Radhakrishnan Sarvepalli Gopal,1989 The Study of Hinduism Arvind Sharma,2003 In this text leading scholars from around the world take stock of two centuries of international intellectual investment in Hinduism Since the early 19th century when the scholarly investigation of Hinduism began to take shape as a modern academic discipline

Hindu studies has evolved from its concentration on description and analysis to an emphasis on understanding Hindu traditions in the context of the religion's own values, concepts and history. Offering an assessment of the current state of Hindu studies, the contributors to this volume identify past achievements and chart the course for what remains to be accomplished in the field. Routledge Handbook of the History of Colonialism in South Asia Harald Fischer-Tiné, Maria Framke, 2021-09-01 The Routledge Handbook of the History of Colonialism in South Asia provides a comprehensive overview of the historiographical specialisation and sophistication of the history of colonialism in South Asia. It explores the classic works of earlier generations of historians and offers an introduction to the rapid and multifaceted development of historical research on colonial South Asia since the 1990s. Covering economic history, political history and social history and offering insights from other disciplines and turns within the mainstream of history, the handbook is structured in six parts: Overarching Themes and Debates; The World of Economy and Labour; Creating and Keeping Order; Science, Race, Religion, Law and Education; Environment and Space; Culture, Media and the Everyday. Colonial South Asia in the World. The editors have assembled a group of leading international scholars of South Asian history and related disciplines to introduce a broad readership into the respective subfields and research topics. Designed to serve as a comprehensive and nuanced yet readable introduction to the vast field of the history of colonialism in the Indian subcontinent, the handbook will be of interest to researchers and students in the fields of South Asian history, imperial and colonial history and global and world history.
