On 16 June 2021 the National Heritage Board announced the successful conclusion of the archaeological excavation of two shipwrecks at the eastern approach to Singapore This maritime archaeology excavation the largest in Singapore s waters was conducted by the Archaeology Unit of the ISEAS Yusof Ishak Institute over a six year period This book documents these two shipwrecks complemented by essays on Singapore s maritime history from Temasek in the fourteenth century through the emergence of country trade in the late eighteenth century These two shipwrecks challenge us to rethink Singapore s history as globally connected determined by what was happening on the seas in and around the island Brief History of

Singapore and Malaysia Christopher Hale,2023-03-21 The fascinating account of two former British colonies with a shared past but vastly different identities today Singapore and Malaysia sit astride the sea lanes linking East with West vital choke points in the world s commerce Since ancient times ports along the Silk Road of the Sea were populated by peoples from around the globe who came here to trade and live carried by the steady flow of goods and the ever present monsoon winds Author Christopher Hale recounts many fascinating histories of this region including The ancient international trade in spices and the seven voyages to the southern seas of the Chinese eunuch Admiral Zheng He in the 15th century The rise of Islamic kingdoms along rivers bordering the Straits of Malacca and the conquest of Malacca one of the world s largest cities by a few hundred Portuguese marauders in 1511 The saga of Sir Stamford Raffles credited with founding Singapore and the development of tin mines and vast rubber and oil palm plantations on the Malay Peninsula The disastrous fall of Fortress Singapore to the Japanese in World War II after only three weeks of fighting the worst British military defeat in history The wildly successful film Crazy Rich Asians set in Singapore the highest grossing romantic comedy of the decade A Brief History of Singapore and Malaysia tells these and many other compelling stories about the people and events which have shaped these nations as they developed into modern powerhouses of international trade and tourism A History of Singapore,

1819-1988 Constance Mary Turnbull,1989 This book traces the development of Singapore from 1819 when the English East India Company established a trading settlement on the island until 1985 which ended Singapore s first twenty years as an independent nation Based on research into government records newspapers private papers and secondary works it provides the first full scale history of modern Singapore Constructing Singapore Michael D. Barr,Zlatko Skrbiš,2008

Constructing Singapore studies Singaporean nation building by focusing on two processes elite formation and elite selection It gives primary attention to the role that ethno racial ascription plays in these processes but also considers the input of personal connections personal power class and gender It is a study of the progress of Singapore s state sponsored nation building project to its current state whereby a Singaporean version of Chinese ethno nationalism has overwhelmed the discourse on national and Singaporean identity Based upon archival research and formal interviews this study unpacks the culture of elite governance in Lee Hsien Loong's Singapore today

The Avatar of 1786: Decolonizing the Penang

Story Ahmad Murad Merican, 2023-10-11 There must be a closure to the history of Pulau Pinang and Kedah There was no 1786 treaty no agreement no document no signatories The narrative continues independent of each other representing an uncomfortable conscience glancing at each as two separate polities of Penang and Kedah socially and intellectually structured by the year 1786 This book makes a strange revisit to pretension of a fact event And it counters the terra nullius doctrine It also establishes that the lex loci was the Adat Temenggong customary law modified by the Qanun laws of Kedah Malay collective memory maintains that Pulau Pinang is integral to the Kedah Sultanate The island has law order and society before the presence of the Europeans not a band of natives and fishermen as stereotyped by the colonial narrative even in the colonial courts The Malays in Pulau Pinang in recent decades have become beggars to their own history This book contests that history through moral and legal arguments as well as raising the themes and issues of representation and redemption

Asianism and the Politics of Regional Consciousness in Singapore Leong Yew, 2013-11-20 Over the last two decades Singapore has undergone a substantial degree of Asianization Apart from participating in the Asian values debate of the 1990s re visioning itself as New Asia and a global Asian hub and establishing Asian identities for the commodities it consumes and produces Singapore has also repurposed its modernity cultures and ethos along similar regionalist precepts However even in recent times Singapore continues to vacillate ambivalently between identifying with and differentiating itself from Asia Responding to the challenges Singapore faces in coming to terms with its Asian identity this book examines the complex cultural social and political underpinnings that have shaped Singapore s mainstream discourse on Asia Indeed it argues that its legacy as a colonial port city the exigencies of managing the post independence nation state and the larger forces of imperialism and capitalism all contribute to its politics of Asianism Taking a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach that spans history cultural studies postcolonialism and cultural geography Leong Yew reveals how Asia has been used to narrate Singapore s beginnings revalidate Singaporean ethnic culture and to consolidate its practices of consumption and commodification This book will be welcomed by students and scholars working across a range of fields including Asian culture and society Asian politics cultural theory and postcolonial studies
