A Witch's Hand William E. Mitchell, 2024-05-29 William E Mitchell revisits his early fieldwork with a three part study of the history of colonial rule in Papua New Guinea From 1971 to 1972 William E Mitchell undertook fieldwork on suffering and healing among the Lujere of Papua New Guinea s Upper Sepik River Basin At a time when it was not yet common to make colonial agencies a subject of anthropological study Mitchell carefully located his research on Lujere practices in the framework of a history of colonization that surrounded the Lujere with a shifting array of Western institutions dramatically changing their society forever Mitchell s work has been well known among anthropologists of Oceania but the material in this book has remained unpublished until now In this major new work Mitchell revisits his early fieldwork with a three part study of the history of colonial rule in the region the social organization of Lujere life at the time and the forms of affliction witchcraft and curing that preoccupied them Furthermore Mitchell offers the first sweeping cross cultural survey of sanguma magical murder in Oceania The book presents a vivid portrait of a society that has since changed dramatically as well as an approach to anthropology that was typical of the era This is a significant contribution to the ethnography of Papua New Guinea and is sure to be an invaluable source for researchers of Melanesia medical anthropologists and scholars of kinship myth and ritual

The Encyclopedia of Witches, Witchcraft and Wicca Rosemary Guiley, 2010-05-12 Presents a comprehensive reference guide with more than 480 entries on the subject of witchcraft

Male witches in early modern Europe Lara Apps, Andrew Gow, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This is the first ever full book on the subject of male witches addressing incidents of witch hunting in both Britain and Europe Uses feminist categories of gender analysis to critique the feminist agenda that mars many studies Advances a more bal Critiques historians assumptions about witch hunting challenging the marginalisation of male witches by feminist and other historians Shows that large numbers of men were accused of witchcraft in their own right in some regions more men were accused than women It uses feminist categories of gender analysis to challenge recent arguments and current orthodoxies providing a more balanced and complex view of witch hunting and ideas about witches in their gendered forms than has hitherto been available

The Cambridge Encyclopedia of Hunters and Gatherers Richard B. Lee, Richard Heywood Daly, Richard Daly, 1999-12-16 Hunting and gathering is humanity s first and most successful adaptation Until 12 000 years ago all humanity lived this way Surprisingly in an increasingly urbanized and technological world dozens of hunting and gathering societies have persisted and thrive worldwide resilient in the face of change their ancient ways now combined with the trappings of modernity The Encyclopedia is divided into three parts The first contains case studies by leading experts of over fifty hunting and gathering peoples in seven major world regions There is a general introduction and an archaeological overview for each region Part II contains thematic essays on prehistory social life gender music and art health religion and indigenous knowledge The final part surveys the complex histories of hunter gatherers encounters with colonialism and the state and their ongoing struggles for dignity and human rights as part of the worldwide movement of indigenous peoples Witchcraft: A Very Short Introduction Malcolm Gaskill,2010-03-25 Examines the history and origins of witchcraft from pre history to the present day considering why it still features so heavily in our culture There's a New Witch in Town Tawny Weber,2016-10-11 Her magic his town their love is it enough Or will a witch just regaining her powers have to choose between saving a cursed town or giving up everything she s come to care about Legend tells that many years ago deep in the Idaho mountains Hiram Ross saved a beautiful woman from a mountain slide and earned her everlasting gratitude The woman per the legend was a witch who blessed the town with peace and prosperity as long as they welcomed faith magic and love With this once prosperous town now on its last legs can a new witch be their salvation A wayward witch Born to a long line of witches Miki Lansing renounced her magic to marry a mortal When he dumps her her powers return along with a karmic curse Retreating to a rundown property in Idaho all Miki wants is to reverse the curse get her unstable powers under control and figure out her life Too bad the townspeople hate her And too bad her sexy handyman is another troublesome mortal A mistrustful mortal Gideon Ross knows far too much about magic His ex wife was a witch The real magic making up to no good kind Now she s determined to take over his beloved town And his enchanting new client s kisses are far too distracting Then he discovers he s falling for another witch Gideon can t subject the town to the capriciousness of another woman with that much power A town in need of magic Then Gideon s ex wife issues an ultimatum unless Miki and Gideon are out of town by the full moon she ll destroy the town and claim it for her cult Gideon s had it with witchy women and Miki already lost everything once before to a mortal But if they re to save the town they ll need a little faith a lot of love and a very special kind of magic

