Nowhere Land:

Nowhere Land Katherine Applegate, 2001-12 Since landing on this place far from home the Remnants have thought their new surroundings too strange to be true Now a freak discovery proves what they thought was a planet is really a ship and their environment is a computer generated facade When they destroy the computer's power node they discover that their real surroundings are the strangest of all Immigrant and Asylum Seekers Labour Market Integration upon Arrival:

NowHereLand Irina Isaakyan, Anna Triandafyllidou, Simone Baglioni, 2022-11-18 Through an inter subjective lens this open access book investigates the initial labour market integration experiences of these migrants refugees or asylum seekers who are characterised by different biographies and migration asylum trajectories The book gives voice to the migrants and seeks to highlight their own experiences and understandings of the labour market integration process in the first years of immigration It adopts a critical qualitative perspective but does not remain ethnographic The book rather refers the migrants own voice and experience to their own expert knowledge of the policy and socio economic context that is navigated Each chapter brings into dialogue the migrant's intersubjective experiences with the relevant policies and practices as well as with the relevant stakeholders whether local government national services civil society or migrant organisations The book concludes with relevant critical insights as to how labour market integration is lived on the ground and on what migrants do with labour market policies rather than on what labour market policies do to or for migrants The Beatles Illustrated man's quest for redemption through art and love Praise for Adrian Caesar's other books The White is an exceptionally rich and moving experience Michael McGirr Australian Book Review Caesar has done something remarkable It is compulsive reading Christopher Bantick on The White in The Canberra Times This imagined re-creation of the two most unforgettable Antarctic disasters tells brutal stories but manages to do so with great tenderness and grace Adrian Caesar's literary high wire act works wonderfully well adding a vivid humanity to landscapes scattered only with stiffly written memoirs and black ice cold memorials Simon Winchester on The White Adrian Caesar is an award winning novelist critic and poet
