Notre Dame A Sense Of Place:

Notre Dame, 1988 University of Notre Dame - A Sense of Place William Strode, William Butler, 1992-04-01 Flesh and Stone: The Body and the City in Western Civilization Richard Sennett, 1996-03-17 This vivid history of the city in Western civilization tells the story of urban life through bodily experience Flesh and Stone is the story of the deepest parts of life how women and men moved in public and private spaces what they saw and heard the smells that assailed them where they ate how they dressed the mores of bathing and of making love all in the architecture of stone and space from ancient Athens to modern New York Early in Flesh and Stone Richard Sennett probes the ways in which the ancient Athenians experienced nakedness and the relation of nakedness to the shape of the ancient city its troubled politics and the inequalities between men and women The story then moves to Rome in the time of the Emperor Hadrian exploring Roman beliefs in the geometrical perfection of the body The second part of the book examines how Christian beliefs about the body related to the Christian city the Venetian ghetto cloisters and markets in Paris The final part of Flesh and Stone deals with what happened to urban space as modern scientific understanding of the body cut free from pagan and Christian beliefs Flesh and Stone makes sense of our constantly evolving urban living spaces helping us to build a common home for the increased diversity of bodies that make up the modern city Sacred Space for the Missional Church William R. McAlpine, 2011-02-14 Sacred Space for the Missional Church examines the strong link between the theology and mission of the Church and the spaces in which and from which that theology and mission are lived out The author demonstrates that the built environment is not incidental or even subservient to mission Rather it is a key player in the fulfillment and the communication of that mission The book begins with a working definition of the missional church underscoring the connection between God's mission missio Dei and the Church's mission The reader is presented with historical and theological frameworks for sacred space and reminded of the pivotal role of the built environment in the fulfillment of the mission of the Church The design and construction of sacred spaces are shown to be fundamentally a theological exercise and not solely a matter of function pragmatics and fiscal astuteness The author questions the uncritical application of blanket statements such form must follow function and challenges the conviction that it does not matter where worship occurs only that it occurs The book addresses genuine concerns such as legitimizing the cost of church buildings and concludes with practical suggestions and essential questions that must be considered in posturing the built environment within the missional praxis of the Church Henri Nouwen Wil Hernandez, 2006 The Fighting Irish Football Encyclopedia Michael R. Steele, 2002-08 Limited Leatherbound Edition Limited to 500 copies Signed by Mirko Jurkovic Ted Burgmeier Andy Heck John Scully Hunter Smith Bob Crable and Daniel Rudy Ruettiger Includes certificate of authenticity The Fighting Irish Football Encyclopedia is written in a unique easy to read style that brings to life the exploits of Notre Dame legends such as Knute Rockne Joe Montana the Four Horsemen and former coach Lou Holtz It also reviews great moments of Fighting Irish football including the school's 21 bowl appearances the unforgettable Game of the Century versus Michigan State in 1966 Notre Dame's 11 national championships and its traditional battles against Michigan Southern California and others

Of Memory and the Misplaced Sarah O'Brien, 2024-01-02 What can the life writing of post famine Irish immigrants tell us about Irish diasporic memory Of Memory and the Misplaced considers the endurance and nature of Irish American memory across the twentieth century Guided by 30 memoirs written between 1900 and 1970 Sarah O'Brien shows the prevalence of intimate and taboo themes in ordinary immigrants writing such as domestic violence same sex love and famine induced trauma Importantly Of Memory and the Misplaced critiques the role of the Irish landscape as a site of memory and shows how the interiority of the domestic world has provided Irish women with the language needed to reclaim their own lives Combining literary and historical theory Of Memory and the Misplaced highlights voices that have traditionally been silenced and offers a rare and unexplored collection of primary source autobiographical texts to better understand the experiences of Irish immigrants in the United States

Faith Makes Us Live

Margarita Mooney, 2009-08-10 Margarita Mooney's path breaking book Faith Makes us Live is the first ever comparative study of how religious faith and practice affect immigrant adaptation and assimilation Her imaginative analysis of Haitian immigrants in Miami Montreal and Paris shows how religious faith serves to mediate culturally between immigrants and their host societies but also reveals that by itself faith is not enough to achieve successful integration Host societies must also be receptive to the religious institutions that serve immigrants if integration is to be achieved Her book is essential reading for students of both religion and immigration Douglas S Massey Princeton University Margarita Mooney's research on Haitian

Catholic immigrants in three settings is elegant in design assiduous in execution and compelling in presentation Mooney's immigrants bring a deep piety with them across the ocean but the different contexts of reception they encounter in Miami Montreal and Paris significantly influence their differential adaptation to their new homes in the U S Canada and France Faith Makes Us Live is an essential contribution to the growing body of literature on religion and immigration R Stephen Warner University of Illinois at Chicago Faith Makes Us Live is one of those rare books that succeeds in making a valuable contribution on at least three fronts it extends the literature on religion and immigration by showing how religious organizations serve as mediating structures between immigrants and their host communities it demonstrates to scholars interested in faith based service organizations that the larger relationships between church and state must be considered carefully through a comparative framework and it provides students of religion with a compelling up close and personal account of how faith matters in the daily lives of Haitian immigrants Robert Wuthnow Princeton University What excites me most about Faith Makes Us Live is that it analyzes the role played by the Catholic Church in immigrant incorporation while taking into consideration the distinctive challenges met by Haitians in three societies that treat the poor immigrants and people of color quite differently The comparison between Miami Paris and Montreal is particularly felicitous given differences in the position and influence of the Church the characteristics of the Haitian populations and the public resources available to immigrants across these three contexts By showing how religion sustains resilience and empowerment for a particularly vulnerable group of individuals Mooney demonstrates the crucial role of meaning making matters for immigrant incorporation Michele Lamont Harvard University This book teaches us an important lesson When immigrants are religious and so many are pragmatic cooperation between church and state can hasten their acculturation and improve their well being Faith Makes Us Live is essential reading for those who want to better understand the role of religion and religious institutions in immigrants lives Mark Chaves Duke University An exemplar of theory driven ethnographic research Professor Mooney provides an ambitious comparative study at once rich in detail and grand in scope By systematically comparing three countries on two continents this book uncovers crucial patterns of relationships among church state and civil society and how they affect immigrants on the ground This is what ethnography should be rooted in the lived experience of everyday life and yet motivated by the need to understand human social processes in general Andy Perrin University of North Carolina Thoroughly sociological in design and analysis this study opens new vistas for the field of religion and immigration Leaving behind celebratory or critical accounts of the role of religious beliefs in the adaptation of immigrant minorities Mooney makes clear that processes and outcomes depend on the interaction between religious institutions and the broader socio political context An original contribution made even more valuable by its focus on one of the most downtrodden groups in the migrant world Alejandro Portes Princeton University
