Over the past three decades, the writings of Ragnar Rommetveit have had a major impact on scholars from several disciplines, as well as continents. For many of us, his writings have been the source of continuing inspiration, and we return to them again and again, each time to find yet one more layer of meaning and insight.

Instead of being a facile and prolific writer, Rommetveit has always been painstaking and meticulous in producing his papers, several of which have never been published and some of which have been destroyed because they did not live up to the standards he set for himself. Modesty has always made him view his efforts as capable of yielding only partial success and as being the source of more questions than answers. While the contributors to this special issue of Mind, Culture, and Activity may agree with the latter, we take this to be an accomplishment rather than a shortcoming. The fact that we have chosen to revisit Rommetveit's ideas once again reflects the admiration we have in theoretical focus from experimentation to field observation from monologue to dialogue and from the written to the spoken. They invoke four theoretical principles: intersubjectivity, perspectivity, open endedness, and verbal integrity. Their analyses of historical and original research raise significant questions about the relationship between spoken and written discourse, particularly with regard to transcription and punctuation. With emphasis on political discourse, media interviews, and dramatic performance, the authors review both familiar and unexplored characteristics of spontaneous spoken communication, including:

1. The speaker's use of prosody
2. The functions of interjections
3. What fillers do for a living
4. Turn taking: Smooth and otherwise
5. Laughter, applause, and booing from individual listener to collective audience
6. Pauses, silence, and the art of listening

The paradigm shift proposed in Communicating with One Another will interest and provoke readers concerned about communicative language use, including psycholinguists, sociolinguists, and anthropological linguists. The Semiotic Sphere Thomas A. Sebeok, Jean Umiker-Sebeok, 2012-12-06

Although semiotics has in one guise or another flourished uninterruptedly since pre-Socratic times in the West, and important semiotic themes have emerged and developed independently in both the Brahmanic and Buddhist traditions, semiotics as an organized undertaking began to take form only in the 1960s. Workshops materialized with a perhaps surprising spontaneity over much of Europe, Eastern and Western, and in North America. Thereafter, others quickly surfaced almost everywhere over the literate globe. Different places strategically allied themselves with different legacies, but all had a common thrust: to aim at a general theory of signs by way of a description of different sign systems, their comparative analysis, and their classification. More or less permanent confederations were forged with the most diverse academic disciplines, and amazingly varied frameworks were devised, suited to the needs of the times and the sites, to carry the work of consolidation forward. Bit by bit, mutually supportive international networks were put together. Today, it can truly be asserted that semiotics has become a global enterprise. This, of course, is far from saying that the map is uniform, or even that world-wide homogeneity is in the least desirable. While our conjoint ultimate goal remains steadily in focus, the multiplicity of avenues available for its realization is inherent in the adventure of the search itself.

Dialogical Approaches and Tensions in Learning and Development Nathalie Muller-Mirza, Marcelo Dos Santos Mamed, 2021-10-26

The book pursues the goal of exploring and strengthening a dialogical approach of communication and cognition. It brings together contributions from world-leading researchers related to the dialogical approach in education and psychology. It presents, among others, the place of language and materiality in the development of communication and thinking, as well as the role of the methods in the relationship between researchers and participants. This leads to an innovative definition of dialogicality and how a dialogical approach can provide heuristic, conceptual, and methodological tools to better understand how people think, communicate, and learn in a complex world. The authors hereby develop an epistemological framework inspired by scholars such as Mikhail Bakhtin, Lev Vygotsky, and Herbert Mead, under the assumption that dialogue or dialogicality, and therefore the presence of the other, is fundamentally entangled into the human thinking and development This book contributes to the understanding of human communication cognition and mind and participates in a scientific dialogue which helps to advance future research It includes theoretical and empirical chapters and presents innovative methods of inquiry which makes it a useful tool for both teaching and research Anreden, Erwidern, Verstehen Marie-Cécile Bertau, 2011-01-01 Anreden Erwidern Verstehen ist der Entwurf einer Psycholinguistik die Sprache nicht als Objekt kognitiver Verarbeitung ansieht sondern als Mittel des Auskommens mit dem Anderen dem Selbst und der Welt Sprache ist damit situiert in der Lebenstätigkeit von aufeinander bezogenen gesellschaftlichen Individuen weder von ihnen noch von ihrer Tätigkeit ablosbar Diese Auffassung von Sprache wird zunächst in einer historischen Studie konstruiert welche der Sprachphilosophie Humboldts und ihre Rezeption durch die russische und dann sowjetische Sprachwissenschaft nachzeichnet Potebnja Jakubinskij Die Dialogizität als Struktur notwendiger Anrede und Erwiderung ist das zentrale Konzept das in Osteuropa aufgenommen und weiterentwickelt wird Diese spezifische Weise Sprache zu denken und zu erforschen bildet nicht zuletzt den Kontext für die sprachpsychologischen Forschungen Vygotskijs sie ist Bezug für seine Überlegungen zur psychischen sprachlichen Tätigkeit Dies findet seinen Niederschlag etwa im Konzept des inneren Sprechens ein Echo der Humboldt'schen inneren Form Humboldt'sche Sprachphilosophie dialogische Sprachwissenschaft und Sprachphilosophie mit Bachtin und Volosinov Sprachpsychologie in der Perspektive gesellschaftlicher Tätigkeit mit Vygotskij Auf dieser Grundlage wird im zweiten Teil die Psycholinguistik der Alterität theoretisch ausformuliert Unter Bezugnahme auf Bühlers Sprachtheorie werden im ersten Konstruktionsmoment sieben Leitsätze aufgestellt Im zweiten Konstruktionsmoment werden die Elemente im engeren Sinn entfaltet Es sind jene Begriffe die sich aus dem ersten Konstruktionsmoment als zentrale Themen erwiesen haben Adressivität und Positionierung Form Wiederholung und Zeitlichkeit Stimme Diese Elemente konkretisieren die theoretische Sprachansicht ihre Entfaltung stützt sich wesentlich auf empirische Forschungen und der Entwicklungspsychologie Identitätspsychologie Dialogenanalyse und Gesprächsforschung Die Psycholinguistik der Alterität versteht sich als Plädoyer für einen Perspektivenwechsel in den Humanwissenschaften Von dem ichigen Subjekt das unserer abendlichen Konvention entspricht hin zu einem relationalen Selbst für das Alterität bestimmend ist Von einem isolierten und a-historischen Subjekt zu einem bezogenen und gerichteten Selbst das mit Anderen in gemeinsamen Zeiten und Rhythmen lebt Diese alternative Vorstellung wird als vielversprechende Möglichkeit angesehen die komplexen Dynamiken menschlichen Lebens zu erforschen und zu verstehen Publisher's description back cover Origin and Development of Scientific Psychology in Different Parts of the World Hiroshi Imada, 2002 When and under what influences did scientific psychology originate in different parts of the world What are the intra and international regional sources of influence that have affected its development into the present form These questions were applied to three regions and three countries which were as follows the names of the authors in charge are in parentheses Latin American countries Juan Jose Sanchez Soza Mexico Scandinavian countries Ingvar Lundberg Sweden German speaking
