Novelistic Vision Of Doris Lessing:

The Novelistic Vision of Doris Lessing Roberta Rubenstein, 1979 Doris Lessing Gayle Greene, 1994 An original and compelling appraisal of this important international literary figure Literary Half-Lives R. Rubenstein, 2014-05-14 While Doris Lessing was composing The Golden Notebook she was intimately involved with Clancy Sigal and their relationship influenced the literary methods of both writers Focusing on literary transformations Rubenstein offers compelling insights into the ethical implications of disguised autobiography and roman clef Doris Lessing Harold Bloom, 2003 Essays of critical interpretation portray views of Doris Lessing's work including The Golden Notebook Marriages and The Grass is Singing The Columbia History of the British Novel John Richetti, John Bender, Deirdre David, Michael Seidel, 1994-05-19 Booklist Doris Lessing and Sufi Equilibrium S. Fahim, 1994-07-12 The purpose of this study is to examine the rationale of Doris Lessing's development from Classical Realism to mysticism and forms of science fiction and to consider the unifying motifs that appear throughout her novels in her consistent search for Sufi Equilibrium The four novels selected in this study represent significant stages in Lessing's work Chapter one focuses on The Grass is Singing which represents the author's early traditionally realistic writing to show how far the preoccupations of Lessing's later novels find expression in this early work Chapter two studies The Golden Notebook which marks a turning point in formal structure in Lessing's canon and is selected as evidence of her interest in Sufism at that early stage Chapter three concentrates on the study of The Memoirs of a Survivor which has elicited a comparatively limited amount of criticism but which proves to be a major achievement when brought into line with Sufi methods of writing Chapter four considers Lessing's science fiction series Canopus in Argos tracing sources from Oriental literature a key which unlocks many areas of obscurity Doris Lessing Susan Watkins, 2013-07-19 This study examines the writing career of the respected and prolific novelist Doris Lessing who was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2007 and has recently published what she has announced will be her final novel Whereas earlier assessments have focused on Lessing's relationship with feminism and the impact of her 1962 novel The Golden Notebook this book argues that Lessing's writing was formed by her experiences of the colonial encounter it makes use of postcolonial theory and criticism to examine Lessing's continued interest in ideas of nation empire gender and race and the connections between them The book examines the entire range of her writing including her most recent fiction and non fiction which have been comparatively neglected The book is aimed at undergraduate and postgraduate students of Doris Lessing's work as well as the general reader who enjoys her writing This is the first significant book length critical evaluation in ten years Doris Lessing and the Forming of History Brazil Kevin Brazil, 2016-09-20 Explores Doris Lessing's innovative engagement with historical change in her own lifetime and beyond The death of Nobel Prize winning Doris Lessing sparked a range of commemorations that cemented her place as one of the major figures of twentieth and twenty first century world literature This volume views Lessing's writing as a whole and in retrospect focusing on her innovative attempts to rework literary form to engage with the challenges thrown up by the sweeping historical changes through which she lived The 12 original chapters provide new readings of Lessing s work via contexts ranging from post war youth politics and radical women s writing to European cinema analyse her experiments with genres from realism to autobiography and science fiction and draw on previously unstudied archive material The volume also explores how Lessing s writing can provide insight into some of the issues now shaping twenty first century scholarship including trauma ecocriticism the post human and world literature as they emerge as defining challenges to our own present moment in history Key FeaturesOffers a critical overview of the full range of Lessing s work setting the agenda for future study of her writingProvides new readings of an unprecedented range of Lessing s writing including previously unstudied archive material landmark novels such as The Golden Notebook drama and reportage essays memoirs and short storiesSituates Lessing in relation to new literary and cultural contexts including the nineteenth century novel series cinema and post war youth cultureRelates Lessing s work to contemporary theoretical debates on post humanism trauma ecocriticism radical women s writing and world literature
