Nuclear Landscapes:

Nuclear Landscapes Peter Goin,1992 The Tainted Desert Valerie L. Kuletz,2016-04-29 For decades nuclear testing in America s southwest was shrouded in secrecy with images gradually made public of mushroom clouds blooming over the desert Now another nuclear crisis looms over this region the storage of tens of thousands of tons of nuclear waste TaintedDesert maps the nuclear landscapes of the US inter desert southwest a land sacrificed to the Cold War arms race and nuclear energy policy Critical Landscapes Emily Eliza Scott,Kirsten J Swenson,2015-06-05 From Francis Al s and Ursula Biemann to Vivan Sundaram Allora Calzadilla and the Center for Urban Pedagogy some of the most compelling artists today are engaging with the politics of land use including the growth of the global economy climate change sustainability Occupy movements and the privatization of public space Their work pivots around a set of evolving questions In what ways is land formed over the course of geological time also contemporary and formed by the conditions of the present How might art contribute to the expansion of spatial and environmental justice Editors Emily Eliza Scott and Kirsten Swenson bring together a range of international voices and artworks to illuminate this critical mass of practices One of the first comprehensive treatments of land use in contemporary art Critical Landscapes skillfully surveys the stakes and concerns of recent land based practices outlining the art historical contexts methodological strategies and geopolitical phenomena This cross disciplinary collection is destined to be an essential reference not only within the fields of art and art history but also across those of cultural geography architecture and urban planning environmental history and landscape studies The Future of Nuclear Waste Rosemary Joyce,2020 In this book a contemporary archaeologist critically examines designs experts advising the US government suggested to mark nuclear waste sites and prevent their excavation thousands of years into the future to build either an artificial ruin or install a landscape scale artwork and explores why planners thought they would work The Routledge Companion to the American Landscape Chris W. Post,Alyson L. Greiner,Geoffrey L. Buckley,2023-03-31 The Routledge Companion to the American Landscape provides a comprehensive overview of the American landscape in a way fit for the twenty first century not only in its topical and regional scope but also in its methodological and disciplinary diversity Critically surveying the contemporary scholarship on the American landscape this companion brings together scholars from the social sciences and humanities who focus their work on understanding the polyphonic evolution of the United States landscape It simultaneously assesses the development of the US landscape as well as the scholarly thought that has driven innovation and continued research about that landscape Four broad sections focus on key areas of scholarship environmental landscapes social cultural and popular identities in the landscape political landscapes and urban economic landscapes A special essay American Landscapes Under Siege and accompanying short case studies call attention to the legacies and realities of race in the American landscape bridging the discussion of social and political landscapes This companion offers an invaluable and up to date guide for scholars and graduate students to current thinking across the range of disciplines which converge in the study of place including Geography Cultural Studies and History as well as the interdisciplinary fields of American Studies Environmental Studies and Planning Writing Landscape and Setting in the Anthropocene Philippa Holloway, Craig Jordan-Baker, 2024-05-31 This edited collection offers an in depth exploration of the role of landscape and place as literary settings It examines the multifaceted relationships between authors narrators and characters to their locales as well as broader considerations of the significance of the representation of landscape in a world deeply affected by human interventions Consisting of case studies of projects that engage with these questions as well as research examining the theoretical underpinnings of both creative practices processes and post textual analysis of published works this volume is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary in scope In the context of the climate crisis and a pandemic which has caused us to re evaluate the significance of landscape and the environment it responds to the need to engage current trends within the academy and in broader social debate about our relationship to the natural world Implementing Environmental and Resource Management Michael Schmidt, Vincent Onyango, Dmytro Palekhov, 2011-05-13 This book represents the collected works of Environmental and Resource Management ERM Alumni as well as young professionals and researches who are involved in the field of ERM The connecting theme of these works is the successful implementation of ERM in a wide range of issues including energy innovation and management climate change response and sustainable development aspects of resource management in developing countries This book aims to expose some of the research outputs of ERM Alumni and present perspectives and critical questions of ERM application The research results can provide empirical bases on which ERM study programmes and or working environments can be problematised in order to more effectively meet the objectives of ERM The intended audience of this volume is wide including potential and current ERM students who want to understand how ERM is being applied and teachers and researchers who want to understand the roles and interactions of ERM Alumni and their workplace Peter Goin and the Photography of Environmental Change Cheryll Glotfelty, Peter Goin, 2022-06-30 Peter Goin and the Photography of Environmental Change narrates the forty year quest of award winning and internationally exhibited contemporary photographer Peter Goin to document human altered landscapes across America and beyond It is a collaborative work between an artist and a literary critic a retrospective of an accomplished environmental photographer and an innovative education in visual reading Enduring howling wind pounding rain and blistering sun Goin bears witness to radioactive landscapes abandoned mines simulated swamps rechanneled rivers controlled burns overgrown ruins industrialized agriculture shrinking reservoirs feral spaces in the city architected wilderness sacred wastelands contested borderlands and more Based on more than seventy hours of taped interviews with the artist spanning over a decade trailblazing ecocritic Cheryll Glotfelty narrates the arc of Goin s career sharing excerpts from their conversations that reveal his brilliant mind and piquant personality while situating his work within the broader context of environmental thinkers This beautifully illustrated volume with 200 images in color and black and white showcasing Goin's work will be a fascinating and insightful read for upper level students academics and researchers in photography environmental history and culture landscape studies and environmental humanities

The SAGE Handbook of Historical Geography Mona Domosh, Michael Heffernan, Charles W. J. Withers, 2020-11-25 Historical geography is an active theoretically informed and vibrant field of scholarly work within modern geography with strong and constantly evolving connections with disciplines across the humanities and social sciences Across two volumes The SAGE Handbook of Historical Geography provides you with an international and cross disciplinary overview of the field presenting chapters that examine the history present condition and future potential of the discipline in relation to recent developments and research

Nature at War Thomas Robertson, Richard P. Tucker, Nicholas B. Breyfogle, Peter Mansoor, 2020-04-02 World War II was the largest and most destructive conflict in human history It was an existential struggle that pitted irreconcilable political systems and ideologies against one another across the globe in a decade of violence unlike any other There is little doubt today that the United States had to engage in the fighting especially after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7 1941 The conflict was in the words of historians Allan Millett and Williamson Murray a war to be won As the world's largest industrial power the United States put forth a supreme effort to produce the weapons munitions and military formations essential to achieving victory When the war finally ended the finale signaled by atomic mushroom clouds over Hiroshima and Nagasaki upwards of 60 million people had perished in the inferno Of course the human toll represented only part of the devastation global environments also suffered greatly The growth and devastation of the Second World War significantly changed American landscapes as well The war created or significantly expanded a number of industries put land to new uses spurred urbanization and left a legacy of pollution that would in time create a new term Superfund site
