Lost Angels Psychoanalysis And Cinema:

Lost Angels Vicky Lebeau, 2005-06-29 With readings of key youth films of the 1980s this book expands the psychoanalytic framework within which current debates regarding fantasy and spectatorship have been taking place Psychoanalysis and Cinema Vicky Lebeau, 2019-07-25 Lebeau examines the long and uneven history of developments in modern art science and technology that brought psychoanalysis and the cinema together towards the end of the nineteenth century She explores the subsequent encounters between the two the seductions of psychoanalysis and cinema as converging though distinct ways of talking about dream and desire image and illusion shock and sexuality Beginning with Freud's encounter with the spectacle of hysteria on display in fin de siècle Paris this study offers a detailed reading of the texts and concepts which generated the field of psychoanalytic film theory Cinema and Intermediality (Second, Enlarged Edition) Ágnes Pethő, 2020-08-24 One of the most comprehensive books to focus on the relationship between cinema and the other arts this volume explores types and stylistic devices of intermediality through a wide range of case studies It addresses major theoretical issues and highlights the relevance of intermedial relations in film history mapping the theoretical field by outlining its main concepts and the research avenues pursued in the study of cinematic intermediality including the most recent approaches and methodologies It also presents some major templates of intermediality through various examples from world cinema including closer looks at films by auteurs like Alfred Hitchcock Michelangelo Antonioni Jean Luc Godard and Agnès Varda Supplemented by three new chapters dealing with phenomena which came into view since its first publication the revised and enlarged edition of this ground breaking volume will serve as a useful handbook to clarify key ideas and to offer insightful analyses Youth and Suicide in American Cinema Alessandra Seggi, 2022-10-27 This book explores the depiction of suicide in American youth films from 1900 to 2019 Anchored in Sociology this multidisciplinary study investigates the causes and consequences of suicide and uncovers the socio cultural context for the development of youth film and suicide While such cinematic portrayals seem to privilege external explanations of suicide versus internal or psychological ones overall they are neither rich nor sensitive Most are simplistic limited or at the very least unbalanced At times they are flatly controversial In light of this overall problematic depiction of suicide this book offers a proactive approach to empower young audiences a media literacy strategy to embrace while watching these films Public Rape Tanya Horeck, 2013-04-15 Second wave feminism fought to end the blanket silence shrouding rape and bring it to public attention Now feminist critics must confront a different issue In Public Rape Tanya Horeck considers the public investment in images of rape and the figure of the raped woman Introducing the idea of public rape Horeck looks at how images of rape serve as cultural fantasies of sexual racial and class difference Looking at rape in real life as well as in literature and films such as The Accused and Boys Don't Cry Horeck reveals how representations of rape raise vital questions about the relationship between reality and fantasy and between violence and spectacle Cinema Studies Susan Hayward, 2013 Film studies is a course that is often articulated in highly technical or complex critical vocabulary This is an A Z of the key critical terms designed to make film texts and analysis more accessible to the student

Teen Film Catherine Driscoll,2011-06-01 What makes a film a teen film And why when it represents such powerful and enduring ideas about youth and adolescence is teen film usually viewed as culturally insignificant Teen film is usually discussed as a representation of the changing American teenager highlighting the institutions of high school and the nuclear family and experiments in sexual development and identity formation But not every film featuring these components is a teen film and not every teen film is American Arguing that teen film is always a story about becoming a citizen and a subject Teen Film presents a new history of the genre surveys the existing body of scholarship and introduces key critical tools for discussing teen film Surveying a wide range of films including The Wild One Heathers Akira and Donnie Darko the book's central focus is on what kind of adolescence teen film represents and on teen film's capacity to produce new and influential images of adolescence

Generation Multiplex Timothy Shary, 2009-01-27 When teenagers began hanging out at the mall in the early 1980s the movies followed Multiplex theaters offered teens a wide array of perspectives on the coming of age experience as well as an escape into the alternative worlds of science fiction and horror Youth films remained a popular and profitable genre through the 1990s offering teens a place to reflect on their evolving identities from adolescence to adulthood while simultaneously shaping and maintaining those identities Drawing examples from hundreds of popular and lesser known youth themed films Timothy Shary here offers a comprehensive examination of the representation of teenagers in American cinema in the 1980s and 1990s He focuses on five subgenres school delinquency horror science and romance sexuality to explore how they represent teens and their concerns how these representations change over time and how youth movies both mirror and shape societal expectations and fears about teen identities and roles He concludes that while some teen films continue to exploit various notions of youth sexuality and violence most teen films of the past generation have shown an increasing diversity of adolescent experiences and have been sympathetic to the particular challenges that teens face

Transgressing Women Jamaluddin Aziz, 2012-01-17 Transgressing Women focuses on the literary and cinematic representation of female characters in contemporary noir thrillers The book argues that as the genre has grown expanded and been subverted since its initial conception along with the changing definition of gender the representation of a female character has also inevitably gone through some dramatic changes So the book asks some important questions What links the female characters in canonical noir to their contemporary counterparts Is gender division still relevant in a text that transgresses gender boundaries What happens when it is the human body itself that betrays the traditional definition or constitution of a human being While many have written about the male protagonists and the femmes fatales in the noir genre little attention has been given to the other female characters who inhabit the noir world and are transgressors themselves The main concern of the book is to trace the transgressive female characters in contemporary noir thrillers both novels and films by engaging itself with some of the most topical debates within both post feminist and postmodernist theories The book is structured around two key concepts space and the body These temporal and spatial indicators are central in contemporary cultural theories such as postmodernism and post feminism along with other theorizations of gender and the noir genre This means that the analysis is drawn from the classical noir examples and will then arrive at the neo noir sub genre and then will move on to the most recent phenomenon in the genre future noir
