

The illustration on the book cover depicts a Roman military camp or fort in a hilly, wooded landscape. In the foreground, a stone wall with crenellations runs across the bottom left. Two Roman soldiers in traditional tunics and helmets stand on the wall, looking towards the interior. Below them, a Roman chariot with two horses is partially visible. In the middle ground, a dirt road leads from the wall towards a small, simple wooden building. A group of people, including soldiers and civilians, are walking along this path. To the left of the path, there are several small, round, earthen huts or dwellings. The background features rolling hills and a range of mountains under a pale, overcast sky. The overall style is that of a historical painting or a detailed woodcut.

Presenting the Romans Nigel Mills, 2013 Explores the issues and the use of best practice interpretation principles in bringing the Roman world to life for visitors and educational users Issues in the public presentation and interpretation of the archaeology of Hadrian's Wall and other frontiers of the Roman Empire are explored and addressed here A central theme is the need for interpretation to be people focussed and for visitors to be engaged through narratives and approaches which help them connect with figures in the past daily life relationships craft skills communications resonances with modern frontiers and modern issues all provide means of helping an audience to connect delivering a greater understanding better visitor experiences increased visiting and spend and an enhanced awareness of the need to protect and conserve our heritage Topics covered include re enactment virtual and physical reconstruction multi media smartphones interpretation planning and design while new evidence from audience research is also presented to show how visitors respond to different strategies of engagement Nigel Mills is Director World Heritage and Access The Hadrian's Wall Trust Contributors Genevieve Adkins M C Bishop Lucie Branczik David J Breeze Mike Corbishley Jim Devine Erik Dobat Matthias Flück Christof Fliegel Snezana Golubovic Susan Greaney Tom Hazenberg Don Henson Richard Hingley Nicky Holmes Martin Kemkes Miomir Korac Michaela Kronberger Nigel Mills Jürgen Obmann Tim Padley John Scott R Michael Spearman Jürgen Trumm Sandra Walkshofer Christopher Young English Heritage Book of Roman Towns in Britain Guy De la Bédoyère, 1992-01-01 The towns of Roman Britain were something entirely new to the island and its population Before the coming of the Romans the tribes had had gathering places but Britain was in general an agricultural society The Romans introduced towns as an essential aid to enforcing their government over the island Some were new foundations some grew up around forts some were adapted from tribal centers and a few emerged around roads and religious centers This book traces the process of urban development from the initial stages marked by the Boudican revolt of 60 A D followed by the flourishing of towns as centers for trade and industry to their decline in the fifth century Contents Foreword Introduction Settlement in pre Roman Britain Conquest and Colonization 43-61 Reconstruction and the Growth of Towns 61-200 Insecurity and Urban Decline 200-350 Trade Industry and Urban Economies Religion in Towns The Collapse of Roman Towns Appendix Inscriptions from Towns Further Reading Where to Visit Roman Towns in Britain Index Recent Archaeological Excavations in Britain R.L.S. Bruce-Mitford, 2014-10-24 Originally published in 1956 this collection features chapters by well known archaeologists on various archaeological sites explored in the previous decade as examples of the techniques being used and finds being made

Mostly from the lowland zone of Britain the chapters nonetheless offer a spread of location and site types while the periods being investigated range from prehistoric to Romano British to later fields This detailed work exemplifies the steady progress of study in archaeology and a final chapter on air reconnaissance deals with one of the most revolutionary additions to archaeology in the post war period Contributors include J G D Clark R Rainbird Clarke Sir Mortimer Wheeler I A Richmond G W Meates W F Grimes C W Phillips J R C Hamilton Brian Hope Taylor J G Hurst J K S St Joseph

Age of Tyrants Christopher A. Snyder, 2010-11-01 By the waning of Roman rule Britain was called a province fertile with tyrants Christopher Snyder's history of Britain during the two centuries after Rome's withdrawal reveals a hybrid society of Celtic Roman and Christian elements and documents the transition from magisterial to monarchical power An appendix explores the Arthur and Merlin myths 30 illustrations

Romans and Their Origins Chris Webster, 1993 Each pack contains 10 large laminated photographs a postcard sized copy of each print a poster and a teacher's guide with background information lesson plans and reproducible worksheets

Lived Spaces in Late Antiquity Carlos Machado, Rowan Munnery, Rebecca Sweetman, 2024-04-30 This volume considers lived space as a scholarly approach to the past showing how spatial approaches can present innovative views of the world of Late Antiquity integrating social economic and cultural developments and putting centre stage this fundamental dimension of social life Bringing together an international group of scholars working on areas as diverse as Britain the Iberian Peninsula Jordan and the Horn of Africa this book includes burgeoning fields of study such as lived spaces in the context of ships and seafaring during this period Chapters investigate the history function and use of different spaces in their own right and identify the social and historical logic presiding over continuity and or change They also explore the fluidity of lived space in both its physical and conceptual dimensions analysing issues like agency and intentionality as well as meaning and social relations Space is the fundamental dimension of social life the arena where it unfolds and the stage where social values and hierarchies are represented analysis of space allows us to understand history through different means of shaping occupying and controlling space Considering Late Antiquity through a spatial perspective offers a complex and stimulating picture of this pivotal period and this volume provides avenues for the development of further research and discussion in this area Lived Spaces in Late Antiquity is a fascinating resource for students and scholars interested in space and spatiality in the late antique world as well as archaeology classical studies and late antique studies more generally

Archaeology's Visual Culture Roger Balm, 2015-12-14 Archaeology's Visual Culture explores archaeology through the lens of visual culture theory The insistent visuality of archaeology is a key stimulus for the imaginative and creative interpretation of our encounters with the past Balm investigates the nature of this projection of the visual revealing an embedded subjectivity in the imagery of archaeology and acknowledging the multiplicity of meanings that cohere around artifacts archaeological sites and museum displays Using a wide range of case studies the book highlights how archaeologists can view objects and the consequences that ensue from these ways of seeing Throughout the book Balm considers the potential for documentary images and visual material held in archives to perform cultural work within and between groups of specialists With primary sources ranging from the mid nineteenth to the early twenty first century this volume also maps the intellectual and social connections between archaeologists and their peers Geographical settings include Britain Cyprus Mesoamerica the Middle East and the United States and the sites of visual encounter are no less diverse ranging from excavation reports in salvage archaeology to instrumentally derived data sets and remote sensing imagery By forensically examining selected visual records from published accounts and archival sources enduring tropes of representation become apparent that transcend issues of style and reflect fundamental visual sensibilities within the discipline of archaeology

Life-writing in the History of Archaeology Gabriel Moshenska, Clare Lewis, 2023-07-10 Life writing is a vital part of the history of archaeology and a growing field of scholarship within the discipline The lives of archaeologists are entangled with histories of museums and collections developments in science and scholarship and narratives of nationalism and colonialism into the present In recent years life writing has played an important role in the surge of new research in the history of archaeology including ground breaking studies of discipline formation institutionalisation and social and intellectual networks Sources such as diaries wills film and the growing body of digital records are powerful tools for highlighting the contributions of hitherto marginalised archaeological lives including many pioneering women hired labourers and other hidden hands This book brings together critical perspectives on life writing in the history of archaeology from leading figures in the field These include studies of archive formation and use the concept of dig writing as a distinctive genre of archaeological creativity and reviews of new sources for already well known lives Several chapters reflect on the experience of life writing review the historiography of the field and assess the intellectual value and significance of life writing as a genre Together they work to problematise underlying assumptions about this genre foregrounding methodology social theory ethics and other practice focused frameworks in conscious tension with previous practices
