroic efforts to keep their literary traditions alive in the face of extreme poverty and AIDS Adrian Roscoe begins with a list of key political events Since writers were composing within both colonial and postcolonial contexts he pays particular attention to the nature of British colonialism especially theories regarding its provenance and motivation Roscoe discusses such historical figures as David Livingstone Cecil Rhodes and Sir Harry Johnston as well as modern power players including Robert Mugabe Kenneth Kaunda and Kamuzu Banda He also addresses efforts to create a literary historical record from an African perspective an account that challenges white historiographies in which the colonized was neither agent nor informer A comprehensive alphabetical guide profiles both established and emerging authors and further illustrates issues raised in the introduction Roscoe then concludes with a detailed bibliography recommending additional reading and sources At the close of World War II the people of Central Africa found themselves mired in imperial fatigue and broken promises of freedom This fueled a desire for liberation and a major surge in literary production and in this illuminating guide Roscoe details the campaigns for social justice and political integrity for education and economic empowerment and for gender equity participatory democracy rural development and environmental care that characterized this exciting period of development

Versions of Zimbabwe. New Approaches to Literature and Culture Robert Muponde,Ranka Primorac,2005-06-15 The book is the result of a collaboration of scholars from southern Africa and overseas whose work emphasises hitherto overshadowed subjects of literature exposing new and untried approaches to Zimbabwean writing The contributors focus on pluralities inclusiveness and the breaking of boundaries and elucidate how literary texts are betraying multiple versions and opinions of Zimbabwe arguing that only a multiplicity of opinions on Zimbabwe can do the complexity of the society and history justice Politics in Africa Dennis Austin,1978 Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi,2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book contains over 600 entries that cover criticism and theory its development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers Imagination and the Creative Impulse in the New Literatures in English ,2021-11-01 Imagination and the Creative Impulse in the New Literatures in English brings together the proceedings of a symposium organised by the editors at the University of Trento in 1990 At a time when the study of the post colonial literatures is gaining more widespread recognition scholars based mainly at universities in Italy and Germany were invited to address the manner in which writers are giving literary expression to the complexity of contemporary post colonial and multicultural societies and to consider from their differing perspectives on the new literatures central questions of formal experimentation linguistic innovation social and political commitment textual theory and cross culturality Focusing on such major writers such as Achebe Soyinka and Walcott as well as on lesser known figures such as Jack Davis Witi Ihimaera Rohinton Mistry and Manohar Malgonkar the contributors take up many themes characteristic of the new literatures the challenge posed to traditional authority the expression of national identity the role of literature in the liberation struggle modes of literary practice in multicultural societies the relationship of the new literatures in English to that of the former metropolitan centre and the complex intertextuality characterizing much of the literary production of post colonial societies New Society ,1977 Africa ,1978 Includes Proceedings of the Executive council and List of members also section Review of books Guns and Rain David Lan,1985-11-14 This book makes us understand an historical event of world importance the liberation of Zimbabwe from the point of view of ordinary people It is not only a specific study of great brilliance but also a model which shows how anthropology can contribute to politics and history Maurice Bloch Professor of Anthropology London School of Economics in his preface to this book Black Africa Robert C. Mitchell,Donald G. Morrison,John N. Paden,1989-07-17 Black Africa presents political economic and social data for 41 black African nations The first edition was published in 1972 and included only data on 32 countries which was the total number of independent African nations at that time Enlarging on the first edition this second edition covers in detail important aspects of the countries included from demography to political development and social mobilization to a modern comparative analysis of African states Black Africa is a complete and comprehensive handbook The first edition of Black Africa won a Book of the Year Award from the American Library Association Dictionary of African Historical Biography Mark R. Lipschutz,R. Kent Rasmussen,1986 The acclaimed Dictionary of African Historical Biography the only single volume biographical work on Sub Saharan African history has been expanded and updated to include entries on over eight hundred people important in Sub Saharan African history up to 1980 Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1977 Historical Dictionary of Zimbabwe

Steven C. Rubert, Kent R. Rasmussen, 2001-07-17 Zimbabwe one of Africa's longer more promising countries has been in the news a lot recently for all the wrong reasons This more than justifies a third edition Zimbabwe has witnessed an incredible amount of history in the relatively short span of eighteen years The new edition of this dictionary updates the dictionary to keep it abreast of the changes in the country Hundreds of fresh entries cover new political leaders changing governmental cultural and economic developments and scores of place name changes There were also corrections to existing entries and an expanded bibliography
