Modern Black Stories Martin Mirer, 1971-01-01 Modern Black Stories Martin Mirer, 1971-12 The stories in this collection reflect some aspect of the black experience in America The Rise and Fall of Modern Black Leadership Nelson, H. Viscount 'Berky', 2003-05-13 The Rise and Fall of Modern Black Leadership is designed to show how black leaders responded to the omnipresent racism of twentieth century America Although the efforts of black leadership eventually succeeded in eradicating de jure discrimination and brought the nation closer to realizing the idealized tenets of American democracy their achievements occurred at a cost to their influence as leaders of the entire race Synopses appear on the lives of the influential men and women who comprised the leadership cadre so that readers can understand the motives underlying leadership goals and comprehend why the lofty objectives of the Civil Rights Movement remain unfulfilled The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies Radical Aesthetics and Modern Black Nationalism GerShun Avilez, 2016-05-15 Radical Aesthetics and Modern Black Nationalism explores the long overlooked links between black nationalist activism and the renaissance of artistic experimentation emerging from recent African American literature visual art and film GerShun Avilez charts a new genealogy of contemporary African American artistic production that illuminates how questions of gender and sexuality guided artistic experimentation in the Black Arts Movement from the mid 1960s to the mid 1970s As Avilez shows the artistic production of the Black Arts era provides a set of critical methodologies and paradigms rooted in the disidentification with black nationalist discourses Avilez s close readings study how this emerging subjectivity termed aesthetic radicalism critiqued nationalist rhetoric in the past It also continues to offer novel means for expressing black intimacy and embodiment via experimental works of art and innovative artistic methods A bold addition to an advancing field Radical Aesthetics and Modern Black Nationalism rewrites recent black cultural production even as it uncovers unexpected ways of locating black radicalism African American Religious Life and the Story of Nimrod A. Pinn, Allen Dwight Callahan, 2007-12-25 The biblical text and its key figures have played a prominent role in the development of religious discourse on pressing socio political issues Slavery and continued discrimination were given theological sanction through the Old Testament story of Ham but what of his descendent Nimrod the hunter Early Modern Black Diaspora Studies Cassander L. Smith, Nicholas R. Jones, Miles P. Grier, 2018-10-03 Early Modern Black Diaspora Studies brings into conversation two fields Early Modern Studies and Black Studies that traditionally have had little to say to each other This disconnect is the product of current scholarly assumptions about a lack of archival evidence that limits what we can say about those of African descent before modernity This volume posits that the limitations are not in the archives but in the methods we have constructed for locating and examining those archives The essays that make up this volume offer new critical approaches to black African agency and the conceptualization of blackness in early modern literary works historical documents material and visual cultures and performance culture Ultimately this critical anthology revises current understandings about racial discourse and the cultural contributions of black Africans in early modernity and in the present across the globe The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimaged in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature Fighting to Finish Richardson Otis Allen, 2004 Encyclopedia of Black Studies Molefi Kete Asante, Ama Mazama, 2005 In the 1960s Black Studies emerged as both an academic field and a radical new ideological paradigm Editors Molefi Kete Asante and Ama Mazama Black Studies Temple U both influential and renowned scholars have compiled an communities Dickson Carr also discusses the debates and controversies regarding the role of literature in African American life The volume concludes with an extensive annotated bibliography of African American fiction and criticism Sacred Books; Secular Books Kalman Dubov, The ultra orthodox Jewish world divides the world into two distinct realities the sphere within and the sphere without The internal sphere which I refer to as the Sphere of Holiness is maintained in a sacrosanct manner so that the Sphere of Secularity does not intrude and contaminate the other sphere The range of figurative walls maintaining these two spheres affects the consciousness and reality of every ultra orthodox Jew so that this construct is continually brought to conscious awareness Every member of those who maintain this lifestyle is urged to continually be reminded and reinvigorated in this awareness Examples of such awareness begin with ultra orthodox schooling A child begins religious studies that are exclusive with secular studies either ignored or completed in a way that denies credence or importance In New York State the education law contains vague language regarding how a child is to be educated This vagueness allows those in charge of that school to largely circumvent traditional pedagogy As the child advances in religious studies the lack of external exposure coupled with the intensity of study requirements ensures the young man does not stray into forbidden areas that might endanger his sacred standing in the community and be enticed by the larger world Such study intensifies with each passing grade and year until he is fully conversant with ancient Jewish law and traditions after nearly twenty years of such study At the same time however he will be a functional illiterate in the lingua franca of his home country His female counterpart will not be exposed to such traditional studies because her role is to be the mother and home caretaker not the scholar The Jewish tradition not to teach girls and women similar to men derives from the Talmud and the legal determination of Maimonides This mindset has continued for hundreds of years and is unlikely to change Despite this limitation on women's education through Jewish history exceptional women achieved a high scholarship to the acclaim of their entire community including men In fact one woman a singular exception became a Chassidic Rebbe amidst fierce opposition A modern exception to such a study curriculum is Chabad Because it has a messianic outreach program the Chabad couple who establish a Chabad House in diverse cities and countries and are often the only ones running the program the woman must have the training to lead and know the deeper aspects of Judaism This book is not only about women's education but it represents the larger dynamics in how the ultra orthodox Jewish world bifurcates the reality of its members so that any intrusion from that external world remains in place An example of such limitation is the ultra orthodox public denunciations against the use of the internet use of computers as against the smartphone unless these devices are programmed so that surfing is not possible The future of these communities on a trajectory of high fertility ensures their future growth As they populate the United States and other countries replenishing the numbers lost in the Holocaust their exposure to and awareness of the world at large will remain extremely limited The Book of the Film of the Story of My Life William Brandt, 2002 Once Frederick Case passionately believed he could change the world Sometime later he decided to put up with it Today on his forty second birthday this New Zealander realizes he can't do either and now it's the world's turn And it isn't being kind Frederick is a struggling film producer who is losing his hair and tempted to accept money from his rich parents He reads tons of lousy scripts and bemoans the loss of his wife Sophie to her hunky costar the one who with Sophie made history with the first oral sex scene ever performed in a major motion picture Now fortune strikes Frederick with an invitation to an exclusive island With a gorgeous date a vulnerable young hooker named Melissa and Sophie and her lover among the guests surprise he'll finally learn the answers to life's burning questions Are people really who we think they are Is real love as predictable as the movies And can we really go home again BOOK JACKET
