Saviour Gods and Soteria in Ancient Greece Theodora Suk Fong Jim, 2022-05-12 From the Archaic to the Roman imperial period an impressive number of gods and goddesses are attested in the Greek world under the titles of Soter and Soteira Saviour Overseeing the protection of individuals and cities these gods had the power to grant an essential blessing soteria deliverance preservation safety This book investigates what it meant to be saved and the underlying concept of soteria in ancient Greece It challenges the prevailing assumption that soteria was a predominantly Christian concern and demonstrates instead its centrality and significance in the relationship between the Greeks and their gods This book focuses on the power of saviour gods in the life of the Greeks how worshippers searched for soteria as they confronted the unknown and unknowable and what this can reveal about the religious beliefs hopes and anxieties of the Greeks It goes beyond religious vocabulary and cult epithets to investigate worshippers thought world and lived experience the different choices individuals made among the plurality of gods in the Greek pantheon the multiple levels on which divine saviours operated and the values attached to the Greek notion of soteria Building on existing paradigms in the study of Greek polytheism and combining close analysis of epigraphic literary and material evidence this book argues that soteria for the Greeks entailed a very different experience from the Christian eschatological notion of salvation and that what was offered was salvation on earth Myth and History: Close Encounters Menelaos Christopoulos,Athina Papachrysostomou,Andreas P.

Antonopoulos,2022-06-06 The fluidity of myth and history in antiquity and the ensuing rapidity with which these notions infiltrated and cross fertilized one another has repeatedly attracted the scholarly interest The understanding of myth as a phenomenon imbued with social and historical nuances allows for more than one methodological approaches Within the wider context of interdisciplinary exchange of ideas the present volume returns to origins as it traces and registers the association and interaction between myth and history in various literary genres in Greek and Roman antiquity i e an era when the scientific definitions of and distinctions between myth and history had not yet been perceived as such let alone fully shaped and implemented providing original ideas new interpretations and re evaluations of key texts and less well known passages close readings and catholic overviews The twenty four chapters of this volume expand from Greek epos to lyric poetry historiography dramatic poetry and even beyond to genres of Roman era and late antiquity It is the editors hope that this volume will appeal to students and academic researchers in the areas of classics social and political history archaeology and even social anthropology The Portrait of the Lover Maurizio Bettini,2023-12-22 There are a surprising number of stories from antiquity about people who fall in love with statues or paintings and about lovers who use such visual representations as substitutes for an absent beloved In a charmingly conversational witty meditation on this literary theme Maurizio Bettini moves into a wide ranging consideration of the relationship between self and image the nature of love in the ancient world the role of representation in culture and more Drawing on historical events and cultural practices as well as literary works The Portrait of the Lover is a lucid excursion into the anthropology of the image The majority of the stories and poems Bettini examines come from Greek and Roman classical antiquity but he reaches as far as Petrarch Da Ponte and Poe The stories themselves ranging from the impassioned to the bizarre and from the sublime to the hilarious serve as touchstones for Bettini s evocative explorations of the role of representation in literature and in culture Although he begins with a consideration of lovers portraits Bettini soon broadens his concerns to include the role of shadows dreams commemorative statues statues brought to life and vengeful statues in short an entire range of images that take on a life of their own The chapters shift skillfully from one theme to another touching on the nature of desire loss memory and death Bettini brings to the discussion of these tales not only a broad learning about cultures but also a delighted sense of wonder and admiration for the evocative power and endless variety of the stories themselves There are a surprising number of stories from antiquity about people who fall in love with statues or paintings and about lovers who use such visual representations as substitutes for an absent beloved In a charmingly conversational witty meditation on Competing Ideologies in Greek Culture, Ancient and Modern Evy Johanne Håland,2019-04-04 By using both modern and ancient sources this volume explores the relationship between official religion and popular belief in Greece as illustrated by the relations between competing ideologies or the relationship between ideology and mentality It shows that the communicative aspect of the religious festival is central and allows the reader to get to know other sides of Greece than the picture that today dominates the news resulting from the economic crisis with which the county has struggled for several years

Naturalism and Protectionism in the Study of Religions Juraj Franek,2020-02-06 How should we study religion Must we be religious ourselves to truly understand it Do we study religion to advance our knowledge or should the study of religions help to reintroduce the sacred into our increasingly secularized world Juraj Franek argues that the study of religion has long been split into two competing paradigms reductive naturalist and non reductive protectionist While the naturalistic approach seems to run the risk of explaining religious phenomena away the protectionist approach appears to risk falling short of the methodological standards of modern science Franek uses primary source material from Greek and Latin sources to show that both competing paradigms are traceable to Presocratic philosophy and early Christian literature He presents the idea that naturalists are distant heirs not only of the French Enlightenment but also of the Ionian one Likewise he argues that protectionists owe much of their arguments and strategies not only to Luther and the Reformation but to the earliest Christian literature This book analyses the conflict between reductive and non reductive approach in the modern study of religions and positions the Cognitive Science of Religion against a background of previous theories ancient and modern to demonstrate its importance for the revindication of the naturalist paradigm
