Saving Our Sons Raising Black Children In A Turbulent World:

Saving Our Sons Marita Golden, 2011-07-13 When Marita Golden decided to write her personal account of the challenges of raising a black son in today's world she didn't intend to write more than her own family's story. But through the story of raising her son against the backdrop of a racially divided society Golden discovered she was also confronted with the causes of the violence that surrounds African American men. In the fiercely lyrical and revealing narrative of Saving Our Sons she has created a work of profound and lasting importance, one that sensitively and uniquely addresses the problems of boyhood and emerging manhood. It is a book that issues a clarion call: The survival of our cities, if not our society, depends on our finding a way to save our sons.

Saving Our Sons Marita Golden, 1995-12-01 When Marita Golden decided to write her personal account of the challenges of raising a black son in today's world she didn't intend to write more than her own family's story. But through the story of raising her son against the backdrop of a racially divided society Golden discovered she was also confronting the causes of the violence that surrounds African American men. In the fiercely lyrical and revealing narrative of Saving Our Sons she has created a work of profound and lasting importance, one that sensitively and uniquely addresses the problems of boyhood and emerging manhood. It is a book that issues a clarion call: The survival of our cities, if not our society, depends on our finding a way to save our sons.

Saving Our Sons Marita Golden, 2022-03-15 Raising Black Teen Boys in Turbulent Times. It is always heartening to see women step up to the writer's table. When the results are as adroit and affecting as Marita Golden's work, it is more than satisfying; it is a cause for celebration. Toni Morrison, Nobel Laureate. Two decades ago Marita was the first Black writer to address the horrifying statistic that haunts all Black mothers: the leading cause of death among Black males under twenty-one is homicide. Today police brutality rages on as millions call for the reformation of our broken law enforcement in the wake of the traumatic murders of Black teen boys like Trayvon Martin, Michael Brown, and Daunte Wright. Read an intimate account of a mother's efforts to save her son. Writing her son's story against the backdrop of a society plagued by systemic racism, economic inequality, and mass incarceration, Golden offers a form of witness and testimony in a time of crisis for Black Americans. Learn how to grapple with the realities of Black America. Join Golden as she confronts the root causes of violence inflicted upon Black teen boys and reassesses the legacy of her own generation's struggle for civil rights. Explore Black boys' difficult road to adulthood in the U.S. and learn why single Black mothers are often wrongly blamed for their sons' actions. Gain invaluable advice and knowledge from trustworthy sources. In Saving Our Sons, Golden documents her conversations with psychologists, writers, and young Black males themselves. This book is designed to help you discuss and unpack generational trauma with loved ones. Gain deeper insight into the injustices Black children face in the U.S. Recognize the importance of community for the success of Black teen boys. If you liked Decoding Boys, Mother Son, Our Back, Forth, Journal, The Boy Crisis, or Boy Mom, you'll love Saving Our Sons.

Mothers and Sons Andrea O'Reilly, 2002-06-01 The relationship between mothers and sons has been explored for ages

From Oedipus to Al Brooks Mother we are fascinated by the familial bond between a mother and her son This groundbreaking work looks at many untouched areas of the mother son relationship including race sexuality and ability The contributors to this collection speak from the heart and explore how the institution of motherhood oppresses women impedes mother son identification and fosters sexism The impact of the feminist movement on the mother son relationship which has been previously neglected in literature is explored in depth in Mothers and Sons _ These deeply personal reflections includes stories of lesbian mothers identifying challenges in raising sons in our heterosexist culture as well as black mothers and sons and Jewish mothers For all with an interest in family issues gender issues or a new perspective on mothering this book is a must read

Johnson,2011-11-21 Unlike the media would have you believe most black males find great value in education They want to believe that they have a special gift and that they can make a difference in the world The problem is that they have ill feelings about how society has deprived them of the most qualified teachers and the best ways to be engaged in their own education As a consequence of repeatedly being marginalized criticized and put down by society and teachers they do not feel motivated to attend school or to produce outstanding academic work The Secrets for Motivating Educating and Lifting the Spirit of African American Males contains essays that center on how to help educators and parents to equip young black males with the drive necessary to craft fulfilling lives for themselves so they dont slip through the cracks in the educational system Historically we are still dealing with what happens to the image of Black people in the minds of white people A book like this helps to make certain that the information teachers provide to all students regardless of their race will help them understand that the history of this country has made generation after generation of black students see themselves as academically and socially inferior to white people Most importantly its the teachers not just black teachers but all teachers who have to understand the power they have to change the mindset of society Changing how society thinks about Black people particularly Black males is a task teachers can truly accomplish because they have the power to create lesson plans that challenge how students think about each other For such lessons are important for changing the attitudes and beliefs of the entire community in which we live REVEREND C T VIVIAN A Pioneer of the Civil Rights Movement Author Educator and a Close Friend of Reverend Dr Martin Luther King Jr This book provides a fresh perspective for understanding the problems associated with the education of Black males As a minister I have not encountered a project that gathers the collective wisdom of a group of over 20 Black male educators who are dedicated to helping the world save young Black males When all their ideas come together they are bound to create a storm of new thinking about how all of us can work together As a spiritual leader my role is to help young Black males understand that the same God that was in Dr King is the same God that is in them This is a difficult lesson for some Black males who have been brainwashed to see themselves as having no say about the outcome of their lives This book will help us including those in the ministry to reevaluate the thinking patterns of our boys so that we can better prepare them for the critical thinking that is required for life in the 21st century REVEREND ROBERT KILGORE Assistant Pastor at Hillside International Truth Center Atlanta GA

