Nouvellecaledonie Lile Pabion:

Geographies of New Caledonia-Kanaky Matthias Kowasch, Simon P. J. Batterbury, 2024-04-12 This open access book provides a unique overview of geographical historical political and environmental issues facing the French overseas territory New Caledonia also called Kanaky by the indigenous Kanak people who outnumber citizens of European and other origin New Caledonia has seen a long and complex struggle for decolonization but is still on the United Nations list of Non Self Governing territories and there is little sign of change following three referendums on independence and extensive negotiations with France The archipelago possesses around a quarter of the world's nickel deposits giving it additional strategic importance when demand for the mineral is strong The islands have unique biodiversity and Caledonian coastal lagoons have been listed as UNESCO world heritage sites since 2008 The book offers detailed insights into the environmental and human geographies of the archipelago with a focus on the links between environmental protection and extensive mining operations between political independence struggles and continued wellbeing and economic development and the differing visions for the future of the islands This multidisciplinary volume one of the few to appear in English appeals to researchers students and policy makers across the environmental social and political sciences New Zealand-New Caledonia

Frédéric Angleviel, Stephen I. The History of French Colonial Policy, 1870-1925 Stephen H. Roberts,2019-04-23 Published in 1963 The author gives a clear and accurate account of the immense development of France as a colonial power which in an incredibly short space of time was to control one third of Africa He drew his material not only from the scanty formal literature then available but also by carefully evaluating and selecting from large mass of controversial material to be found in deliberate propaganda parliamentary debates and the often suspect official documentation The History of French Colonial Policy (1870-1925) Stephen Henry Roberts, 1929 La Nouvelle-Calédonie Garnier, 1871
