Hayes-Conroy, 2014-09-19 Advocates of the alternative food movement often insist that food is our common ground that through the very basic human need to eat we all become entwined in a network of mutual solidarity In this challenging book the author explores the contradictions and shortcomings of alternative food activism by examining specific endeavours of the movement through various lenses of social difference including class race gender and age While the solidarity adage has inspired many it is shown that this has also had the unfortunate effect of promoting sameness over difference eschewing inequities in an effort to focus on being together at the table The author explores questions of who belongs at the table of alternative food and who gets to decide what is eaten there and what is at stake when alternative food practices become the model for what is right to eat Case studies are presented based on fieldwork in two distinct loci of alternative food organizing school gardens and slow food movements in Berkeley California and rural Nova Scotia The stories take social difference as a starting point but they also focus specifically on the complexities of sensory experience how material bodies take up social difference both confirming and disrupting it in the visceral processes of eating Overall the book demonstrates the importance of moving beyond a promotion of universal shoulds of eating and towards a practice of food activism that is more sensitive to issues of social and material difference King Solomon's Table Joan Nathan, 2017-04-04 A definitive compendium of Jewish recipes from around the globe and across the ages from the James Beard Award winning much loved cookbook author and the queen of American Jewish cooking Houston Chronicle Driven by a passion for discovery the biblical King Solomon is said to have sent emissaries on land and sea to all corners of the ancient world initiating a mass cross pollination of culinary cultures that continues to bear fruit today With Solomon s appetites and explorations in mind in these pages Joan Nathan gathers together more than 170 recipes from Israel to Italy to India and beyond Here are classics like Yemenite Chicken Soup with Dill Cilantro and Parsley Slow Cooked Brisket with Red Wine Vinegar and Mustard and Apple Kuchen as well as contemporary riffs on traditional dishes such as Smoky Shakshuka with Tomatoes Peppers and Eggplant Double Lemon Roast Chicken and Roman Ricotta Cheese Crostata Here too are an array of dishes from the world over from Socca Chickpea Pancakes with Fennel Onion and Rosemary and Sri Lankan Breakfast Buns with Onion Confit to Spanakit Georgian Spinach Salad with Walnuts and Cilantro and Keftes Garaz Syrian Meatballs with Cherries and Tamarind Gorgeously illustrated and filled with fascinating historical details personal histories and delectable recipes King Solomon s Table showcases the dazzling diversity of a culinary tradition more than three thousand years old Bat, Scalpel, Sheepskin, Beneath the Cross Thomas H.
