Passarola Rising:

Passarola Rising Azhar Abidi, 2006-12-26 In the year 1731 Alexandre Lourenco watches as his brother Bartolomeu's airship the Passarola ascends from the ramparts of St Jorge's Castle in Lisbon. When the brothers board the ship they embark on a journey that will take them from the salons and bordellos of Enlightenment Paris to the desolate far reaches of the North Pole in search of scientific truth and knowledge. As they encounter such characters as the loquacious Voltaire and the irascible King Stanislaus of Poland and attempt to escape Russian enemy fire and the condemnation of Portugal's Cardinal Conti, Alexandre hopes to find his calling in life while his brother keeps his eyes on the Passarola's next horizon. A delightful picaresque tale filled with evocative period detail, Azhar Abidi's debut is not only a story of adventure and suspense but a thoughtful book on the nature of truth and a heartfelt portrait of the relationship between brothers. Passarola Rising

Azhar Abidi, 2006 The Penguin Book of Migration Literature Dohra Ahmad, 2019-09-17 Ahmad's introduction is fiery and charismatic. This book encompasses the diversity of experience with beautiful variations and stories that bicker back and forth. Parul Sehgal, The New York Times. The first global anthology of migration literature featuring works by Mohsin Hamid, Zadie Smith, Marjane Satrapi, Salman Rushdie, and Warsan Shire, with a foreword by Edwidge Danticat, author of Everything Inside. A Penguin Classic. Every year three to four million people move to a new country. From war refugees to corporate expats, migrants constantly reshape their places of origin and arrival. This selection of works collected together for the first time brings together the most compelling literary depictions of migration. Organized in four parts: Departures, Arrivals, Generations, and Returns. The Penguin Book of Migration Literature conveys the intricacy of worldwide migration patterns, the diversity of immigrant experiences, and the commonalities among many of those diverse experiences. Ranging widely across the eighteenth through twenty-first centuries across every continent of the earth and across multiple literary genres, the anthology gives readers an understanding of our rapidly changing world through the eyes of those at the center of that change. With thirty carefully selected poems, short stories, and excerpts spanning three hundred years and twenty-five countries, the collection brings together luminaries, emerging writers, and others who have earned a wide following in their home countries but have been less recognized in the Anglophone world. Editor of the volume, Dohra Ahmad, provides a contextual introduction, notes, and suggestions for further exploration. Tale of Two Lions Roberto Ransom, 2007. From a bold new voice in Spanish fiction comes a sly and endearing novel, a mischievous story of two lions on two different continents, which Ignacio Padilla has declared the best Mexican literary work I have read in recent years. New Soundings in Postcolonial Writing Janet Wilson, Chris Ringrose, 2016-08-29 New Soundings in Postcolonial Writing is a collection of critical and creative writing in honour of the postcolonial critic, editor, and anthologist Bruce King.
