Iain McCalman

Outback House Behind The Scenes Of The Abc Television Series:

Outback House Bernard Lynam,Ivo Burum,Jenny O'Meara,2005 In 2004 the ABC posted an advertisement asking people whether they wanted to take part in a social experiment an ABC TV eight part series along the same lines of such popular hits as The Edwardian Country House and The 1940s House This time people were invited to apply for positions on a working squatter s sheep station set in the 1860s Everyone involved would have to live dress eat and work exactly as they did then isolated for three months from the outside world The Outback House is the companion volume to the series looking behind the scenes and explaining the historical social and economic way of life of the time From descriptions of crutching sheep to wearing crinolines from making butter to treating body lice and all the social and farming dramas in between life in the Outback House is compelling and utterly fascinating reading

The Tube Has Spoken Julie Taddeo,2010-09-12 Featuring ordinary people celebrities game shows hidden cameras everyday situations and humorous or dramatic situations reality TV is one of the fastest growing and important popular culture trends of the past decade with roots reaching back to the days of radio The Tube Has Spoken provides an analysis of the growing phenomenon of reality TV its evolution as a genre and how it has been shaped by cultural history This collection of essays looks at a wide spectrum of shows airing from the 1950s to the present addressing some of the most popular programs including Alan Funt s Candid Camera Big Brother Wife Swap Kid Nation and The Biggest Loser It offers both a multidisciplinary approach and a cross cultural perspective considering Australian Canadian British and American programs In addition the book explores how popular culture shapes modern western values for example both An American Family and its British counterpart The Family showcase the decline of the nuclear family in response to materialistic pressures and the modern ethos of individualism This collection highlights how reality TV has altered the tastes and values of audiences in the twentieth and twenty first centuries It analyzes how reality TV programs reflect the tensions between the individual and the community the transformative power of technology the creation of the celebrity and the breakdown of public and private spheres

The Nation on Screen Enric Castelló,Alexander Dhoest,2020-07-24 But we can still rise now runs a line of Scotland s unofficial national anthem Flower of Scotland and be the nation again who defeated the English King Edward II in 1314 at the Battle of Bannockburn These short lines tell us much about the concept of the nation Firstly the pronoun of the nation is we Secondly nationhood remains aspirational for some while it is entirely taken for granted for others Thirdly nations often trace their origins back to an implausibly dim and distant past Finally it points to the fundamentally discursive nature of the nation the nation appears not as something which simply is but as something which can be called into existence through talk official documents official and unofficial national anthems ceremonies and parades monuments and statuary press coverage and increasingly television This book which arose out of a conference held in Tarragona in 2007 focuses on the complex discourses of the nation to be found in the television systems of twelve different countries examining how these circulate in fiction in news and documentary including re enactment formats and in entertainment programmes adverts and the coverage of large scale sporting events The nation which emerges is everywhere and nowhere talked about endlessly but never finally grasped repeatedly staged and re enacted but lacking a foundational script In short it is a site of struggle The stakes are high since the nation when mobilised is a force to be reckoned with and the on going attempts to define it are many varied and often highly creative This book details many such events from the high drama of war reporting to the self mocking irony of ten second commercial spots

Revisiting the Past in Museums and at Historic Sites Anca I. Lasc, Andrew McClellan, Anne Söll, 2021-11-01 Revisiting the Past in Museums and at Historic Sites demonstrates that museums and historic spaces are increasingly becoming backdrops for all sorts of appropriations and interventions that throw new light upon the objects they comprise and the pasts they reference Rooted in new scholarship that expands established notions of art installations museums period rooms and historic sites the book brings together contributions from scholars from intersecting disciplines Arguing that we are witnessing a paradigm shift concerning the place of historic spaces and museums in the contemporary imaginary the volume shows that such institutions are merging traditional scholarly activities tied to historical representation and inquiry with novel modes of display and interpretation drawing them closer to the world of entertainment and interactive consumption Case studies analyze how a range of interventions impact historic spaces and conceptions of the past they generate The book concludes that museums and historic sites are reinventing themselves in order to remain meaningful and to play a role in societies aspiring to be more inclusive and open to historical and cultural debate Revisiting the Past in Museums and at Historic Sites will be of interest to students and faculty who are engaged in the study of museums art history architectural and design history social and cultural history interior design visual culture and material culture

Encyclopedia of Television Shows, 1925 through 2010, 2d ed. Vincent Terrace, 2014-01-10 This fully updated and expanded edition covers over 10 200 programs making it the most comprehensive documentation of television programs ever published In addition to covering the standard network and cable entertainment genres the book also covers programs generally not covered elsewhere in print or even online including Internet series aired and unaired pilot films erotic series gay and lesbian series risqué cartoons and experimental programs from 1925 through 1945

Alternate History Kathleen Singles, 2013-10-14 While strictly speaking Alternate Histories are not Future Narratives their analysis can shed a clear light on why Future Narratives are so different from past narratives Trying to have it both ways most Alternate Histories subscribe to a conflicting set of beliefs concerning determinism and freedom of choice contingency and necessity For the very first time Alternate Histories are here discussed against the backdrop of their Other Future Narratives The volume contains in depth analyses of the classics of the genre such as Philip K Dick's The Man in the High Castle and Philip Roth's The Plot against America as well as less widely discussed manifestations of the genre such as Dieter K hn's N Christian Kracht's Ich werde hier sein im Sonnenschein und im Schatten and Quentin Tarantino's film Inglourious Basterds

The A to Z of Australian

Radio and Television Albert Moran, Chris Keating, 2009-08-04 Australians have become increasingly visible outside of the country as speakers and actors in radio and television their media moguls have frequently bought up foreign companies and people around the world have been able to enjoy such Australian productions as The Flying Doctors Neighbours and Kath and Kim The origins early development and later adaptations of radio and television show how Australia has gone from being a minor and rather parochial player to being a significant part of the international scene The A to Z of Australian Radio and Television provides essential facts and information concerning the Australian radio and television industry This is accomplished through the use of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on directors producers writers actors television and radio series and television and radio stations

Historical Reenactment Iain McCalman, 2010-01-20 Since the late 1700s new forms of visual entertainment have tried to simulate the details of nature reenactment has now become the most widely consumed form of popular history This book engages with the quest for definition and appropriate delimitation of reenactment as well as questions about the relationship between realism and affect

Making Animals Public Professor Gay Hawkins, Dr Ben Dibley, 2024-06-01 Making Animals Public television animality and political engagement focuses on the proliferation of animal content on television and how this has transformed how animals are known and encountered generating unique modes of televisual animality The book examines the multiplicity of public realities and knowledges that animals on TV have constituted from scientific objectivity to the unique Australian environment to controversial victims of gross exploitation Just as television has made animals public in very particular ways it has also made new publics that have learnt to be affected by them Thanks to extraordinary access to the ABC's Natural History and general archives the authors are able to investigate the dynamic relation between making animals public and making publics over time

Encyclopedia of Television Shows, 1925 Through 2007: F-L Vincent Terrace, 2009 This work represents decades of research and television's entire history While documentation regarding cast and personnel is now often found online descriptions of the shows from authoritative sources are still not widely available Terrace fills that gap with this work which covers more than 9 350 shows and constitutes the most comprehensive documentation of TV series ever published Provided by publisher
