The Hour and the Man, An Historical Romance Harriet Martineau, 2019-11-26 In The Hour and the Man An Historical Romance Harriet Martineau intricately weaves a narrative set against the backdrop of the tumultuous period surrounding the Haitian Revolution Employing a vivid literary style that blends historical detail with emotive storytelling Martineau explores the complexities of human relationships within the frame of political upheaval The novel delves into the lives of its characters particularly focusing on the figure of Toussaint L. Overture to elucidate themes of freedom morality and the power of individual agency amidst conflict Martineau s adept use of dialogue and introspective prose enhances the reader s understanding of this historic moment while her attention to character development provides a nuanced perspective on the intersection of personal and political struggles Harriet Martineau a prominent 19th century writer and social theorist was deeply influenced by her commitment to social justice and equality Her extensive travels and engagement with various cultures imbued her work with a keen awareness of historical and social dynamics Martineau s interest in the Haitian Revolution coupled with her advocacy for women s rights and abolition shaped her portrayal of the themes in this novel making it both a literary and philosophical exploration I highly recommend The Hour and the Man for its rich historical context engaging characterization and Martineau s foresight into the political currents of her time This novel serves not only as a compelling romance but also as a critical commentary on the moral imperatives of freedom and leadership Readers interested in historical fiction feminist literature or the revolutionary struggle will find her insights both enlightening and profoundly moving

Eastern Nalini Natarajan, 2020-11-07 This book develops the idea of the Eastern as an analytically significant genre of film Positioned in counterpoint to the Western the famed cowboy genre of the American frontier the Eastern encompasses films that depict the eastern and southern frontiers of Euro American expansion Examining six films in particular Gunga Din 1939 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 Heat and Dust 1983 A Passage to India 1984 Indochine 1992 and The English Patient 1996 the author explores the duality of the Eastern as both aggressive and seductive depicting conquest and romance at the same time In juxtaposing these two elements the book seeks to reveal the double process by which the Eastern both diminishes the East and Global South and reinforces ignorance about these regions histories and complexity thereby setting the stage for ever escalating political aggression

Neri and Randy DuBurke's Yummy The Last Days of a Southside Shorty among many others The collection represents an original body of criticism about recently published works that have received scant scholarly attention The chapters confront issues of history and memory in contemporary multiethnic graphic novels employing diverse methodologies and approaches while adhering to three main guidelines First using a global lens contributors reconsider the concept of history and how it is manifest in their chosen texts Second contributors consider the ways in which graphic novels as a distinct genre can formally renovate or intervene in notions of the historical past Third contributors take seriously the possibilities and limitations of these historical revisions with regard to envisioning new different or even more positive versions of both the present and future As a whole the volume demonstrates that graphic novelists use the open and flexible space of the graphic narrative page in which readers can move not only forward but also backward upward downward and in several other directions to present history as an open realm of struggle that is continually being revised Contributors Frederick Luis Aldama Julie Buckner Armstrong Katharine Capshaw Monica Chiu Jennifer Glaser Taylor Hagood Caroline Kyungah Hong Angela Lafien Catherine H.
