Canadian Books in Print ,1998 Bibliographie D'histoire Ontarienne, 1976-1986 Gaétan Gervais,Gwenda Hallsworth,Ashley Thomson,1989 Canadiana ,1991 Viola Desmond's Canada Graham Reynolds,2016-03-30T00:00:00Z
In 1946 Viola Desmond was wrongfully arrested for sitting in a whites only section of a movie theatre in New Glasgow Nova Scotia In 2010 the Nova Scotia Government recognized this gross miscarriage of justice and posthumously granted her a free pardon Most Canadians are aware of Rosa Parks who refused to give up her seat on a racially segregated bus in Alabama but Viola Desmond s act of resistance occurred nine years earlier However many Canadians are still unaware of Desmond s story or that racial segregation existed throughout many parts of Canada during most of the twentieth century On the subject of race Canadians seem to exhibit a form of collective amnesia Viola Desmond s Canada is a groundbreaking book that provides a concise overview of the narrative of the Black experience in Canada Reynolds traces this narrative from slavery under French and British rule in the eighteenth century to the practice of racial segregation and the fight for racial equality in the twentieth century Included are personal recollections by Wanda Robson Viola Desmond s youngest sister together with important but previously unpublished documents and other primary sources in the history of Blacks in Canada NEW Teaching Guide Available Here CRM ,1997 Canadian Railway and Marine World ,1927 Documentary Television in Canada David Hogarth,2002-04-22 He concludes with a discussion of the recent international success of documentary television as one of Canada s leading cultural exports examining the effects of globalization and looking forward to the future of this genre While principally an overview of the last half century and an analysis of current conditions Documentary Television in Canada also includes detailed analysis of selected programs such as the For the Record series on schizophrenia Warrendale by Allan King Images of Canada by Vincent Tovell The Valour and The Horror episode Death by Moonlight and Shooting Indians by Ali Kazimi among others Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd,2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies Canada's Holy Grail Jordan B. Goldstein,2021-11-01 In 1892 Lord Frederick Arthur Stanley donated the Dominion Hockey Challenge Cup later known as the Stanley Cup to crown the first Canadian hockey champions Canada s Holy Grail documents Lord Stanley s personal politics his desire to affect Canadian nationality and unity and the larger transformations in Anglo liberal political thought at the time This book posits that the Stanley Cup fit directly within Anglo American traditions of using sport to promote ideas of the national and the donation of the cup occurred at a moment in history when Canadian nationalists needed identifying symbols Jordan B Goldstein asserts that only with a transformation in Anglo liberal thought could the state legitimately act through culture to affect national identity Drawing on primary source documentation from Lord Stanley s archives as well as statements by politicians and hockey enthusiasts Canada s Holy Grail integrates political thought into the realm of sport history through the discussion of a championship trophy that still stands as one of the most well known and recognized Canadian national symbols

Immigration and Settlement, 1870-1939 Gregory P. Marchildon, 2009 Immigration and Settlement 1870 1939 includes twenty articles organized under the following topics the Opening of the Prairie West First Nations and the Policy of Containment Patterns of Settlement and Ethnic Relations and Identity in the New West The second volume in the History of the Prairie West Series Immigration and Settlement includes chapters on early immigration patterns including transportation routes and ethnic blocks as well as the policy of containing First Nations on reserves Other chapters grapple with the various identities preferences and prejudices of settlers and their complex relationships with each other as well as the larger polity

Making Spaces through Infrastructure Marian Burchardt, Dirk Laak, 2023-07-04 Infrastructures are fundamental means through which societies create spaces but little is known about the precise ways in which this occurs How have infrastructures animated certain understandings of space How do infrastructures stabilize or undermine the spatial formats in which we live which shape our everyday practices and which regulate access to services and resources And conversely how do spaces frame the ways infrastructural provision is organized How do existing spaces shape infrastructural development and the scope and forms of access to vital services such as transport and water In this volume historians and sociologists draw on a range of fascinating case studies and provide compelling answers to these questions Exploring among others the provision of irrigation water in nineteenth century Los Angeles the invention of airport transit zones and the infrastructural practices of homeless people in Berlin the book demonstrates how the making of spaces through infrastructure is deeply political Intent on revealing uneven geographies of provision and hierarchies of access the contributors highlight how infrastructures are products of global entanglements

