Pelley, 2002-11-26 Explores the relation between the precolonial and colonial past to the postcolonial present in the Democratic Republic of Vietnam Poetic Writing and the Vietnam War in West Germany Mererid Puw Davies, 2023-05-30 In the 1960s and 1970s in the Federal Republic of Germany FRG or West Germany newspaper readers and television viewers were appalled by terrible images of fires burning half a world away The Vietnam War was a decisive catalyst for the era's wider protest movements and gave rise to an ardent anti-war discourse This discourse privileged writing in many forms Within it poetry and poetic writing were key and because coverage of the conflict in Vietnam often focused on spectacular destructive conflagrations ignited by hi-tech machines of war their dominant trope was fire Hundreds of poems and related writings about Vietnam circulated in the FRG yet they are almost entirely forgotten today Poetic Writing and the Vietnam War in West Germany uncovers and explores some of this rich production in order to present a new history of engaged poetic writing in the FRG in the 1960s and 1970s and to draw out distinctive characteristics of wider protest culture In doing so it makes the case for attending to marginal non-canonical or neglected literary and cultural forms and for critical thinking about why they might over time have been obscured This book offers too a case study for reflection on the representation of war on ways in which German oppositional culture could imagine its others and the ways in which other voices could speak to it in turn and on the relationship of poetry to the historical world East, West, and Others Arlene Akiko

Teraoka, 1996-01-01 East West and Others is the first work to examine the Third World in German literature from World War II to the present Arlene A Teraoka investigates how prominent post World War II East and West German authors have portrayed the Third World She discusses the persistent stereotypes of race culture and sexuality in texts by authors whose careers were shaped by concerns with Third World politics Those writers include Anna Seghers Peter Weiss Hans Magnus Enzensberger and Heiner Müller East Germans Claus Hammel and Peter Hacks and the documentary West German writers Max von der Grün Günter Wallraff and Paul Geiersbach Teraoka demonstrates the continuing German need to construct a postwar identity freed from the fascist past and the conflicts and clichés that inevitably mar this dream of the self Whether authors project a champion of humanity who upholds Enlightenment ideals or a fragmented European protagonist paralyzed by guilt all negotiate between the forces of rationality and prejudice universality and difference solidarity and helplessness