Urban Public Spaces, Events, and Gun Violence Melvin Delgado, 2024-09-09 This book offers a new vision on urban gun violence that focuses on public space centered concepts events and research It builds on our existing knowledge base by viewing a slice of this problem through celebratory and solemn occasions and how violence at these events and spaces reflects on the state of urban gun violence Understanding this context serves to inform us on how best to address this social phenomenon Gun violence in the United States is a salient national problem with virtually no day that goes by without it occurring particularly in urban public spaces making it a significant social event This book uniquely presents an urban and event focused context for gun violence It also draws attention to marginalized urban communities merging urban public spaces events intersectionality social justice and gun violence introducing a unique window to better comprehend this violence as a national issue and bringing profound consequences when it transpires in a public event To examine the context of public spaces and events in gun violence the author organized the book s ten chapters in three sections Part I Conceptual Foundation sets the foundation for a multifaceted perspective Part II Celebratory and Solemn Events expands the gun violence arena Part III Implications for Research Education and Practice Urban Public Spaces Events and Gun Violence Block Parties Funerals Mother s Day and Other Community Events expands the context of gun violence beyond the street scene to include public settings and events and helps in achieving a comprehensive understanding of this public health problem and how best to solve it The book is essential reading for practitioners academics and researchers in public health social work criminal justice and community practice

The Emotional Lives of Teenagers Lisa Damour, Ph.D., 2024-02-20 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER An urgently needed guide to help parents understand their teenagers intense and often fraught emotional lives and how to support teens through this critical developmental stage from the author of Untangled and Under Pressure Dr Lisa Damour worked as an expert collaborator on Pixar s Inside Out 2 How are we supposed to get our kids through these daunting years There are countless books on the subject but The Emotional Lives of Teenagers is the nuanced empathetic one I wish I d had when I was in the trenches Judith Newman The New York Times Book Review In teenagers powerful emotions come with the territory And as teens contend with with academic pressure social media stress worries about the future and concerns about their own mental health it s easy for them and their parents to feel anxious and overwhelmed But it doesn t have to be that way Parents who read this book will learn what to expect in the normal course of adolescent emotional development and when it s time to worry why teens and adults need to understand that mental health isn't about feeling good but about having feelings that fit the moment even if those feelings are unwanted or painful strategies for supporting teens who feel at the mercy of their emotions so they can become psychologically aware and skilled at managing their feelings how to approach common challenges that come with adolescence such as friction at home spiking anxiety risky behavior navigating friendships and romances the pull of social media and many more the best ways to stay connected to their teens and how to provide the kind of relationship that adolescents need and want With clear research informed explanations alongside illuminating real life examples The Emotional Lives of Teenagers gives parents the concrete practical information they need to steady their teens through the bumpy yet transformational journey into adulthood Beating the Odds Freeman A. Hrabowski III, Kenneth I.

Maton, Geoffrey L. Greif, 1998-04-02 Today young Black men are more likely to be killed or sent to prison than to graduate from college Yet despite all the obstacles some are achieving at the highest academic and professional levels Beating the Odds tells their remarkable stories and shows us what African American families have done to raise academically successful sons sons who are among the top two percent of African American males in terms of SAT scores and grades The result of extensive and innovative research Beating the Odds goes beyond mere analysis and beyond the relentlessly negative media images to show us precisely how young Black men can succeed despite the roadblocks of racism the temptations of crime and drugs and a popular culture that values being cool over being educated By interviewing parents and children from a range of economic and educational backgrounds and from both single and two parent homes the authors identify those constants that contribute to academic achievement and offer step by step guidance on six essential strategies for effective parenting child focused love strong limit setting and discipline continually high expectations open consistent and strong communication positive racial identity and positive male identity and full use of community resources The proof of the effectiveness of such strategies is in the sons themselves who speak eloquently in these pages about their struggles and successes in both the classroom and the often hostile world that surrounds it Essential reading for parents teachers and school administrators Beating the Odds offers insight guidance and hope for anyone concerned about the plight of young African American men and the society they live in

The African-American Male Jacob U. Gordon, 1999-07-30 The plight of the Black male in American society has been well documented by scholars and practitioners Although Black males represent only 6 percent of the American population they represent about 40 percent of the prison population the number of Black males in prison and jail exceeds the number of Black males in higher education The homicide rates for Black males were 72.5 percent per 100 000 nearly eight times higher than for White males This bibliographic volume explores the extent to which American academia has addressed these problems It will be an invaluable resource for researchers as well as practitioners in social service programs In addition to more than 400 annotated publications the book includes a selected list of works on the African American male and a compilation of doctoral dissertations This publication will serve as a reference in public as well as academic libraries human service agencies government policymaking agencies and in academic courses in gender and ethnic studies criminal justice and social psychology
