intertwined with the city of Riverside's history since both began. As the slogan once said, Riverside is a City with a Mission. In its heart, for more than a century, the Mission Inn and its eclectic collections have intrigued visitors, artisans, architects, and dignitaries who have come to Riverside for a myriad of reasons. The Mission Inn, founded by colorful entrepreneur Frank Miller, was integral to the city's turn of the 20th century tourism, as wealthy Easterners flocked to Riverside and its famous hotel, lured by a Mediterranean climate, investment opportunities, and vast navel orange groves. Unlike other grand hotels of the time, the Mission Inn, with its Mission style architecture, was a luxury hotel that was uniquely Californian. Foreign Mission Chronicle of the Episcopal Church in Scotland, Together with the Kaffrarian Diocesan Quarterly, 1910 Mission:

Deverell, William Deverell, 2004-06-03 This magnificent book, the fruit of a decade of original research, is a landmark in Los Angeles's difficult conversation with its past. Deverell brilliantly exposes the white lies and racial deceptions that have for too long reigned as municipal history. Mike Davis Blantyre Mission and the Making of Modern Malawi C. Ross, 2018-05-16 When a thousand leading members of the Nyasaland African Congress were detained under the emergency regulations imposed by the Federation government in 1959, the Presbyterian chaplains who ministered to them at Kanchedza Camp in Limbe were the late Rev Jonathan Sangaya and Rev Andrew C. Ross. They soon discovered that around 700 of the thousand men were members of the Church of Central African Presbyterian. This raised a question in the mind of the recently arrived Scottish missionary: how may we account historically for the fact that so many national leaders were Presbyterians? The quest to answer that question led him to produce the thorough examination of the foundation and early history of the Blantyre Mission of the Church of Scotland, which is found in this book. Written in the mid 1960s, it remains today an indispensable work of reference for understanding the history of both church and nation in Malawi.
