Johannesson Eric O. Johannesson, The Novel of August Strindberg Eric O. Johannesson, 2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1968 The Cambridge Companion to August Strindberg Michael Robinson, 2009-09-24 August Strindberg is one of the most enduring of nineteenth century dramatists and is also an internationally recognised novelist autobiographer and painter This Companion presents contributions by leading international scholars on different aspects of Strindberg's highly colourful life and work The essays focus primarily on his most celebrated plays these include the Naturalist Dramas The Father and Miss Julie the experimental dramas with which he created a true modernist theatre To Damascus and A Dream Play and the Chamber Plays of 1908 which like so much of his work exerted a powerful influence on much later twentieth century drama His plays are contextualised for what they contribute both to the history of drama and developments in theatre practice and other essays clarify the enormous importance to these dramas of his other work most notably the autobiographical novel Inferno and his lifelong interest in science the occult sexual politics and the visual arts An International Annotated Bibliography of Strindberg Studies 1870-2005: Autobiographies, novels, poetry, letters, historical works, natural history and science, linguistics, painting and the other arts, politics, psychopathology, biography, miscellaneous, dissertations Michael Robinson, 2008 This copiously annotated bibliography documents and examines the whole range of commentary on Strindberg's works and activity in many fields besides the plays for which he is internationally best known These include his prose fiction and poetry his work as an historian and natural historian and his relationship to the other arts most notably his painting It is concerned with both lasting works of literary and dramatic criticism as well as reviews of his books and plays in the theatre and some more ephemeral material all of this in several languages Organised generically and by subject and individual work the bibliography enables the reader to trace the changing impact of Strindberg and his works in various countries and during different periods It is thus very much a study in reception as well as a bibliographical record of published material It traces the developing image of Strindberg and his writing both during his lifetime and in subsequent years and with frequent cross reference offers a comprehensive overview of a literary and existential project that has rarely been matched for its multifaceted diversity The bibliography is published in three parts Volume 1 General Studies 978 0 947623 81 4 and Volume 2 The Plays 978 0 947623 82 1 are also now available Michael Robinson is Emeritus Professor of Drama and Scandinavian Studies at the University of East Anglia Norwich The Continental Novel Louise S.

Fitzgerald, Elizabeth I. Kearney, 1983 The Novel-Essay, 1884-1947 S. Ercolino, 2014-04-08 The novel essay emerged in France in the last quarter of the nineteenth century and reached its highest formal complexity in Austria and Germany during the interwar period Here Ercolino argues that it is crucial for a renovated understating of the history of the novel in modernity Following the Animal Ann-Sofie Lönngren, 2015-09-10 Literary transformations from human to animal have occurred in myths folklore fairy tales and narratives from all over the world since ancient times and have always provided a narrative space for depictions of power agency and the radical nature of change In Following the Animal these transformations are analysed with regards to their use in modern literature from northern most Europe with specific attention being paid to the insights they provide regarding the human animal relationship both generally in the industrialized West and against the background of more specific circumstances in the Nordic area In three analytic chapters focusing respectively on Swedish author August Strindberg's novel Tschandala 1887 Finnish author Aino Kallas's novel The Wolf's Bride 1928 and Danish author Karen Blixen Isak Dinesen's short story The Monkey 1934 along with discussions of a range of other authors and texts the reader is introduced to several traditions of literary production that both connect to and differ from Anglophone and other literature in fascinating ways In addition to the insights it provides concerning the uses of human animal transformations in modern Nordic literature and their significance in relation to the question of the animal Following the Animal also offers literary scholars and students alike a series of useable and transferable strategies for approaching texts from a more than anthropocentric human animal studies perspective In phrasing and employing the interpretational method of following the animal over the text's surface up metaphorical elevations down material wormholes and in constant dialogue with previous research this book contributes greatly to both human animal literary studies specifically and to the field of literary scholarship generally in both an international and northern European context English Language