Rails Across the Prairies Ron Brown, 2012-06-30 Follow the evolution of the rail legacy of the Canadian Prairies from the arrival of the first engine on a barge to today s realities Rails Across the Prairies traces the evolution of Canada s rail network including the appearance of the first steam engine on the back of a barge The book looks at the arrival of European settlers before the railway and examines how they coped by using ferry services on the Assiniboine and North Saskatchewan Rivers The work then follows the building of the railways the rivalries of their owners and the unusual irrigation works of Canadian Pacific Railway The towns were nearly all the creation of the railways from their layout to their often unusual names Eventually the rail lines declined though many are experiencing a limited revival Learn what the heritage lover can still see of the Prairies railway legacy including existing rail operations and the stories the railways brought with them Many landmarks lie vacant including ghost towns and elevators while many others survive as museums or interpretative sites

The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole Canadian Book

Review Annual , 2007 The World Dream Amy Worth, 2018-05-01 The book The World Dream has the idea of national dream for every country which finally comes as the World Dream The world dream has been briefly focused as the most important requirement for our future collective world Older Canadians on the Move The Expert Panel on the

Transportation Needs of an Aging Population, 2017-12-14 Older Canadians on the Move is a comprehensive high quality expert panel study that examines all modes of transportation including but not limited to those under federal jurisdiction such as intercity buses ferries trains and planes The report is Canadian specific taking into account the country's unique geography vast size low population density and jurisdictional division of transportation control Unlike other reports that focus on disability this report examines the transportation needs that accompany normal changes associated with aging and focuses on older adults in general rather than specific chronological ages or disabilities Importantly the Panel used a door through door approach when examining the issues focusing on integrated seamless movement across the transportation network that would benefit everyone regardless of background age or ability Asian American Literature Keith

Lawrence, 2021-08-25 Asian American Literature An Encyclopedia for Students is an invaluable resource for students curious to know more about Asian North American writers texts and the issues and drives that motivate their writing This volume collects in one place a breadth of information about Asian American literary and cultural history as well as the authors and texts that best define it. A dozen contextual essays introduce fundamental elements or subcategories of Asian American literature expanding on social and literary concerns or tensions that are familiar and relevant. Essays include the origins and development of the term Asian American, overviews of Asian American and Asian Canadian social and literary histories, essays on Asian American identity, gender issues and sexuality, and discussions of Asian American rhetoric and children's literature. More than 120 alphabetical entries round out the volume and cover important Asian North American authors. Historical information is presented in clear and engaging ways, and author entries emphasize biographical or textual details that are significant to contemporary young adults. Special attention has been given to pioneering authors from the late 19th century through the early 1970s and to influential or well-known contemporary authors, especially those likely to be studied in high school or university classrooms.

Historical Atlas of Canada: The land transformed, 1800-1891 Geoffrey J.

Matthews, Don Measner, 1987-01-01 Uses maps to illustrate the development of Canada from the last ice sheet to the end of the eighteenth century. International Books in Print, 1991.

Settling and Unsettling Memories Nicole Neatby, Peter Hodgins, 2012-01-01 Settling and Unsettling Memories analyses the ways in which Canadians over the past century have narrated the story of their past in books, films, works of art, commemorative ceremonies, and online. This cohesive collection introduces readers to overarching themes of Canadian memory studies and brings them up to date on the latest advances in the field. With increasing debates surrounding how societies should publicly commemorate events and people, Settling and Unsettling Memories helps readers appreciate the challenges inherent in presenting the past. Prominent and emerging scholars explore the ways in which Canadian memory has been put into action across a variety of communities, regions, and time periods. Through high-quality essays touching on the central questions of historical consciousness and collective memory, this collection makes a significant contribution to a rapidly growing field.
