Lost Illusions:

Lost Illusions Honoré de Balzac, 2022-09-15 In Honor de Balzac's novel Lost Illusions readers are transported to the post Napoleonic era in France where they witness the rise and fall of a young poet named Lucien Chardon. The book explores themes of ambition, deception, and the corrupting influence of society on individuals. Balzac's intricate prose and detailed characterizations provide a vivid portrayal of the social and political landscape of the time, making Lost Illusions a classic of French literature. The novel is part of Balzac's larger work La Comédie Humaine, a series of interconnected novels that offer a panoramic view of French society during the 19th century. Balzac's keen observations and psychological insights add depth and complexity to the narrative, making it a compelling read for those interested in the human condition and the dynamics of power. Lost Illusions is not only a gripping tale of personal and professional disillusionment but also a profound reflection on the nature of ambition and the price of success. Readers looking for a thought-provoking exploration of human nature and societal norms will find Lost Illusions a rewarding and enlightening read.

Lost Illusions Honoré de Balzac, 1893 Lost Illusions James Nathan Post, 2001-04 LOST ILLUSIONS is a moving drama about sex, drugs, and religion, the great addictions of that most seductive decade, the 1970s. Jon Fortch comes home from Vietnam to find his generation's world at odds with the myths and illusions of his father's. He and his wife Rigel struggle to keep a relationship together through their turbulent journey in pursuit of the truth behind the great illusions of the American dream.

Lost Illusions Malcolm Cross, Han Entzinger, 2022-11-16 Lost Illusions first published in 1988 analyses the differing experiences of Caribbean migration to Britain and the Netherlands, both from the perspectives of the countries and from the migrants themselves. The editors have compiled a volume of in-depth articles from experts from Britain and the Netherlands to provide an essential examination of Caribbean migration to two different European countries in the 1970s and 1980s.

Lost Illusions Honoré de Balzac, 2016-09-01 Illusions perdues in English Lost Illusions is a serial novel written by the French writer Honoré de Balzac between 1837 and 1843. It consists of three parts, starting in provincial France, thereafter moving to Paris, and finally returning to the provinces. Thus, it resembles another of Balzac's greatest novels, La Rabouilleuse. The Black Sheep, 1842, in that it is set partly in Paris and partly in the provinces. It is, however, unique among the novels and short stories of La Comédie humaine. The Human Comedy, 1799-1850, by virtue of the even-handedness with which it treats both geographical dimensions of French social life.

Mastery and Lost Illusions Włodzimierz Borodziej, Stanislav Holubec, Joachim Puttkamer, 2014-10-15 This volume highlights the specific experiences and challenges of modernity in twentieth-century Eastern and Central Europe. Contributors ask how spatial and temporal conditions shaped the region's transformation from a rural to an urban industrialized society in this period and investigate the state's role in the mastery of space, particularly in the context of state socialism. The volume also sheds light on the ruralization of cities and mutual perceptions of the rural and urban populations in this region.