Handbook of Middle American Indians, Volumes 7 and 8 Robert Wauchope,2015-01-16 Ethnology comprises the seventh and eighth volumes in the Handbook of Middle American Indians published in cooperation with the Middle American Research Institute of Tulane University under the general editorship of Robert Wauchope 1909 1979 The editor of the Ethnology volumes is Evon Z Vogt 1918 2004 Professor of Anthropology in the Department of Social Relations Harvard University These two books contain forty three articles all written by authorities in their field on the ethnology of the Maya region the southern Mexican highlands and adjacent regions the central Mexican highlands western Mexico and northwest Mexico Among the topics described for each group of Indians are the history of ethnological investigations cultural and linguistic distributions major postcontact events population subsistence systems and food patterns settlement patterns technology economy social organization religion and world view aesthetic and recreational patterns life cycle and personality development and annual cycle of life The volumes are illustrated with photographs and drawings of contemporary and early historical scenes of native Indian life in Mexico and Central America The Handbook of Middle American Indians was assembled and edited at the Middle American Research Institute of Tulane University with the assistance of grants from the

National Science Foundation and under the sponsorship of the National Research Council Committee on Latin American Anthropology Female Subjectivity in African-American Women's Poetry Tanima Kumari, 2023-04-17 This book is aimed at constructing the Black female subjectivity of African American women through the works of chosen poets Marilyn Nelson Rita Dove Elizabeth Alexander and Patricia Smith The study delves into the intricacies of African American women's issues such as objectification rape motherhood and racism This work is unique as it takes up the study of African American women's poetry and studies different creative expressions and artistic genres in their struggle for identity It illuminates Black female aesthetics and the liberation of self thus celebrating their blackness By examining historical and contemporary issues the book invites the readers to re-counter the dominance of the established White Order and stimulates the question of the agency of Black women This book debunks the perceptions and offers a genuine contribution to the discourse on African American women's lives It goes beyond the customary reflections on women's experiences and addresses the poignant odyssey of women of color marking a shift to politics of survival Female Subjectivity in Women's Writing Hatice Yurttaş, 2023-09-21 This volume discusses how Angela Carter's Nights at the Circus Margaret Atwood's The Blind Assassin and A S Byatt's Morpho Eugenia approach the question of female subjectivity and how they relate this question to language and literature It shows that the conscious intertextuality and genre transgressions in these writings reflect the authors' awareness of the woman writer's problematic position in the literary tradition which does not allow woman a subject position In this discussion Luce Irigaray's criticism of language and theory as the producer and ally of the patriarchal order is used as the main reference point The book reads these in the light of Irigaray's analyses of how language creates the category of woman It highlights that Atwood and Carter are more in accord with Irigaray's insistence on a language that can produce a female subjectivity by acknowledging representing and symbolizing the desire of and for the mother while Byatt on the other hand suffices with deconstructing the male subject without devising a subjective identity for women Romanticism and Popular Magic Stephanie Elizabeth Churms, 2019-01-16 This book explores how Romanticism was shaped by practices of popular magic It seeks to identify the place of occult activity and culture in the form of curses spells future telling charms and protective talismans in everyday life together with the ways in which such practice figures and is refigured in literary and political discourse at a time of revolutionary upheaval What emerges is a new perspective on literature's material contexts in the 1790s from the rhetorical linguistic and visual jugglery of the revolution controversy to John Thelwall's occult turn during a period of autobiographical self reinvention at the end of the decade From Wordsworth's deployment of popular magic as a socially and politically emancipatory agent in Lyrical Ballads to Coleridge's anxious engagement with superstition as a despotic system of mental enslavement and Robert Southey's wrestling with an increasingly alluring conservatism he associated with a reliance on ultimately incarcerating systems of superstition Times Enmeshed Gabriele Stürzenhofecker, 1998 This book traces the formation of historical consciousness among the Duna people of Papua New Guinea and explores how this is constituted differently for men and women Catholic Pentecostalism and the Paradoxes of Africanization Ludovic Lado, 2009 Through an ethnographic study of a Charismatic movement in Cameroon and Paris the book explores the dialectics between a Pentecostalization TM and a Africanization TM within contemporary African Catholicism It appears that both processes pursue although for different purposes the missionary policy of dismantling local cultures Knowing the Gururumba Philip L. Newman, 1965 Inequality in New Guinea Highlands Societies Andrew Strathern, 2009-07-16 Strathern's illuminating study of the inequalities amongst the Highland societies of Papua New Guinea is now reissued with a new preface The five papers in this volume seek to set these inequalities into a context of long term and recent social changes that aim to develop schemes of analysis which will permit discussion of the societies over extended periods of time The Mothers Robert Briffault, 1927
