THIS volume contains the continuation and completion of Mr. Farrer's fascinating account (begun in "On the Eaves of the World") of his adventurous journey in Western China in search of new species of Alpine plants. His pages are by no means designed exclusively for the botanist, but are brought to the heart of the general public, and form a running top account of the author's diversified experiences of Chinese travels, in which his remarkable gift for personal of Chinese life and character finds ample scope.
