Nowhere In Africa An Autobiographical Novel:

Nowhere in Africa Stefanie Zweig, 2004 German Jewish refugee child in Kenya during WWII Nowhere in Africa ,2003
Nowhere in Africa ,2001 Remembering Africa Dirk Göttsche, 2013 A groundbreaking treatment of the themes of colonialism and Africa in German literary fiction as presented in some fifty novels from the past three decades In the late 1990s in the wake of German unification multiculturalism and globalization a surge of historical novels about German colonialism in Africa and its previously neglected legacies hit the German literary scene This development accelerated by the centenary in 2004 of Germany's colonial war in South West Africa has continued to the present making colonialism an established theme of literary memorialization alongside Germany's dominant memory themes National Socialism and the Holocaust the former GDR and its demise in the Wende and more recently 1968 This is the first comprehensive study of contemporary German literature's intense engagement with German colonialism and with Germany's wider involvement in European colonialism Building on the author's decade of research and publication in the field the book discusses some fifty novels by German Swiss and Austrian writers among them Hans Christoph Buch Alex Capus Christof Hamann Lukas Hartmann Ilona Maria Hilliges Gisela W. Hoffmann Dieter Kehn Hermann Schulz Gerhard Seyfried Thomas von Steinaecker Uwe Timm Ilija Trojanow and Stephan Wackwitz Drawing on international postcolonial theory the German tradition of cross cultural literary studies and on memory studies the book brings the hitherto neglected German case to the international debate in postcolonial literary studies Dirk Göttsche is Professor of German at the University of Nottingham Afrika and Alemania Priscilla Layne, Michelle Stott James, Lisabeth Hock, 2025-07-15 Afrika and Alemania explores the representation of Blackness in German speaking literary autobiographical and cinematic texts across two centuries By examining how different groups of women with access to German culture have depicted Africa Africans and the African diaspora the book challenges the assumption that all women will tell the same story Focusing on Black women non Black women of colour and white women it investigates how these diverse voices engage with and represent Blackness within a society shaped by racial hierarchies Part I analyses how Black German speaking women actively reshape and redefine Blackness in response to stereotypes upheld by white German society Part II explores how non Black women of colour navigate the complexities of othering while sometimes reproducing anti Black stereotypes while Part III discusses how white women's projections of fantasies about Africa often erase Black voices and render them invisible Offering a nuanced analysis of the intersections of race gender ethnicity and nationality Afrika and Alemania provides a vital framework for understanding Blackness within contemporary scholarship and its broader social and cultural implications Projecting the Holocaust into the Present Lawrence Baron, 2005-11-01 Most Holocaust scholars and survivors contend that the event was so catastrophic and unprecedented that it defies authentic representation in feature films Yet it is precisely the extremity of the Final Solution and the issues it raised that have fueled the cinematic imagination since the end of World War II Recognizing that movies reach a greater audience than eyewitness historical or literary accounts Lawrence Baron argues that they mirror changing public perceptions of the Holocaust over time and place After tracing the evolution of the most commonly employed genres and themes in earlier Holocaust motion pictures he focuses on how films from the 1990s made the Holocaust relevant for contemporary audiences While genres like biographical films and love stories about doomed Jewish Gentile couples remained popular they now cast Jews or non Jewish victims like homosexuals in lead roles more often than was the case in the past Baron attributes the recent proliferation of Holocaust comedies and children s movies to the search for more figurative and age appropriate genres for conveying the significance of the Holocaust to generations born after it happened He contends that thematic shifts to stories about neo Nazis rescuers survivors and their children constitute an expression of the continuing impact the Holocaust exerts on the present The book concludes with a survey of recent films like Nowhere in Africa and The Pianist

