One in Christ Jesus David Lertis Matson,K.C. Richardson,2014-11-11 This Festschrift dedicated to S Scott Bartchy comes on the occasion of his retirement from the Department of History at the University of California at Los Angeles This volume contains seventeen essays contributed by Professor Bartchy s esteemed colleagues associates friends and former graduate students Beginning with his groundbreaking work on Greco Roman slavery Bartchy s teaching and research have been marked both by his use of social scientific methods for studying the New Testament and by an interest in the social history of early Christianity including the role of women in the early Christian assemblies the Christian critique of traditional views of male honor and the practice of table fellowship and its implications for Christian social relations To honor Bartchy s legacy the editors thought it appropriate to organize this collection according to the relational categories suggested by Galatians 3 28 Each essay pertains therefore to the social dynamics between Jews and Gentiles slaves and freeborn or males and females in the early church and beyond The volume s subtitle reflects Scott s many accomplishments as a jazz musician and sounds a note of unity in diversity that characterizes the diverse perspectives and themes found in the essays of this volume The New Testament on Sexuality William Loader,2012-09-13 This is the fifth and final installment of William Loader s authoritative acclaimed series on attitudes toward sexuality in the ancient world Sexual themes are never far beneath the surface where there are human beings This was certainly the case for Christians in the first century world Some began in a strongly Jewish context and worked out their faith in dialogue with their scriptural heritage Others had to work out their sexual ethics in a world strongly influenced by Greco Roman ideals and practices In The New Testament on Sexuality William Loader explores the relevant cultural contexts and looks at New Testament texts related to sexuality highlighting both the warnings about sexual wrongdoing and the affirmations of sexual union He deals with specific themes such as divorce same sex relations women and men in leadership and celibacy individual behavior gender roles and rules preferences and hopes also fall under the scope of his investigation Broad ranging and thorough this book engages both the biblical texts and the diverse ways in which they have been interpreted Reconsidering Gender Myk Habets,Beulah Wood,2011-01-01 This volume deals with the varied forms of shame reflected in biblical theological psychological and anthropological sources Although traditional theology and church practice concentrate on providing forgiveness for shameful

Men and Women in the Household of God Korinna Zamfir, 2013-04-10 Korinna Zamfir explores the manner in which the Pastoral Epistles redefine roles and ministries within a changed ecclesiological framework the ekklesia as oikos Theou The contextual investigation focuses on the cultural and social background of the station codes and church orders Applying the environmental approach advanced by Abraham Malherbe Zamfir discusses the Pastoral Epistles as writings intimately linked to their Greco Roman social and cultural environment The volume addresses the mentalities reflected in moral philosophies political theories drama and epigraphy focusing on the discourse articulated in these sources Exploring the adoption of conservative mentalities the monograph advances a reading of the Pastoral Epistles based on ideology critique It also incorporates insights gained from research on the social world of earliest Christianity in particular on private associations Korinna Zamfir argues that the ecclesiology of the Pastoral Epistles presupposes the metaphorical use of oikos Theou and shows that in Greco Roman antiquity oikos denotes larger social entities like the religious association the polis and the cosmos The ekklesia is the oikos and polis of God As a consequence the Pastoral Epistles define roles and ministries based on the public private divide and on honor and shame mentality The theological and cosmic dimension of the household of God explains the essentialist understanding of social and ecclesial roles The author also tackles the contrast between discourse and ecclesial reality

European legal and social history You Belong to Christ J. Brian Tucker, 2011-01-01 You Belong to Christ explores the way that the Apostle Paul sought to form the social identity of one of his most important Christ following communities It sheds light on the way various social identities function within the Pauline community and provides guidance concerning the social implications of the gospel Drawing from contemporary social identity theories as well as ancient source material J Brian Tucker describes the way 1 Corinthians 14 forms social identity in its readers so that what results is an alternative community with a distinct ethos in contrast to the Roman Empire and its imperial ideology This book contends that previous identities are not obliterated in Christ but maintain their fundamental significance and serve to further the Pauline mission by means of social integration Providing a comprehensive survey of Christian identity in Pauline studies as well as an interesting look into the material remains of Roman Corinth this volume provides a social scientific reading of 1 Corinthians 14 and argues that Paul's strategy was to form salient in Christ social identity in those to whom he wrote Religions and Education in Antiquity Alex Damm, 2018-10-22 Religions and Education in Antiquity gathers ten essays on teaching and learning in the contexts of ancient Western religions including Judaism early Christianity and Gnostic Christian traditions Beginning with an overview of religious education in the ancient Near Eastern and Mediterranean worlds editor Alex Damm and the contributors together demonstrate the mutual influence of religion and education on each other the relevance of educational traditions in addressing for instance historical or exegetical issues and the thoroughgoing importance of education to religious life across time and space in antiquity Highly useful to scholars of religion theology classics and education this volume affords a state of the art study on pedagogy and learning in ancient religious contexts Women's Socioeconomic Status and Religious Leadership in Asia Minor in the First Two Centuries C.E. Katherine Bain, 2014 Rethinking the socioeconomic status of women in the Roman world Moving beyond discussions of patriarchy and prescribed women's roles in the Roman world discussions that have relied too much on elite literary sources in her view Katherine Bain explores what inscriptional data from Asia Minor can tell us about the actual socioeconomic status of women in the first and second centuries C E Her findings suggest that women's leadership in social associations and by implication in Jewish and Christian congregations as well was even more frequent than has been imagined Book Cover The Not-Very-Persecuted Church Laura Hunt, 2011-11-01 How do we live distinctively in communities embedded in the world around us The Not Very Persecuted Church provides church leaders pastors and Christians interested in community development with principles for evaluating culture in light of mission Since we are called to live in community the processes that build group identity can help us understand how to live together well Paul addressed some of the problems that can occur in not very persecuted groups in the first four chapters of 1 Corinthians and he shows us the way suffering forms identity in that context With discussion questions and stories from personal interviews this book offers both fascinating glimpses into the world of the first century and practical applications for Christians today Community Building in the Shepherd of Hermas Mark

