Magical Reels A History Of Cinema In Latin America:

Magical Reels John King, 2000-09-17 On Latin American cinema Magical Reels John King, 1990 Magical Reels John King, 1990 The most comprehensive analysis of the subject to have appeared in English Magical Reels charts the development of Latin American film industries in a world increasingly dominated by the advanced technology and massive distribution budgets of the North American mainstream John King sets up a historical framework to unfold the overlapping histories of cinema in the continent the itinerant film makers of the silent era who projected their films in cafes and village halls the inventive use of vernacular music and local comedy in early sound pictures the golden age of 1940s Mexican cinema and the new cinema oppositional cinema made with an idea in the head and a camera in the hand of the late 1950s and beyond A country by country account of this new wave allows detailed discussion of for instance Peronist cinema in Argentina 1960s revolutionary film making in Cuba state sponsored cinema in 1970s Brazil and Venezuela and the struggle for democratization in Chile in the 1980s

Political Documentary Cinema in Latin America Antonio Traverso, Kristi Wilson, 2016-01-08 The chapters in this book show the important role that political documentary cinema has played in Latin America since the 1950s Political documentary cinema in Latin America has a long history of tracing social injustice and suffering depicting political unrest intervening in periods of crisis and upheaval and reflecting upon questions about ideology cultural identity genocide and traumatic memory This collection bears witness to the region's film culture's diversity discussing documentaries about workers strikes riots and military coups against elected governments crime poverty homelessness prostitution children's work and violence against women urban development progress under development capitalism and neoliberalism exile diaspora and border cultures trauma and post memory The chapters focus on documentaries made in Argentina Brazil Chile Cuba Mexico and Venezuela as well as on the work of Latino and diasporic Latin American political documentarians The contributors to the anthology reflect the cultural and linguistic diversity of current Latin American film scholarship with some writing in Spanish and Portuguese from Argentina and Brazil with their original works especially translated and others writing in English from Australia Europe and the USA This book was originally published as a special issue of Social Identities

The Cinema of Latin America Alberto Elena, Marina Díaz López, 2004-03-24 The Cinema of Latin America is the first volume in the new 24 Frames series of studies of national and regional cinema In taking an explicitly text centered approach the books in this series offer a unique way of considering the particular concerns styles and modes of representation of numerous national cinemas around the world This volume focuses on the vibrant practices that make up Latin American cinema a historically important regional cinema and one that is increasingly returning to popular and academic appreciation Through 24 individual concise and insightful essays that each consider one significant film or documentary the editors of this volume have compiled a unique introduction to the cinematic output of countries as diverse as Brazil Argentina Cuba Mexico Bolivia Chile and Venezuela The work of directors such as

Luis Buñuel, Thomas Guitierrez Alea, Walter Salles and Alfonso Arau is discussed and the collection includes in depth studies of seminal works as such Los Olvidados, The Hour of the Furnaces, Like Water For Chocolate, Foreign Land and Amoros Perros.

Magic(al) Realism Maggie Ann Bowers, 2004. Bestselling novels by Angela Carter, Salman Rushdie, Gabriel Garcia Marquez and a multitude of others have enchanted us by blurring the lines between reality and fantasy. Their genre of writing has been variously defined as magic, magical or marvellous realism and is quickly becoming a core area of literary studies. This guide offers a first step for those wishing to consider this area in greater depth by exploring the many definitions and terms used in relation to the genre, tracing the origins of the movement in painting and fiction, offering an historical overview of the contexts for magic al realism, providing analysis of key works of magic al realist fiction, film and art. This is an essential guide for those interested in or studying one of today's most popular genres.

Film Policy Albert Moran, 1996. Film Policy is the first comprehensive overview of the workings of the international film industry. The authors examine film cultures and film policy across the world, explaining why Hollywood cinema dominates the global film market and the effects of the rise of television and video on the international industry. In a series of case studies drawn from North America, Europe, Latin America, Asia and Australia, the authors explore the relationship between Hollywood cinema, product and national film cultures and trace the development of international and national film policies, looking at issues of financing, regulation, protectionism and censorship.

The Rise of Spanish-Language Filmmaking Lisa Jarvinen, 2012-06-05. Silent film was universally understood and could be exported anywhere. But when talkies arrived, the industry began experimenting with dubbing, subtitling and dual track productions in more than one language. Where language fractured the European film market for Spanish speaking countries and communities, it created new opportunities. In The Rise of Spanish Language Filmmaking, Lisa Jarvinen focuses specifically on how Hollywood lost ground in the lucrative international Spanish speaking audience between 1929 and 1939. Hollywood studios initially trained cadres of Spanish speaking film professionals, created networks among them and demonstrated the viability of a broadly conceived transnational Spanish speaking film market in an attempt to forestall the competition from other national film industries. By the late 1930s, these efforts led to unintended consequences and helped to foster the growth of remarkably robust film industries in Mexico, Spain and Argentina. Using studio records, Jarvinen examines the lasting effects of the transition to sound on both Hollywood practices and cultural politics in the Spanish speaking world. She shows, through case studies based on archival research in the United States, Spain and Mexico, how language as a key marker of cultural identity led to new expectations from audiences and new possibilities for film producers.

The Development Film in the Americas Molly Geidel, 2025-10-28. In this book, Molly Geidel traces the rise and fall of the development film, an overlooked film genre that circulated widely in the Americas from the 1940s through the 1970s. Development films, often short documentaries, were made at the behest of state agencies, global governance organizations and private corporations to link capitalist conceptions of economic growth to improved quality of life.

Development films made this link beautifully compelling blending elements from ethnography and socially committed leftist film traditions to create indelible narratives of underdevelopment and modernization The Development Film in the Americas tells the story of these films and the hemispheric cohort of filmmakers who crafted them chronicling the filmmakers fraught relationships with both the organizations they worked for and the actors in their films Latino American Cinema Scott L. Baugh, 2012-04-13 Latino American cinema is a provocative complex and definitively American topic of study This book examines key mainstream commercial films while also spotlighting often underappreciated documentaries avant garde and experimental projects independent productions features and shorts and more Latino American Cinema An Encyclopedia of Movies Stars Concepts and Trends serves as an essential primary reference for students of the topic as well as an accessible resource for general readers The alphabetized entries in the volume cover the key topics of this provocative and complex genre films filmmakers star performers concepts and historical and burgeoning trends alongside frequently overlooked and crucially ignored items of interest in Latino cinema This comprehensive treatment bridges gaps between traditional approaches to U S Latino and Latin American cinemas placing subjects of Chicana and Chicano Puerto Rican Cuban and diasporic Cuban and Mexican origin in perspective with related Central and South American and Caribbean elements Many of the entries offer compact definitions critical discussions overviews and analyses of star artists media productions and historical moments while several foundational entries explicate concepts making this single volume encyclopedia a critical guide as well
