Storytimes for Children Stephanie G. Bauman, 2010-11-10 This text presents a compilation of the best of ideas from a group of library science graduate students providing creative and engaging programs geared especially for children ages 0-12. What are the concepts, activities, and topics that will hold the attention of today's children? And what are the best ways to provide a valuable learning experience while they're having fun and being entertained? Many of the most original, creative, and wildly effective ideas in storytime are contained in Storytimes for Children, a collection of fresh and vibrant programs created to be relevant, interesting, and fun for today's youngest generations. This collection of themed storytimes includes suggestions for opening and closing sessions, crafts, and activities, songs, poems, fingerplays, and movements, as well as the accompanying literature. Several of the included storytimes comprise a series of programs allowing for related activities that build upon each other. The text is organized into six chapters, each prefaced by an introduction that clarifies the strengths of the programs within. Each chapter covers a highly targeted age range to give practitioners the ability to easily choose the most appropriate storytimes for any given audience.

What Now, Tilda B? Kathryn Lomer, 2011-04. Only a day ago things were normal. As normal as this year gets anyway. Tilda Braint is nearly sixteen, restless, and having trouble figuring out what on earth she's supposed to do next. Living in a small coastal town doesn't help either. When two seals land in the middle of Tilda's life, they turn it upside down. They're a long way from home and may well be lost. For Tilda, the seals may turn out to be in exactly the right place at exactly the right time. A novel about finding yourself, your friends, and your future.

A to Zoo Rebecca L. Thomas, 2018-06-21. Whether used for thematic story times, program and curriculum planning, readers advisory, or collection development, this updated edition of the well-known companion makes finding the right picture books for your library a breeze. Generations of savvy librarians and educators have relied on this detailed subject guide to children's picture books for all aspects of children's services, and this new edition does not disappoint. Covering more than 18,000 books published through 2017, it empowers users to identify current and classic titles on topics ranging from apples to zebras. Organized simply with a subject guide that categorizes subjects by theme and topic and subject headings arranged alphabetically, this reference applies more than 1,200 intuitive, as opposed to formal catalog subject terms, to children's picture books, making it both a comprehensive and user-friendly resource that is accessible to parents and teachers as well as librarians. It can be used to identify titles to fill in gaps in library collections, to find books on particular topics for young readers, to help teachers locate titles to support lessons, or to design thematic programs and story times. Title and illustrator indexes, in addition to a bibliographic guide arranged alphabetically by author name, further extend access to titles.

A Dream So Big Steve Peifer, Gregg Lewis, 2013-03-19. A Dream So Big is the story of Steve Peifer, a corporate manager who once oversaw 9,000 computer software consultants, who today helps provide daily lunches for over 20,000 Kenyan school children in thirty-five national public schools and maintains solar-powered computer labs at twenty rural African schools. Steve and his wife Nancy were enjoying a successful management career with one of America's high-tech corporate giants during the dot-com boom of the 1990s when, in 1997, he and his wife Nancy discovered they were pregnant with their third child Tragically doctors said a chromosomal condition left their baby incompatible with life The Peifers only spent 8 days with baby Stephen before he died Seeking to flee the pain Steve and Nancy began a pilgrimage that thrust them into a third world setting where daily life was often defined by tragedy drought disease poverty hunger and death They didn't arrive in the service of any divine calling but the truth of their surroundings spoke to their troubled hearts A short term 12 month mission assignment as dorm parents for a Kenyan boarding school turned this ordinary man into the most unlikely internationally recognized hero and his story will inspire you to pursue similar lives of service St. Nicholas Mary Mapes Dodge, 1925