Grundeken,2015-06-02 In Community Building in the Shepherd of Hermas Mark Grundeken investigates key aspects of Christian community life as reflected upon in the early Christian writing the Shepherd of Hermas 2nd century C E Grundeken's thematic study deals with various topics the community's identity including its alleged Jewish Christianness lack of resurrection belief sectarian tendencies and its relation to the authorities and to the emperor cult social features encompassing gender roles and charity and rituals such as baptism metanoia Eucharistic meals the Sunday collection dancing and singing the holy kiss and reading of Scripture The many fruitful entries prove Hermas to be one of the main texts for studying the development of community building in the early church 1 Timothy Aida Besancon

Spencer,2014-08-28 In a thorough and insightful commentary on Paul's letter to his co worker Timothy which the Apostle wrote before and during Nero's persecution Aida Besancon Spencer carefully examines each part of the letter and relates it to the overall flow of the argument and in light of the larger biblical historical social and cultural contexts How Paul's writing related to the ancient communities is highlighted in the light of original data gleaned from her explorations on location in Ephesus and throughout Greece In addition Paul's rhetorical and ministry strategies especially as they relate to women and their role in the church are explored Throughout Spencer presents an in depth exegesis in a readable format enhanced by forty years of ministry Phoebe Joan Cecelia Campbell,2009 Human beings are embedded in a set of social relations A social network is one way of conceiving that set of relations in terms of a number of persons connected to one another by varying degrees of relatedness In the early Jesus group documents featuring Paul and coworkers it takes little effort to envision the apostle's collection of friends and friends of friends that is the Pauline network The persons who constituted that network are the focus of this set of brief books For Christians of the Western tradition these persons are significant ancestors in faith While each of them is worth knowing by themselves it is largely because of their standing within that web of social relations woven about and around Paul that they are of lasting interest Through this series we hope to come to know those persons in ways befitting their first century Mediterranean culture Imagine trying to find a window into the life of an individual who lived approximately two thousand years ago in a culture vastly different from our own Consider the added difficulty when that individual is a woman and the only written record of her consists of two biblical verses Rom 16 1 2 In this volume Joan C Campbell takes on the challenge and provides a surprisingly full and rich account of Phoebe of Kenchreai With Campbell we visit Phoebe's hometown we wander the city streets with her and we meet her associates Along the way we gain insight into the social roles that Paul ascribes to her sister deacon and patron and what these roles entailed in first century Mediterranean Jesus groups This book is important reading for anyone interested in the contribution of women to emerging Christianity and for contemporary deacons who seek to understand the biblical roots of their ministry Joan C Campbell CSM PhD is a member of the Congregation of Saint Martha of Prince Edward Island Canada and assistant professor of New Testament Studies at Atlantic School of Theology in Halifax Nova Scotia A major teaching and research interest of hers is the cultural world of first century Mediterranean Jesus groups and how knowledge of that cultural world can illumine biblical texts that deal with women such as Phoebe She is the author of Kinship Relations in the Gospel of John Her Master's Tools? Caroline Vander Stichele, Todd C. Penner, 2005 This collection of essays originating in the SBL International Meetings in Berlin 2002 and Cambridge 2003 explores the current reception of historical criticism in feminist biblical studies pushing the boundaries of past study and opening new vistas for future research By framing the discussion in the context of the current reevaluation of both historical criticism and feminist exegesis the contributors highlight the ongoing need to engage methodological issues In addition a strong postcolonial emphasis throughout the volume challenges the hegemony of Western biblical interpretation promoting a format of dialogue and engagement The collection brings together diverse cultural and geographical perspectives on biblical criticism with over ten countries represented Consisting of Western and non Western perspectives female and male scholars junior and senior voices in the field and a range of feminist scholars situated alongside postcolonial and gender critics this collection reveals not only the multiplicity of perspectives but also the various transitions in scholarship that have taken place over the past thirty years Volume contributors include Roland Boer Athalya Brenner Ann Graham Brock Kristin De Troyer Esther Fuchs Archie Chi Chung Lee Joseph Marchal John Marshall Hjamil Mart nez V zquez Madipoane Masenya ngwana Mphahlele Judith McKinlay Priscilla Geisterfer Nyvlt Jorunn kland Todd Penner Vernon Robbins Susanne Scholz Hanna Stenstr m and Caroline Vander Stichele Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org
