Sexuality, Women, and Tourism Susan Frohlick, 2013. This book is the first to focus on why and how foreign Western women engage in cross border sexual and intimate relations as tourists travelling or temporarily dwelling in a Central American country. The book combines descriptions of women's travels and sexual relations across racial and class boundaries with feminism postcolonial theory and poststructuralist theories of gender and sexuality to show how tourism as a wide range and set of desires serves as a central shaping force in the formation of women's sexual subjectivities in contemporary life in postindustrial capitalism. In doing so it offers new insights into how tourist women express heterosexuality shaped by gender race class and identities.

Mucho Macho Chris Girman, 2013-12-16. Quality research uniquely enhanced by the author's personal experience. The Dominican T guere and Hegemonic Masculinities takes a specific look at a very peculiar form of hegemonic masculinity relying on cunning more than strength to come out on top that is indigenous to the Dominican Republic This chapter also tells the stories of five of the author's sexual encounters in that nation and discusses the tiguere style of masculine performance Desire in a Costa Rican Prison analyzes the ways in which desire power and pleasure are constituted in the Latin American prison environment Historical Representations of Same Sex Desire examines two short stories El Matadero Esteban Echeverria and Comienza el Desfile Reinaldo Arenas which highlight male eroticism as important concepts within discourses on national identity Both stories conceptualize same sex desire within specific historical moments and demonstrate how male homo sexuality emerges and represents itself not in contrast to the dominant discourse but within that discourse itself Familiar Familial Voices Latino Men Speak Out documents the voices of gay identified Latino men living in Central Texas men who have come to love other Latin Black and Anglo men in the context of very full lives These men reveal their conceptions of identity race performance resistance family pleasure desire masculinity silence and place Performing Matter's Masculinity the Male Body and the Evocation of the non real defies the notion that written representations can capture the lived realities of