The Young Victims of the Nazi Regime Simone Gigliotti, Monica Tempian, 2016-05-05 During the Nazi regime many children and young people in Europe found their lives uprooted by Nazi policies resulting in their relocation around the globe The Young Victims of the Nazi Regime represents the diversity of their experiences covering a range of non European perspectives on the Second World War and aspects of memory This book is unique in that it places the experiences of children and youth in a transnational context shifting the conversation of displacement and refuge to countries that have remained under examined in a comparative context Featuring essays from an international range of experts this book analyses the key themes in three sections the migration of children to countries including England Canada Australia New Zealand Kenya and Brazil the experiences of young people who remained in Nazi Europe and became victims of war displacement and deportation and finally the challenges of rebuilding lives and representing traumas in the aftermath of war In its comparisons between Jewish and non Jewish experiences and how these intersected and diverged it revisits debates about cultural genocide through the separation of families and communities as well as contributing new perspectives on forced labour families and the Holocaust and Germans as war victims

Lessons and Legacies XV Erin McGlothlin, Avinoam Patt, 2024-05-15 The fifteenth volume in the Lessons Legacies series featuring multidisciplinary research in the Holocaust and Jewish cultural history on the theme of Global Perspectives and National Narratives The fourteen chapters included in this volume manifest three broad categories history literature and memory These chapters continue the recent trend in Holocaust Studies of a focus on local history integrating specific regional and national narratives into a more global approach to the event Newer studies have continued to incorporate what was once termed the periphery into a more global examination of the experiences of Jewish refugees in flight to Latin America Africa and the Soviet Union At the same time very specific local studies deepen our knowledge of the mechanics of genocide along with the experiences of refugees in flight and the subsequent dimensions of Holocaust memory and representation New research on Holocaust literature continues to unearth unexamined texts from the period of the war itself which can shed light on Jewish responses to persecution and strategies for survival The study of Holocaust testimonies continues to grapple with the challenge of language how to convey through the limits of human language the depths of barbarity to an audience that could never fully understand what they had not personally experienced Likewise literary studies continue to incorporate texts that were once considered outside the standard canon of Holocaust literature such as science fiction and children's literature The tension between local and global perspectives can also be seen quite clearly in what the volume's editors understand by the term memory studies or new approaches to research on museums and memorials The very specific nature of collective memory on the national level continues to be the site of the contested politics of memory A number of the chapters in this volume engage with the conflict of monuments and memorials museums attempts to resolve provenance issues questions around the ethics of Holocaust tourism and the inclusion of new technologies and digital survivors into the memorial landscape

Fleeing from the Fuhrer Charmian Brinson, William Kaczynski, 2015-01-05 The exodus of men women and children fleeing from the Nazi regime was one of the largest diasporas the world has ever seen It sparked an international refugee crisis that changed society and continues to shape our culture and community today The years between 1933 and 1945 the Nazi era in Germany and the war years 1939 to 1945 were a time of destruction upheaval and misery throughout Europe and beyond Displacement and death whether in war or civilian life became everyday experiences for young and old alike Families were torn apart by enforced emigration or deportation Parents were separated from their children husbands from wives brothers from sisters Interned in camps that spread across the globe from Shanghai to the United States of America to the Isle of Man they became strangers in a foreign land and often the only link they had to their former lives were letters exchanged with friends and family These scarce postal communications therefore assumed huge significance in the lives of both sender and receiver one that is hard to imagine today in the age of instant communication Fleeing from the Fuhrer is an unusual collection of correspondence that shows the incredible nature of this worldwide emigration and the indomitable spirit of these refugees Each postcard envelope and item of ephemera tells its own unique story and is reproduced in full colour making this a fascinating resource for anyone wanting to understand this poignant part of our international history

Refugees from Nazi-occupied Europe in British Overseas Territories Swen Steinberg, Anthony Grenville, 2020-04-28 Refugees from Nazi occupied Europe in British Overseas Territories focusses on exiles and forced migrants in British colonies and dominions in Africa or Asia and in Commonwealth countries The contributions deal with aspects such as legal status and internment rescue and relief identity and belonging the Central European encounter with the colonial and post colonial world memories and generations or knowledge transfers and cultural representations in writing painting architecture music and filmmaking The volume covers refugee destinations and the situation on arrival reorientation and very often further migration after the Second World War in Australia Canada India Kenya Palestine Shanghai Singapore South Africa and New Zealand Contributors are Rony Alfandary Gerrit Jan Berendse Albrecht Dömling Patrick Farges Brigitte
